(10) “Source patient”, any person who is sick or injured and requiring the care or services of a Good Samaritan or emergency care provider, for whose blood or other potentially infectious materials have resulted in exposure.

191.631. 1. (1) Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, if [a] an emergency care provider or a Good Samaritan sustains an exposure from a person while rendering emergency health care services, the person to whom the emergency care provider or Good Samaritan was exposed is deemed to consent to a test to determine if the person has a [contagious or infectious] communicable disease and is deemed to consent to notification of the emergency care provider or the Good Samaritan of the results of the test, upon submission of an exposure report by the emergency care provider or the Good Samaritan to the hospital where the person is delivered by the emergency care provider.

(2) The hospital where the [person] source patient is delivered shall conduct the test. The sample and test results shall only be identified by a number and shall not otherwise identify the person tested.

(3) A hospital shall have written policies and procedures for notification of [a] an emergency care provider or Good Samaritan pursuant to this section. The hospital shall include local representation of designated infection control officers during the process to develop or review such policies. The designated [representative] local infection control officer shall inform the hospital of those parties who receive the notification, and following receipt of such information and upon request of the person tested, the hospital shall inform the person of the parties to whom notification was provided.

(4) A coroner and medical examiner shall have written policies and procedures for notification of an emergency care provider and Good Samaritan pursuant to this section. The coroner or medical examiner shall include local representation of a designated infection control officer during the process to develop or review such policies. 4. This section does not require or permit, unless otherwise provided, a hospital to administer a test for the express purpose of determining the presence of a [contagious or infectious] communicable disease; except that testing may be performed if the person consents and if the requirements of this section are satisfied.

5. This section does not preclude a hospital, coroner, or medical examiner from providing notification to [a] an emergency care provider or Good Samaritan under circumstances in which the hospital's, coroner's, or medical examiner's policy provides for notification of the hospital's, coroner's, or medical examiner's own employees of exposure to a [contagious or infectious] communicable disease that is not life-threatening if the notice does not reveal a patient's name, unless the patient consents.

6. A hospital, coroner, or medical examiner participating in good faith in complying with the provisions of this section is immune from any liability, civil or criminal, which may otherwise be incurred or imposed.

7. A hospital's duty of notification pursuant to this section is not continuing but is limited to diagnosis of a [contagious or infectious] communicable disease made in the course of admission, care, and treatment following the rendering of health care services to which notification pursuant to this section applies.

8. A hospital, coroner, or medical examiner that performs a test in compliance with this section or that fails to perform a test authorized pursuant to this section is immune from any liability, civil or criminal, which may otherwise be incurred or imposed.

9. [A hospital has no duty to perform the test authorized.

10.] The department shall adopt rules to implement this section. No rule or portion of a rule promulgated under the authority of this section shall become effective unless it has been promulgated pursuant to chapter 536.

[11.] 10. The [employer of a] agency which employs or sponsors the emergency care provider who sustained an exposure pursuant to this section shall pay the costs of testing for the person who is the source of the exposure and of the testing of the emergency care provider if the exposure was sustained during the course of [employment] the provider's expected duties.

“301.067. 1. For each trailer or semitrailer there shall be paid an annual fee of seven dollars fifty cents, and in addition thereto such permit fee authorized by law against trailers used in combination with tractors operated under the supervision of the motor carrier and railroad safety division of the department of economic development. The fees for tractors used in any combination with trailers or semitrailers or both trailers and semitrailers (other than on passenger-carrying trailers or semitrailers) shall be computed on the total gross weight of the vehicles in the combination with load.

2. Any trailer or semitrailer may at the option of the registrant be registered for a period of three years upon payment of a registration fee of twenty-two dollars and fifty cents.

3. Any trailer as defined in section 301.010 or semitrailer [which is operated coupled to a towing vehicle by a fifth wheel and kingpin assembly or by a trailer converter dolly] may, at the option of the registrant, be registered permanently upon the payment of a registration fee of fifty-two dollars and fifty cents. The permanent plate and registration fee is vehicle specific. 301.227. 1. Whenever a vehicle is sold for salvage, dismantling or rebuilding, the purchaser shall forward to the director of revenue within ten days the certificate of ownership or salvage certificate of title and the proper application and fee of eight dollars and fifty cents, and the director shall issue a negotiable salvage certificate of title to the purchaser of the salvaged vehicle. On vehicles purchased during a year that is no more than six years after the manufacturer’s model year designation for such vehicle, it shall be mandatory that the purchaser apply for a salvage title. On vehicles purchased during a year that is more than six years after the manufacturer’s model year designation for such vehicle, then application for a salvage title shall be optional on the part of the purchaser. Whenever a vehicle is sold for destruction and a salvage certificate of title, junking certificate, or certificate of ownership exists, the seller, if licensed under sections 301.217 to 301.221, shall forward the certificate to the director of revenue within ten days, with the notation of the date sold for destruction and the name of the purchaser clearly shown on the face of the certificate.

2. Whenever a vehicle is classified as “junk”, as defined in section 301.010, the purchaser may forward to the director of revenue the salvage certificate of title or certificate of ownership and the director shall issue a negotiable junking certificate [to the purchaser of the vehicle] which shall authorize the holder to possess, transport, or, by assignment, transfer ownership in such parts, scrap, or junk. The director may also issue a junking certificate to a possessor of a vehicle manufactured twenty-six years or more prior to the current model year who has a bill of sale for said vehicle but does not possess a certificate of ownership, provided no claim of theft has been made on the vehicle and the highway patrol has by letter stated the vehicle is not listed as stolen after checking the registration number through its nationwide computer system. Such certificate may be granted within thirty days of the submission of a request.

3. [Upon receipt of a properly completed application for a junking certificate, the director of revenue shall issue to the applicant a junking certificate which shall authorize the holder to possess, transport, or, by assignment, transfer ownership in such parts, scrap or junk, and a certificate of title shall not again be issued for such vehicle; except that, the initial purchaser] Notwithstanding any other provision of law, for any vehicle with a junk or substantially equivalent designation, whether so designated in Missouri or any other state, regardless of whether such designation has been subsequently changed erroneously or by law in this or any other state, the department shall only issue a junking certificate, and a salvage or original certificate of title shall not thereafter be issued for such vehicle. If the vehicle has not previously been designated as junk or any other substantially equivalent designation from this state or any other state, the applicant making the original junking certification application shall, within ninety days, be allowed to rescind [his] the application for a junking certificate by surrendering the junking certificate and apply for a salvage certificate of title in [his] the applicant’s name. The seller of a vehicle for which a junking certificate has been applied for or issued shall disclose such fact in writing to any prospective buyers before sale of such vehicle; otherwise the sale shall be voidable at the option of the buyer.

4. No scrap metal operator shall acquire or purchase a motor vehicle or parts thereof without, at the time of such acquisition, receiving the original certificate of title or salvage certificate of title or junking certificate from the seller of the vehicle or parts, unless the seller is a licensee under sections 301.219 to 301.221.

5. All titles and certificates required to be received by scrap metal operators from nonlicensees shall be forwarded by the operator to the director of revenue within ten days of the receipt of the vehicle or parts.

8. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 1 of this section, an insurance company which settles a claim for a stolen vehicle may apply for and shall be issued a negotiable salvage certificate of title without the payment of any fee upon proper application within thirty days after settlement of the claim for such stolen vehicle. However, if the insurance company upon recovery of a stolen vehicle determines that the stolen vehicle has not sustained damage to the extent that the vehicle would have otherwise been declared a salvage vehicle pursuant to subdivision (51) of section 301.010, then the insurance company may have the vehicle inspected by the Missouri state highway patrol, or other law enforcement agency authorized by the director of revenue, in accordance with the inspection provisions of subsection 9 of section 301.190. Upon receipt of title application, applicable fee, the completed inspection, and the return of any previously issued negotiable salvage certificate, the director shall issue an original title with no salvage or prior salvage designation. Upon the issuance of an original title the director shall remove any indication of the negotiable salvage title previously issued to the insurance company from the department's electronic records.

[9. Notwithstanding subsection 4 of this section or any other provision of the law to the contrary, if a motor vehicle is inoperable and is at least ten model years old, or the parts are from a motor vehicle that is inoperable and is at least ten model years old, a scrap metal operator may purchase or acquire such motor vehicle or parts without receiving the original certificate of title, salvage certificate of title, or junking certificate from the seller of the vehicle or parts, provided the scrap metal operator verifies with the department of revenue, via the department's online record access, that the motor vehicle is not subject to any recorded security interest or lien and the scrap metal operator complies with the requirements of this subsection. In lieu of forwarding certificates of titles for such motor vehicles as required by subsection 5 of this section, the scrap metal operator shall forward a copy of the seller's state identification along with a bill of sale to the department of revenue. The bill of sale form shall be designed by the director and such form shall include, but not be limited to, a certification that the motor vehicle is at least ten model years old, is inoperable, is not subject to any recorded security interest or lien, and a certification by the seller that the seller has the legal authority to sell or otherwise transfer the seller's interest in the motor vehicle or parts. Upon receipt of the information required by this subsection, the department of revenue shall cancel any certificate of title and registration for the motor vehicle. If the motor vehicle is inoperable and at least twenty model years old, then the scrap metal operator shall not be required to verify with the department of revenue whether the motor vehicle is subject to any recorded security interests or liens. As used in this subsection, the term "inoperable" means a motor vehicle that is in a rusted, wrecked, discarded, worn out, extensively damaged, dismantled, and mechanically inoperative condition and the vehicle's highest and best use is for scrap purposes. ## HOUSE AMENDMENT NO. 1

Amend House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute No. 2 for Senate Bill No. 754, Page 5, Section 196.990, Line 90, by inserting after all of said section and line the following:

“208.631. 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the MO HealthNet division shall establish a program to pay for health care for uninsured children. Coverage pursuant to sections 208.631 to [208.659] 208.658 is subject to appropriation. The provisions of sections 208.631 to [208.569] 208.658, health care for uninsured children, shall be void and of no effect if there are no funds of the United States appropriated by Congress to be provided to the state on the basis of a state plan approved by the federal government under the federal Social Security Act. If funds are appropriated by the United States Congress, the department of social services is authorized to manage the state children’s health insurance program (SCHIP) allotment in order to ensure that the state receives maximum federal financial participation. Children in households with incomes up to one hundred fifty percent of the federal poverty level may meet all Title XIX program guidelines as required by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services. Children in households with incomes of one hundred fifty percent to three hundred percent of the federal poverty level shall continue to be eligible as they were and receive services as they did on June 30, 2007, unless changed by the Missouri general assembly.

2. For the purposes of sections 208.631 to [208.659] 208.658, “children” are persons up to nineteen years of age. “Uninsured children” are persons up to nineteen years of age who are emancipated and do not have access to affordable employer-subsidized health care insurance or other health care coverage or persons whose parent or guardian have not had access to affordable employer-subsidized health care insurance or other health care coverage for their children [for six months] prior to application, are residents of the state of Missouri, and have parents or guardians who meet the requirements in section 208.636. A child who is eligible for MO HealthNet benefits as authorized in section 208.151 is not uninsured for the purposes of sections 208.631 to [208.659] 208.658.

208.636. Parents and guardians of uninsured children eligible for the program established in sections 208.631 to [208.657] 208.658 shall:

(1) Furnish to the department of social services the uninsured child’s Social Security number or numbers, if the uninsured child has more than one such number;

(2) Cooperate with the department of social services in identifying and providing information to assist the state in pursuing any third-party insurance carrier who may be liable to pay for health care;

(3) Cooperate with the department of social services, division of child support enforcement in establishing paternity and in obtaining support payments, including medical support; and

(4) Demonstrate upon request their child’s participation in wellness programs including immunizations and a periodic physical examination. This subdivision shall not apply to any child whose parent or legal guardian objects in writing to such wellness programs including immunizations and an annual physical examination because of religious beliefs or medical contraindications[; and

(5) Demonstrate annually that their total net worth does not exceed two hundred fifty thousand dollars in total value].

208.640. 1. Parents and guardians of uninsured children with incomes of more than one hundred fifty but less than three hundred percent of the federal poverty level who do not have access to affordable employer-sponsored health care insurance or other affordable health care coverage may obtain coverage for their children under this section. Health insurance plans that do not cover an eligible child's preexisting condition shall not be considered affordable employer-sponsored health care insurance or other affordable health care coverage. For the purposes of sections 208.631 to [208.659] 208.658, "affordable employer-sponsored health care insurance or other affordable health care coverage" refers to health insurance requiring a monthly premium of:

(1) Three percent of one hundred fifty percent of the federal poverty level for a family of three for families with a gross income of more than one hundred fifty and up to one hundred eighty-five percent of the federal poverty level for a family of three;

(2) Four percent of one hundred eighty-five percent of the federal poverty level for a family of three for a family with a gross income of more than one hundred eighty-five and up to two hundred twenty-five percent of the federal poverty level;

(3) Five percent of two hundred twenty-five percent of the federal poverty level for a family of three for a family with a gross income of more than two hundred twenty-five but less than three hundred percent of the federal poverty level.

The parents and guardians of eligible uninsured children pursuant to this section are responsible for a monthly premium as required by annual state appropriation; provided that the total aggregate cost sharing for a family covered by these sections shall not exceed five percent of such family's income for the years involved. No co-payments or other cost sharing is permitted with respect to benefits for well-baby and well-child care including age-appropriate immunizations. Cost-sharing provisions for their children under sections 208.631 to [208.659] 208.658 shall not exceed the limits established by 42 U.S.C. Section 1397cc(e). If a child has exceeded the annual coverage limits for all health care services, the child is not considered insured and does not have access to affordable health insurance within the meaning of this section.

2. The department of social services shall study the expansion of a presumptive eligibility process for children for medical assistance benefits.

208.643. 1. The department of social services shall implement policies establishing a program to pay for health care for uninsured children by rules promulgated pursuant to chapter 536, either statewide or in certain geographic areas, subject to obtaining necessary federal approval and appropriation authority. The rules may provide for a health care services package that includes all medical services covered by section 208.152, except nonemergency transportation.

2. Available income shall be determined by the department of social services by rule, which shall comply with federal laws and regulations relating to the state's eligibility to receive federal funds to implement the insurance program established in sections 208.631 to [208.657] 208.658.

208.646. There shall be a thirty-day waiting period after enrollment for uninsured children in families with an income of more than two hundred twenty-five percent of the federal poverty level before the child becomes eligible for insurance under the provisions of sections 208.631 to [208.660] 208.658. If the parent or guardian with an income of more than two hundred twenty-five percent of the federal poverty level fails to meet the co-payment or premium requirements, the child shall not be eligible for coverage under sections

208.631 to [208.660] 208.658 for [six months] ninety days after the department provides notice of such failure to the parent or guardian.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

3. Coverage for an unborn child enrolled in the show-me healthy babies program shall include all prenatal care and pregnancy-related services that benefit the health of the unborn child and that promote healthy labor, delivery, and birth. Coverage need not include services that are solely for the benefit of the pregnant mother, that are unrelated to maintaining or promoting a healthy pregnancy, and that provide no benefit to the unborn child. However, the department may include pregnancy-related assistance as defined in 42 U.S.C. 1397ll.

4. There shall be no waiting period before an unborn child may be enrolled in the show-me healthy babies program. 5. All payments shall be made from the state legal expense fund by the commissioner of administration with the approval of the attorney general. Payment from the state legal expense fund of a claim or final judgment award against a health care professional licensed or registered under chapter 330, 331, 332, 334, 335, 336, 337, or 338, described in paragraph (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), or (f) of subdivision (3) of subsection 2 of this section, or against an attorney in subdivision (5) of subsection 2 of this section, shall only be made for services rendered in accordance with the conditions of such paragraphs. In the case of any claim or judgment against an officer or employee of the state or any agency of the state based upon conduct of such officer or employee arising out of and performed in connection with his or her official duties on behalf of the state or any agency of the state that would give rise to a cause of action under section 537.600, the state legal expense fund shall be liable, excluding punitive damages, for:

- (1) Economic damages to any one claimant; and
- (2) Up to three hundred fifty thousand dollars for noneconomic damages.

The state legal expense fund shall be the exclusive remedy and shall preclude any other civil actions or proceedings for money damages arising out of or relating to the same subject matter against the state officer or employee, or the officer's or employee's estate. No officer or employee of the state or any agency of the state shall be individually liable in his or her personal capacity for conduct of such officer or employee arising out of and performed in connection with his or her official duties on behalf of the state or any agency of the state. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to any defendant who is not an officer or employee of the state or any agency of the state in any proceeding against an officer or employee of the state or any agency of the state. Nothing in this subsection shall limit the rights and remedies otherwise available to a claimant under state law or common law in proceedings where one or more defendants is not an officer or employee of the state or any agency of the state.

6. The limitation on awards for noneconomic damages provided for in this subsection shall be increased or decreased on an annual basis effective January first of each year in accordance with the Implicit Price Deflator for Personal Consumption Expenditures as published by the Bureau of Economic Analysis of the United States Department of Commerce. The current value of the limitation shall be calculated by the director of the department of insurance, financial institutions and professional registration, who shall furnish that value to the secretary of state, who shall publish such value in the Missouri Register as soon after each January first as practicable, but it shall otherwise be exempt from the provisions of section 536.021.

7. Except as provided in subsection 3 of this section, in the case of any claim or judgment that arises under sections 537.600 and 537.610 against the state of Missouri, or an agency of the state, the aggregate of payments from the state legal expense fund and from any policy of insurance procured pursuant to the provisions of section 105.721 shall not exceed the limits of liability as provided in sections 537.600 to 537.610. No payment shall be made from the state legal expense fund or any policy of insurance procured with state funds pursuant to section 105.721 unless and until the benefits provided to pay the claim by any other policy of liability insurance have been exhausted.

8. The provisions of section 33.080 notwithstanding, any moneys remaining to the credit of the state legal expense fund at the end of an appropriation period shall not be transferred to general revenue.

9. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, that is promulgated under the authority delegated in sections 105.711 to 105.726 shall become effective only if it has been promulgated pursuant to the provisions of chapter 536. Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to repeal or affect the validity of any rule filed or adopted prior to August 28, 1999, if it fully complied with the provisions of chapter 536. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 1999, shall be invalid and void.”; and

In which the concurrence of the Senate is respectfully requested.

"Special circumstances" may include, but is not limited to, the railroad right-of-way segment's relationship to other property, location in urban or other developed areas, the existence of unique topography or natural resources, or other characteristics or dangers inherent in the particular crossing or segment of the railroad right-of-way;

[389.586. 1. After the land management company receives a copy of the notice from the utility, the land management company shall send a complete copy of that notice, by certified mail or by private delivery service which requires a return receipt, to the railroad or railroad corporation within two business days. No utility may commence a crossing until the railroad or railroad corporation has approved the crossing. The railroad or railroad corporation shall have thirty days from the receipt of the notice to review and approve or reject the proposed crossing. The railroad or railroad corporation shall reject a proposed crossing only if special circumstances exist. If the railroad or railroad corporation rejects a proposed crossing, the utility may submit an amended proposal for a crossing. The railroad or railroad corporation shall have an additional thirty days from receipt of the amended proposal to review and approve or reject the amended crossing proposal. The railroad or railroad corporation shall not unreasonably withhold approval. Once the railroad or railroad corporation grants such approval, and upon payment of the fee and any other payments authorized pursuant to sections 389.586 or 389.587, the utility shall be deemed to have authorization to commence the crossing activity. The utility shall provide the railroad or railroad corporation with written notification of the commencement of the crossing activity before beginning such activity.

2. The land management company and the utility shall maintain and repair its own property within the land management corridor and each shall bear responsibility for its own acts and omissions, except that the utility shall be responsible for any bodily injury or property damage arising from the installation, maintenance, repair and its use of the crossing. The railroad or railroad corporation may require the utility and the land management company to obtain reasonable amounts of comprehensive general liability insurance and railroad protective liability insurance coverage for a crossing, and that this insurance coverage name the railroad or railroad corporation as an insured. Further, the land management company and the utility shall provide the railroad or railroad corporation with proof that they have liability insurance coverage which meets such requirements, if any.

3. A utility shall have immediate access to a crossing for repair and maintenance of existing facilities in case of an immediate threat to life and upon notification to the applicable railroad or railroad corporation. Before commencing any such work, the utility must first contact the railroad or railroad corporation's dispatch center, command center or other facility which is designated to receive emergency communications.

4. The utility shall be provided a crossing, absent a claim of special circumstances, after payment by the utility of the standard crossing fee, submission of completed engineering specifications to the land management company, and approval of the crossing by the railroad or railroad corporation. The engineering specifications shall comply with the clearance requirements as established by the National Electrical Safety Code, the American Railway Engineering and Maintenance of Way Association and the standards of the applicable railroad or railroad corporation which are in effect and which apply to conditions at a particular crossing. The land management company and utility shall further be responsible for any modifications, upgrades or other changes which may be needed to comply with changes in said standards.

5. The utility, the railroad or railroad corporation, and the land management company shall agree to such other terms and conditions as may be necessary to provide for reasonable use of a land management corridor by a utility.]

that locates its facilities within the railroad right-of-way for a crossing, other than a crossing along a state highway or other public road, shall pay the land management company a one-time standard crossing fee of one thousand five hundred dollars for each crossing plus the costs associated with modifications to existing insurance contracts of the land management company. The standard crossing fee shall be in lieu of any license, permit, application, plan review, or any other fees or charges to reimburse the land management company for the direct expenses incurred by the land management company as a result of the crossing. The utility shall also reimburse the land management company for any actual flagging expenses associated with a crossing in addition to the standard crossing fee. The railroad or railroad corporation has the right to halt work at the crossing if the flagging does not meet the standards of the railroad or railroad corporation. Nothing in this section is intended to otherwise restrict or limit any authority or right a utility may have to locate facilities at a crossing along a state highway or any other public road or to otherwise enter upon lands where authorized by law.]

[389.588. 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 389.586, nothing shall prevent a land management company and a utility from otherwise negotiating the terms and conditions applicable to a crossing or the resolution of any disputes relating to the crossing so long as they do not interfere with the rights of a railroad or railroad corporation. No agreement between a land management company and a utility shall affect the rights, interests or operations of a railroad or railroad corporation.

2. Notwithstanding subsection 1 of this section, the provisions of this section shall not impair the authority of a utility to secure crossing rights by easement pursuant to the exercise of the power of eminent domain.]

[389.589. 1. If the parties cannot agree that special circumstances exist, the dispute shall be submitted to binding arbitration.

2. Either party may give written notice to the other party of the commencement of a binding arbitration proceeding in accordance with the commercial rules of arbitration in the American Arbitration Association. Any decision by the board of arbitration shall be final, binding and conclusive as to the parties. Nothing provided in this section shall prevent either party from submission of disputes to the courts. Land management companies and utilities may seek enforcement of sections 389.586 through 389.591 in a court of proper jurisdiction and shall be entitled to reasonable attorney fees if they prevail.

3. If the dispute over special circumstances concerns only the compensation associated with a crossing, then the utility may proceed with installation of the crossing during the pendency of the arbitration.]

[389.591. 1. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, sections 389.585 to 389.591 shall apply in all crossings of land management corridors involving a land management company and a utility and shall govern in the event of any conflict with any other provision of law, except that sections 389.585 to 389.591 shall not override or nullify the condemnation laws of this state nor confer the power of eminent domain on any entity not granted such power prior to August 28, 2013.

2. The provisions of sections 389.585 to 389.591 shall apply to a crossing commenced after August 28, 2013. These provisions shall also apply to a crossing commenced before August 28, 2013, but only upon the expiration or termination of the agreement for such crossing.]"; and

In which the concurrence of the Senate is respectfully requested.

Also,

Mr. President: I am instructed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House has taken up and passed HCS for SCS for SB 664, entitled:

An Act to repeal sections 260.273, 444.772, and 643.055, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof seven new sections relating to natural resources, with an emergency clause for a certain section.

With House Amendment No. 2.

HOUSE AMENDMENT NO. 2

Amend House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 664, Pages 3-6, Section 444.772, Lines 1-108, by deleting all of said section and lines from the bill; and

Further amend said bill, Page 8, Section 644.058, Line 9, by inserting after all of said section and line the following:

“644.145. 1. When issuing permits under this chapter that incorporate a new requirement for discharges from publicly owned combined or separate sanitary or storm sewer systems or treatment works, or when enforcing provisions of this chapter or the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, 33 U.S.C. 1251, et seq., pertaining to any portion of a publicly owned combined or separate sanitary or storm sewer system or treatment works, the department of natural resources shall make a finding of affordability on the costs to be incurred and the impact of any rate changes on ratepayers upon which to base such permits and decisions, to the extent allowable under this chapter and the Federal Water Pollution Control Act.

2. (1) The department of natural resources shall not be required under this section to make a finding of affordability when:

(a) Issuing collection system extension permits;

(b) Issuing National Pollution Discharge Elimination System operating permit renewals which include no new environmental requirements; or

(c) The permit applicant certifies that the applicable requirements are affordable to implement or otherwise waives the requirement for an affordability finding; however, at no time shall the department require that any applicant certify, as a condition to approving any permit, administrative or civil action, that a requirement, condition, or penalty is affordable.

(2) The exceptions provided under paragraph (c) of subdivision (1) of this subsection do not apply when the community being served has less than three thousand three hundred residents.

3. When used in this chapter and in standards, rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to this chapter, the following words and phrases mean:

(1) “Affordability”, with respect to payment of a utility bill, a measure of whether an individual customer or household with an income equal to the lower of the median household income for their community or the state of Missouri can pay the bill without undue hardship or unreasonable sacrifice in the essential lifestyle or spending patterns of the individual or household, taking into consideration the criteria described in subsection 4 of this section;

(2) “Financial capability”, the financial capability of a community to make investments necessary to make water quality-related improvements;

(3) “Finding of affordability”, a department statement as to whether an individual or a household receiving as income an amount equal to the lower of the median household income for the applicant community or the state of Missouri would be required to make unreasonable sacrifices in their essential lifestyle or spending patterns or undergo hardships in order to make the projected monthly payments for sewer services. The department shall make a statement that the proposed changes meet the definition of affordable, or fail to meet the definition of affordable, or are implemented as a federal mandate regardless of affordability.

4. The department of natural resources shall adopt procedures by which it will make affordability findings that evaluate the affordability of permit requirements and enforcement actions described in subsection 1 of this section, and may begin implementing such procedures prior to promulgating implementing regulations. The commission shall have the authority to promulgate rules to implement this section pursuant to chapters 536 and 644, and shall promulgate such rules as soon as practicable. Affordability findings shall be based upon reasonably verifiable data and shall include an assessment of affordability with respect to persons or entities affected.

The department shall offer the permittee an opportunity to review a draft affordability finding, and the permittee may suggest changes and provide additional supporting information, subject to subsection 6 of this section. The finding shall be based upon the following criteria:

- (1) A community's financial capability and ability to raise or secure necessary funding;
  - (2) Affordability of pollution control options for the individuals or households at or below the median household income level of the community;
  - (3) An evaluation of the overall costs and environmental benefits of the control technologies;
  - (4) Inclusion of ongoing costs of operating and maintaining the existing wastewater collection and treatment system, including payments on outstanding debts for wastewater collection and treatment systems when calculating projected rates;
  - (5) An inclusion of ways to reduce economic impacts on distressed populations in the community, including but not limited to low- and fixed-income populations. This requirement includes but is not limited to:
    - (a) Allowing adequate time in implementation schedules to mitigate potential adverse impacts on distressed populations resulting from the costs of the improvements and taking into consideration local community economic considerations; and
    - (b) Allowing for reasonable accommodations for regulated entities when inflexible standards and fines would impose a disproportionate financial hardship in light of the environmental benefits to be gained;
  - [(5)] (6) An assessment of other community investments and operating costs relating to environmental improvements and public health protection;
  - [(6)] (7) An assessment of factors set forth in the United States Environmental Protection Agency's guidance, including but not limited to the "Combined Sewer Overflow Guidance for Financial Capability Assessment and Schedule Development" that may ease the cost burdens of implementing wet weather control plans, including but not limited to small system considerations, the attainability of water quality standards, and the development of wet weather standards; and
  - [(7)] (8) An assessment of any other relevant local community economic condition.
5. Prescriptive formulas and measures used in determining financial capability, affordability, and thresholds for expenditure, such as median household income, should not be considered to be the only indicator of a community's ability to implement control technology and shall be viewed in the context of other economic conditions rather than as a threshold to be achieved.
6. Reasonable time spent preparing draft affordability findings, allowing permittees to review draft affordability findings or draft permits, or revising draft affordability findings, shall be allowed in addition to the department's deadlines for making permitting decisions pursuant to section 644.051.
7. If the department of natural resources fails to make a finding of affordability where required by this section, then the resulting permit or decision shall be null, void and unenforceable.
8. The department of natural resources' findings under this section may be appealed to the commission pursuant to subsection 6 of section 644.051.

9. The department shall file an annual report by the beginning of the fiscal year with the governor, the speaker of the house of representatives, the president pro tempore of the senate, and the chairs of the committees in both houses having primary jurisdiction over natural resource issues showing at least the following information on the findings of affordability completed in the previous calendar year:

(1) The total number of findings of affordability issued by the department, those categorized as affordable, those categorized as not meeting the definition of affordable, and those implemented as a federal mandate regardless of affordability;

(2) The average increase in sewer rates both in dollars and percentage for all findings found to be affordable;

(3) The average increase in sewer rates as a percentage of median house income in the communities for those findings determined to be affordable and a separate calculation of average increases in sewer rates for those found not to meet the definition of affordable;

(4) A list of all the permit holders receiving findings, and for each permittee the following data taken from the finding of affordability shall be listed:

(a) Current and projected monthly residential sewer rates in dollars;

(b) Projected monthly residential sewer rates as a percentage of median house income;

(c) Percentage of households at or below the state poverty rate.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

Emergency clause defeated.

In which the concurrence of the Senate is respectfully requested.

“143.451. 1. Missouri taxable income of a corporation shall include all income derived from sources within this state.

2. A corporation described in subdivision (1) of subsection 1 of section 143.441 shall include in its Missouri taxable income all income from sources within this state, including that from the transaction of business in this state and that from the transaction of business partly done in this state and partly done in another state or states. However:

(1) Where income results from a transaction partially in this state and partially in another state or states, and income and deductions of the portion in the state cannot be segregated, then such portions of income and deductions shall be allocated in this state and the other state or states as will distribute to this state a portion based upon the portion of the transaction in this state and the portion in such other state or states.

(2) The taxpayer may elect to compute the portion of income from all sources in this state in the following manner, or the manner set forth in subdivision (3) of this subsection:

(a) The income from all sources shall be determined as provided, excluding therefrom the figures for the operation of any bridge connecting this state with another state.

(b) The amount of sales which are transactions wholly in this state shall be added to one-half of the amount of sales which are transactions partly within this state and partly without this state, and the amount thus obtained shall be divided by the total sales or in cases where sales do not express the volume of business, the amount of business transacted wholly in this state shall be added to one-half of the amount of business transacted partly in this state and partly outside this state and the amount thus obtained shall be divided by the total amount of business transacted, and the net income shall be multiplied by the fraction thus obtained, to determine the proportion of income to be used to arrive at the amount of Missouri taxable income. The investment or reinvestment of its own funds, or sale of any such investment or reinvestment, shall not be considered as sales or other business transacted for the determination of said fraction.

(c) For the purposes of this subdivision, a transaction involving the sale of tangible property is:

a. “Wholly in this state” if both the seller’s shipping point and the purchaser’s destination point are in this state;

b. “Partly within this state and partly without this state” if the seller’s shipping point is in this state and the purchaser’s destination point is outside this state, or the seller’s shipping point is outside this state and the purchaser’s destination point is in this state;

c. Not “wholly in this state” or not “partly within this state and partly without this state” only if both the seller’s shipping point and the purchaser’s destination point are outside this state.

(d) For purposes of this subdivision:

b. The seller’s shipping point is determined without regard to the location of the seller’s principle office or place of business.

(3) The taxpayer may elect to compute the portion of income from all sources in this state in the following manner:

(a) The income from all sources shall be determined as provided, excluding therefrom the figures for the operation of any bridge connecting this state with another state;

(b) The amount of sales which are transactions in this state shall be divided by the total sales, and the net income shall be multiplied by the fraction thus obtained, to determine the proportion of income to be used to arrive at the amount of Missouri taxable income. The investment or reinvestment of its own funds, or sale of any such investment or reinvestment, shall not be considered as sales or other business transacted for the determination of said fraction;

(c) For the purposes of this subdivision, a transaction involving the sale of tangible property is:

a. “In this state” if the purchaser’s destination point is in this state;

b. Not “in this state” if the purchaser’s destination point is outside this state;

(d) For purposes of this subdivision, the purchaser’s destination point shall be determined without regard to the FOB point or other conditions of the sale and shall not be in this state if the purchaser received the tangible personal property from the seller in this state for delivery to the purchaser’s location outside this state;

(e) For the purposes of this subdivision, a transaction involving the sale other than the sale of tangible property is “in this state” if the taxpayer’s market for the sales is in this state. The taxpayer’s market for sales is in this state:

a. In the case of sale, rental, lease, or license of real property, if and to the extent the property is located in this state;

b. In the case of rental, lease, or license of tangible personal property, if and to the extent the property is located in this state;

(4) For purposes of this subsection, the following words shall, unless the context otherwise requires, have the following meaning:

(a) “Administration services” include, but are not limited to, clerical, fund or shareholder accounting, participant record keeping, transfer agency, bookkeeping, data processing, custodial, internal auditing, legal and tax services performed for an investment company;

(b) “Affiliate”, the meaning as set forth in 15 U.S.C. Section 80a-2(a)(3)(C), as may be amended from time to time;

(c) “Distribution services” include, but are not limited to, the services of advertising, servicing, marketing, underwriting or selling shares of an investment company, but, in the case of advertising, servicing or marketing shares, only where such service is performed by a person who is, or in the case of a closed end company, was, either engaged in the services of underwriting or selling investment company shares or affiliated with a person that is engaged in the service of underwriting or selling investment company shares. In the case of an open end company, such service of underwriting or selling shares must be performed pursuant to a contract entered into pursuant to 15 U.S.C. Section 80a-15(b), as from time to time amended;

(d) “Investment company”, any person registered under the federal Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended from time to time, (the act) or a company which would be required to register as an investment company under the act except that such person is exempt to such registration pursuant to Section 80a-3(c)(1) of the act;

(e) “Investment funds service corporation” includes any corporation or S corporation doing business in the state which derives more than fifty percent of its gross income in the ordinary course of business from the provision directly or indirectly of management, distribution or administration services to or on behalf of an investment company or from trustees, sponsors and participants of employee benefit plans which have accounts in an investment company. An investment funds service corporation shall include any corporation or S corporation providing management services as an investment advisory firm registered under Section 203 of the Investment Advisors Act of 1940, as amended from time to time, regardless of the percentage of gross revenues consisting of fees from management services provided to or on behalf of an investment company;

(f) “Management services” include but are not limited to, the rendering of investment advice directly or indirectly to an investment company making determinations as to when sales and purchases of securities are to be made on behalf of the investment company, or the selling or purchasing of securities constituting assets of an investment company, and related activities, but only where such activity or activities are performed:

a. Pursuant to a contract with the investment company entered into pursuant to 15 U.S.C. Section 80a-15(a), as from time to time amended;

b. For a person that has entered into such contract with the investment company; or

c. For a person that is affiliated with a person that has entered into such contract with an investment company;

(g) “Qualifying sales”, gross income derived from the provision directly or indirectly of management, distribution or administration services to or on behalf of an investment company or from trustees, sponsors and participants of employee benefit plans which have accounts in an investment company. For purposes of this section, “gross income” is defined as that amount of income earned from qualifying sources without deduction of expenses related to the generation of such income;

(h) “Residence”, presumptively the fund shareholder’s mailing address on the records of the investment company. If, however, the investment company or the investment funds service corporation has actual knowledge that the fund shareholder’s primary residence or principal place of business is different than the fund shareholder’s mailing address such presumption shall not control. To the extent an investment funds service corporation does not have access to the records of the investment company, the investment funds service corporation may employ reasonable methods to determine the investment company fund shareholder’s residence.

(5) Notwithstanding other provisions of law to the contrary, qualifying sales of an investment funds service corporation, or S corporation, shall be considered wholly in this state only to the extent that the fund shareholders of the investment companies, to which the investment funds service corporation, or S corporation, provide services, are resided in this state. Wholly in this state qualifying sales of an investment funds service corporation, or S corporation, shall be determined as follows:

(a) By multiplying the investment funds service corporation’s total dollar amount of qualifying sales from services provided to each investment company by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the average of the number of shares owned by the investment company’s fund shareholders resided in this state at the beginning of and at the end of the investment company’s taxable year that ends with or within the investment funds service corporation’s taxable year, and the denominator of which shall be the average of the number of shares owned by the investment company’s fund shareholders everywhere at the beginning of and at the end of the investment company’s taxable year that ends with or within the investment funds service corporation’s taxable year;

(b) A separate computation shall be made to determine the wholly in this state qualifying sales from each investment company. The qualifying sales for each investment company shall be multiplied by the respective percentage of each fund, as calculated pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision. The product of this equation shall result in the wholly in this state qualifying sales. The qualifying sales for each investment company which are not wholly in this state will be considered wholly without this state;

(c) To the extent an investment funds service corporation has sales which are not qualifying sales, those nonqualified sales shall be apportioned to this state based on the methodology utilized by the investment funds service corporation without regard to this subdivision.

3. Any corporation described in subdivision (1) of subsection 1 of section 143.441 organized in this state or granted a permit to operate in this state for the transportation or care of passengers shall report its gross earnings within the state on intrastate business and shall also report its gross earnings on all interstate business done in this state which report shall be subject to inquiry for the purpose of determining the amount of income to be included in Missouri taxable income. The previous sentence shall not apply to a railroad.

4. A corporation described in subdivision (2) of subsection 1 of section 143.441 shall include in its Missouri taxable income all income arising from all sources in this state and all income from each transportation service wholly within this state, from each service where the only lines of such corporation used are those in this state, and such proportion of revenue from each service where the facilities of such corporation in this state and in another state or states are used, as the mileage used over the lines of such corporation in the state shall bear to the total mileage used over the lines of such corporation. The taxpayer may elect to compute the portion of income from all sources within this state in the following manner:

(1) The income from all sources shall be determined as provided;

(2) The amount of investment of such corporation on December thirty-first of each year in this state in fixed transportation facilities, real estate and improvements, plus the value on December thirty-first of each year of any fixed transportation facilities, real estate and improvements in this state leased from any other railroad shall be divided by the sum of the total amount of investment of such corporation on December thirty-first of each year in fixed transportation facilities, real estate and improvements, plus the value on December thirty-first of each year, of any fixed transportation facilities, real estate and improvements leased from any other railroad. Where any fixed transportation facilities, real estate or improvements are leased by more than one railroad, such portion of the value shall be used by each railroad as the rental paid by each shall bear to the rental paid by all lessees. The income shall be multiplied by the fraction thus obtained to determine the proportion to be used to arrive at the amount of Missouri taxable income.

5. A corporation described in subdivision (3) of subsection 1 of section 143.441 shall include in its Missouri taxable income one-half of the net income from the operation of a bridge between this and another state. If any such bridge is owned or operated by a railroad corporation or corporations, or by a corporation owning a railroad corporation using such bridge, then the figures for operation of such bridge may be included in the return of such railroad or railroads; or if such bridge is owned or operated by any other corporation which may now or hereafter be required to file an income tax return, one-half of the income or loss to such corporation from such bridge may be included in such return by adding or subtracting same to or from another net income or loss shown by the return.

6. A corporation described in subdivision (4) of subsection 1 of section 143.441 shall include in its Missouri taxable income all income arising from all sources within this state. Income shall include revenue from each telephonic or telegraphic service rendered wholly within this state; from each service rendered for which the only facilities of such corporation used are those in this state; and from each service rendered over the facilities of such corporation in this state and in other state or states, such proportion of such revenue as the mileage involved in this state shall bear to the total mileage involved over the lines of said company in all states. The taxpayer may elect to compute the portion of income from all sources within this state in the following manner:

(1) The income from all sources shall be determined as provided;

(2) The amount of investment of such corporation on December thirty-first of each year in this state in telephonic or telegraphic facilities, real estate and improvements thereon, shall be divided by the amount of the total investment of such corporation on December thirty-first of each year in telephonic or telegraphic facilities, real estate and improvements. The income of the taxpayer shall be multiplied by fraction thus obtained to determine the proportion to be used to arrive at the amount of Missouri taxable income.

7. From the income determined in subsections 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 of this section to be from all sources within this state shall be deducted such of the deductions for expenses in determining Missouri taxable income as were incurred in this state to produce such income and all losses actually sustained in this state in the business of the corporation.

8. If a corporation derives only part of its income from sources within Missouri, its Missouri taxable income shall only reflect the effect of the following listed deductions to the extent applicable to Missouri. The deductions are: (a) its deduction for federal income taxes pursuant to section 143.171, and (b) the effect on Missouri taxable income of the deduction for net operating loss allowed by Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code. The extent applicable to Missouri shall be determined by multiplying the amount that would otherwise affect Missouri taxable income by the ratio for the year of the Missouri taxable income of the corporation for the year divided by the Missouri taxable income for the year as though the corporation had derived all of its income from sources within Missouri. For the purpose of the preceding sentence, Missouri taxable income shall not reflect the listed deductions.

9. Any investment funds service corporation organized as a corporation or S corporation which has any shareholders resided in this state shall be subject to Missouri income tax as provided in this chapter.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

The tax authorized by this section shall be in addition to any and all other sales taxes allowed by law, except that no order imposing a sales tax pursuant to this section shall be effective unless the commission submits to the voters of the district, on any election date authorized in chapter 115, a proposal to authorize the commission to impose a tax.

2. The ballot of submission shall contain, but need not be limited to, the following language:

Shall the regional jail district of ..... (counties’ names) impose a region-wide sales tax of ..... (insert amount) for the purpose of providing jail services and court facilities and equipment for the region?

☐ YES      ☐ NO

If you are in favor of the question, place an “X” in the box opposite “Yes”. If you are opposed to the question, place an “X” in the box opposite “No”.

If a majority of the votes cast on the proposal by the qualified voters of the district voting thereon are in favor of the proposal, then the order and any amendment to such order shall be in effect on the first day of the second quarter immediately following the election approving the proposal. If the proposal receives less than the required majority, the commission shall have no power to impose the sales tax authorized pursuant to this section unless and until the commission shall again have submitted another proposal to authorize the commission to impose the sales tax authorized by this section and such proposal is approved by the required majority of the qualified voters of the district voting on such proposal; however, in no event shall a proposal pursuant to this section be submitted to the voters sooner than twelve months from the date of the last submission of a proposal pursuant to this section.

3. All revenue received by a district from the tax authorized pursuant to this section shall be deposited in a special trust fund and shall be used solely for providing jail services and court facilities and equipment for such district for so long as the tax shall remain in effect.

4. Once the tax authorized by this section is abolished or terminated by any means, all funds remaining in the special trust fund shall be used solely for providing jail services and court facilities and equipment for the district. Any funds in such special trust fund which are not needed for current expenditures may be invested by the commission in accordance with applicable laws relating to the investment of other county funds.

5. All sales taxes collected by the director of revenue pursuant to this section on behalf of any district, less one percent for cost of collection which shall be deposited in the state’s general revenue fund after payment of premiums for surety bonds as provided in section 32.087, shall be deposited in a special trust fund, which is hereby created, to be known as the “Regional Jail District Sales Tax Trust Fund”. The

The director of revenue shall keep accurate records of the amount of money in the trust fund which was collected in each district imposing a sales tax pursuant to this section, and the records shall be open to the inspection of officers of each member county and the public. Not later than the tenth day of each month the director of revenue shall distribute all moneys deposited in the trust fund during the preceding month to the district which levied the tax. Such funds shall be deposited with the treasurer of each such district, and all expenditures of funds arising from the regional jail district sales tax trust fund shall be paid pursuant to an appropriation adopted by the commission and shall be approved by the commission. Expenditures may be made from the fund for any function authorized in the order adopted by the commission submitting the regional jail district tax to the voters.

6. The director of revenue may authorize the state treasurer to make refunds from the amounts in the trust fund and credited to any district for erroneous payments and overpayments made, and may redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such districts. If any district abolishes the tax, the commission shall notify the director of revenue of the action at least ninety days prior to the effective date of the repeal, and the director of revenue may order retention in the trust fund, for a period of one year, of two percent of the amount collected after receipt of such notice to cover possible refunds or overpayment of the tax and to redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such accounts. After one year has elapsed after the effective date of abolition of the tax in such district, the director of revenue shall remit the balance in the account to the district and close the account of that district. The director of revenue shall notify each district in each instance of any amount refunded or any check redeemed from receipts due the district.

---

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

President Kinder in the Chair.

Reverend Carl Gauck offered the following prayer:

“I expect to pass through this world but once. Any good, therefore, that I can do or any kindness that I can show to any fellow creature let me do it now. Let me not defer it nor neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again.” (French saying)

Wondrous God, we have been motivated this week, this whole session, to do what is required of us, realizing it must be done now. We acknowledge that our efforts, whether completed or not, come to an end this day. So as we complete this final day grant us wisdom and perseverance, energy and caring in our final eight hours together. For our work this session, we give You thanks for walking with us and guiding our efforts. We give You thanks for those who have served with us and those who have worked so faithfully for us to accomplish all that has been done here. For this we give You thanks and praise. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

Amend House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 869, Pages 4 through 5, Section 210.027, Lines 1 through 38, by deleting all of said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“210.027. 1. For child-care providers who receive state or federal funds for providing child-care [services in the home] fee assistance, either by direct payment or through reimbursement to a child-care beneficiary, the department of social services shall:

(1) Establish publicly available website access to provider-specific information about any health and safety licensing or regulatory requirements for the providers, and including dates of inspections, history of violations, and compliance actions taken, as well as the consumer education information required under subdivision (12) of this section;

(2) Establish or designate one hotline for parents to submit complaints about child care providers;

(3) Be authorized to revoke the registration of a registered provider for due cause;

[(2)] (4) Require providers to be at least eighteen years of age;

[(3)] (5) Establish minimum requirements for building and physical premises to include:

(a) Compliance with state and local fire, health, and building codes, which shall include the ability to evacuate children in the case of an emergency; and

(b) Emergency preparedness and response planning.

Child care providers shall meet these minimum requirements prior to receiving federal assistance. Where there are no local ordinances or regulations regarding smoke detectors, the department shall require providers, by rule, to install and maintain an adequate number of smoke detectors in the residence or other building where child care is provided;

[(4)] (6) Require providers to be tested for tuberculosis on the schedule required for employees in licensed facilities;

[(5)] (7) Require providers to notify parents if the provider does not have immediate access to a telephone;

(12) With input from statewide stakeholders such as parents, child care providers or administrators, and system advocate group, establish a transparent system of quality indicators appropriate to the provider setting that shall provide parents with a way to differentiate between child care providers available in their communities as required by federal rules. The system shall describe the standards used to assess the quality of child care providers. The system shall indicate whether the provider meets Missouri's registration or licensing standards, is in compliance with applicable health and safety requirements, and the nature of any violations related to registration or licensing requirements. The system shall also indicate if the provider utilizes curricula and if the provider is in compliance with staff educational requirements. Such system of quality indicators established under this subdivision with the input from stakeholders shall be promulgated by rules. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010 that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536, and, if applicable, section 536.028. (7) Any nursery school.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 1 of this section, no child-care facility shall be exempt from licensure if such facility receives any state or federal funds for providing care for children, except for federal funds for those programs which meet the requirements for participation in the Child and Adult Care Food Program pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 1766. Grants to parents for child care pursuant to sections 210.201 to 210.257 shall not be construed to be funds received by a person or facility listed in subdivisions (1) and (5) of subsection 1 of this section.

3. Any child care facility not exempt from licensure shall disclose the licensure status of the facility to the parents or guardians of children for which the facility provides care. No child care facility exempt from licensure shall represent to any parent or guardian of children for which the facility provides care that the facility is licensed when such facility is in fact not licensed.

4. Any in-home licensed child care facility that is organized as a corporation, association, firm, partnership, proprietorship, limited liability company, or any other type of business entity in this state shall qualify for the exemption for related children for children who are related to the member of the corporation, association, firm, partnership, proprietorship, limited liability company, or other type of business entity who is responsible for the daily operation of the child care facility and who meets the requirements of the child care provider. If more than one member of the corporation, association, firm, partnership, proprietorship, limited liability company, or other type of business entity is responsible for the daily operation of the child care facility, the exemption for related children shall only be granted for children who are related to one of the members. All child care facilities under this subsection shall disclose the licensure status of the facility to the parents or guardians of children for which the facility provides care. A parent or guardian shall sign a written notice indicating he or she is aware of the licensure status of the facility. The facility shall keep a copy of this signed written notice on file. All child care facilities shall provide the parent or guardian enrolling a child in the facility with a written explanation of the disciplinary philosophy and policies of the child care facility.

211.171. 1. The procedure to be followed at the hearing shall be determined by the juvenile court judge and may be as formal or informal as he or she considers desirable, consistent with constitutional and statutory requirements. The judge may take testimony and inquire into the habits, surroundings, conditions and tendencies of the child and the family to enable the court to render such order or judgment as will best promote the welfare of the child and carry out the objectives of this chapter.

2. The hearing may, in the discretion of the court, proceed in the absence of the child and may be adjourned from time to time.

3. The current foster parents of a child, or any preadoptive parent or relative currently providing care for the child, shall be provided with notice of, and an opportunity to be heard in, any hearing to be held with respect to the child, and a foster parent shall have standing to participate in all court hearings pertaining to a child in their care. [This subsection shall not be construed to require that any such foster parent, preadoptive parent or relative providing care for a child be made a party to the case solely on the basis of such notice and opportunity to be heard.]

4. All cases of children shall be heard separately from the trial of cases against adults.

5. Stenographic notes or an authorized recording of the hearing shall be required if the court so orders or, if requested by any party interested in the proceeding.

6. The general public shall be excluded and only such persons admitted as have a direct interest in the case or in the work of the court except in cases where the child is accused of conduct which, if committed by an adult, would be considered a class A or B felony; or for conduct which would be considered a class C felony, if the child has previously been formally adjudicated for the commission of two or more unrelated acts which would have been class A, B or C felonies, if committed by an adult.

7. The practice and procedure customary in proceedings in equity shall govern all proceedings in the juvenile court; except that, the court shall not grant a continuance in such proceedings absent compelling extenuating circumstances, and in such cases, the court shall make written findings on the record detailing the specific reasons for granting a continuance.

8. The court shall allow the victim of any offense to submit a written statement to the court. The court shall allow the victim to appear before the court personally or by counsel for the purpose of making a statement, unless the court finds that the presence of the victim would not serve justice. The statement shall relate solely to the facts of the case and any personal injuries or financial loss incurred by the victim. A member of the immediate family of the victim may appear personally or by counsel to make a statement if the victim has died or is otherwise unable to appear as a result of the offense committed by the child.”; and

Further amend said bill, Page 19, Section 453.074, Line 19, by inserting after all of said line the following:

The employer shall not penalize an employee for requesting or obtaining time off according to this section.

2. The state of Missouri, its departments, and agencies shall, and political subdivisions may, provide for a leave sharing program to permit its employees to donate annual leave, overtime, or compensatory time to an employee who is arranging for a foster or adopted child’s placement or caring for the child after placement, which has caused or is likely to cause such employee to take leave without pay or to terminate employment. Such donated annual leave, overtime, or compensatory time may be transferable between employees in different departments, agencies, or political subdivisions of the state, with the agreement of the chief administrative officers of such departments, agencies, or political subdivisions.

3. Any donated annual leave, overtime, or compensatory time authorized under this section shall only be used by the recipient employee for purposes of arranging for the foster or adopted child’s placement or caring for the child after placement. 4. All forms of paid leave available for use by the recipient employee shall be used prior to using donated annual leave, overtime, or compensatory time.

5. All donated annual leave, overtime, or compensatory time shall be given voluntarily. No employee shall be coerced, threatened, intimidated, or financially induced into donating annual leave, overtime, or compensatory time for purposes of the leave sharing program.

7. A stepparent, as defined in section 453.015, who is employed by the state of Missouri, its departments, agencies, or political subdivisions, may use his or her accrued sick leave, annual leave or the same leave without pay granted to biological parents to take time off to care for his or her stepchild. The employer shall not penalize an employee for requesting or obtaining time off according to this section.

[3.] 8. The leave authorized by this section may be requested by the employee only if the employee is the person who is primarily responsible for furnishing the care and nurture of the child.

9. The commissioner of administration may promulgate rules as necessary to implement the provisions of this section. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable, section 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly under chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2014, shall be invalid and void.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

HOUSE AMENDMENT NO. 4

Amend House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 869, Page 4, Section 37.710, Line 45, by inserting after all of said section and line the following:

“208.631. 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the MO HealthNet division shall establish a program to pay for health care for uninsured children. Coverage pursuant to sections 208.631 to [208.659] 208.658 is subject to appropriation. The provisions of sections 208.631 to [208.569] 208.658, health care for uninsured children, shall be void and of no effect if there are no funds of the United States appropriated by Congress to be provided to the state on the basis of a state plan approved by the federal government under the federal Social Security Act. If funds are appropriated by the United States Congress, the department of social services is authorized to manage the state children's health insurance program (SCHIP) allotment in order to ensure that the state receives maximum federal financial participation. Children in households with incomes up to one hundred fifty percent of the federal poverty level may meet all Title XIX program guidelines as required by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services. Children in households with incomes of one hundred fifty percent to three hundred percent of the federal poverty level shall continue to be eligible as they were and receive services as they did on June 30, 2007, unless changed by the Missouri general assembly.

2. For the purposes of sections 208.631 to [208.659] 208.658, “children” are persons up to nineteen years of age. “Uninsured children” are persons up to nineteen years of age who are emancipated and do not have access to affordable employer-subsidized health care insurance or other health care coverage or persons whose parent or guardian have not had access to affordable employer-subsidized health care insurance or other health care coverage for their children [for six months] prior to application, are residents of the state of Missouri, and have parents or guardians who meet the requirements in section 208.636. A child who is eligible for MO HealthNet benefits as authorized in section 208.151 is not uninsured for the purposes of sections 208.631 to [208.659] 208.658.

208.636. Parents and guardians of uninsured children eligible for the program established in sections 208.631 to [208.657] 208.658 shall:

(1) Furnish to the department of social services the uninsured child's Social Security number or numbers, if the uninsured child has more than one such number;

(2) Cooperate with the department of social services in identifying and providing information to assist the state in pursuing any third-party insurance carrier who may be liable to pay for health care;

(3) Cooperate with the department of social services, division of child support enforcement in establishing paternity and in obtaining support payments, including medical support; and

(4) Demonstrate upon request their child's participation in wellness programs including immunizations and a periodic physical examination. This subdivision shall not apply to any child whose parent or legal guardian objects in writing to such wellness programs including immunizations and an annual physical examination because of religious beliefs or medical contraindications[; and

(5) Demonstrate annually that their total net worth does not exceed two hundred fifty thousand dollars in total value].

208.640. 1. Parents and guardians of uninsured children with incomes of more than one hundred fifty but less than three hundred percent of the federal poverty level who do not have access to affordable employer-sponsored health care insurance or other affordable health care coverage may obtain coverage for their children under this section. Health insurance plans that do not cover an eligible child's preexisting condition shall not be considered affordable employer-sponsored health care insurance or other affordable health care coverage. For the purposes of sections 208.631 to [208.659] 208.658, "affordable employer-sponsored health care insurance or other affordable health care coverage" refers to health insurance requiring a monthly premium of:

(1) Three percent of one hundred fifty percent of the federal poverty level for a family of three for families with a gross income of more than one hundred fifty and up to one hundred eighty-five percent of the federal poverty level for a family of three;

(2) Four percent of one hundred eighty-five percent of the federal poverty level for a family of three for a family with a gross income of more than one hundred eighty-five and up to two hundred twenty-five percent of the federal poverty level;

(3) Five percent of two hundred twenty-five percent of the federal poverty level for a family of three for a family with a gross income of more than two hundred twenty-five but less than three hundred percent of the federal poverty level.

The parents and guardians of eligible uninsured children pursuant to this section are responsible for a monthly premium as required by annual state appropriation; provided that the total aggregate cost sharing for a family covered by these sections shall not exceed five percent of such family's income for the years involved. No co-payments or other cost sharing is permitted with respect to benefits for well-baby and well-child care including age-appropriate immunizations. Cost-sharing provisions for their children under sections 208.631 to [208.659] 208.658 shall not exceed the limits established by 42 U.S.C. Section 1397cc(e). If a child has exceeded the annual coverage limits for all health care services, the child is not considered insured and does not have access to affordable health insurance within the meaning of this section.

2. The department of social services shall study the expansion of a presumptive eligibility process for children for medical assistance benefits.

208.643. 1. The department of social services shall implement policies establishing a program to pay for health care for uninsured children by rules promulgated pursuant to chapter 536, either statewide or in certain geographic areas, subject to obtaining necessary federal approval and appropriation authority. The rules may provide for a health care services package that includes all medical services covered by section 208.152, except nonemergency transportation.

2. Available income shall be determined by the department of social services by rule, which shall comply with federal laws and regulations relating to the state's eligibility to receive federal funds to implement the insurance program established in sections 208.631 to [208.657] 208.658.

208.646. There shall be a thirty-day waiting period after enrollment for uninsured children in families with an income of more than two hundred twenty-five percent of the federal poverty level before the child becomes eligible for insurance under the provisions of sections 208.631 to [208.660] 208.658. If the parent or guardian with an income of more than two hundred twenty-five percent of the federal poverty level fails to meet the co-payment or premium requirements, the child shall not be eligible for coverage under sections 208.631 to [208.660] 208.658 for [six months] ninety days after the department provides notice of such failure to the parent or guardian.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

MESSAGES FROM THE HOUSE

The following messages were received from the House of Representatives through its Chief Clerk:

Mr. President: I am instructed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House has taken up and passed SCS for SB 642.

With House Amendment No. 1.

HOUSE AMENDMENT NO. 1

Amend Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 642, Page 1, in the Title, Line 3, by deleting the words “surface mining” and inserting in lieu thereof the words “natural resources”; and

Further amend said bill and page, Section A, Line 3, by inserting after all of said section and line the following:

“260.273. 1. Any person purchasing a new tire may present to the seller the used tire or remains of such used tire for which the new tire purchased is to replace.

2. A fee for each new tire sold at retail shall be imposed on any person engaging in the business of making retail sales of new tires within this state. The fee shall be charged by the retailer to the person who purchases a tire for use and not for resale. Such fee shall be imposed at the rate of fifty cents for each new tire sold. Such fee shall be added to the total cost to the purchaser at retail after all applicable sales taxes on the tires have been computed. The fee imposed, less six percent of fees collected, which shall be retained by the tire retailer as collection costs, shall be paid to the department of revenue in the form and manner required by the department of revenue and shall include the total number of new tires sold during the preceding month. The department of revenue shall promulgate rules and regulations necessary to administer the fee collection and enforcement. The terms “sold at retail” and “retail sales” do not include the sale of new tires to a person solely for the purpose of resale, if the subsequent retail sale in this state is to the ultimate consumer and is subject to the fee.

3. The department of revenue shall administer, collect and enforce the fee authorized pursuant to this section pursuant to the same procedures used in the administration, collection and enforcement of the general state sales and use tax imposed pursuant to chapter 144 except as provided in this section. The proceeds of the new tire fee, less four percent of the proceeds, which shall be retained by the department of revenue as collection costs, shall be transferred by the department of revenue into an appropriate subaccount of the solid waste management fund, created pursuant to section 260.330.

4. Up to five percent of the revenue available may be allocated, upon appropriation, to the department of natural resources to be used cooperatively with the department of elementary and secondary education for the purposes of developing environmental educational materials, programs, and curriculum that assist in the department's implementation of sections 260.200 to 260.345.

5. Up to fifty percent of the moneys received pursuant to this section may, upon appropriation, be used to administer the programs imposed by this section. Up to forty-five percent of the moneys received under this section may, upon appropriation, be used for the grants authorized in subdivision (2) of subsection 6 of this section. All remaining moneys shall be allocated, upon appropriation, for the projects authorized in section 260.276, except that any unencumbered moneys may be used for public health, environmental, and safety projects in response to environmental or public health emergencies and threats as determined by the director.

6. The department shall promulgate, by rule, a statewide plan for the use of moneys received pursuant to this section to accomplish the following:

(1) Removal of [waste] scrap tires from illegal tire dumps;

(2) Providing grants to persons that will use products derived from [waste] scrap tires, or [used waste] use scrap tires as a fuel or fuel supplement; and

(3) Resource recovery activities conducted by the department pursuant to section 260.276.

7. The fee imposed in subsection 2 of this section shall begin the first day of the month which falls at least thirty days but no more than sixty days immediately following August 28, 2005, and shall terminate January 1, [2015] 2020.

260.279. In letting contracts for the performance of any job or service for the removal or clean up of [waste] scrap tires under this chapter, the department of natural resources shall, in addition to the requirements of sections 34.073 and 34.076 and any other points awarded during the evaluation process, give to any vendor that meets one or more of the following factors a five percent preference and ten bonus points for each factor met:

(1) The bid is submitted by a vendor that has resided or maintained its headquarters or principal place of business in Missouri continuously for the two years immediately preceding the date on which the bid is submitted;

(2) The bid is submitted by a nonresident corporation vendor that has an affiliate or subsidiary that employs at least twenty state residents and has maintained its headquarters or principal place of business in Missouri continuously for the two years immediately preceding the date on which the bid is submitted;

(3) The bid is submitted by a vendor that resides or maintains its headquarters or principal place of business in Missouri and, for the purposes of completing the bid project and continuously over the entire term of the project, an average of at least seventy-five percent of such vendor's employees are Missouri residents who have resided in the state continuously for at least two years immediately preceding the date on which the bid is submitted. Such vendor must certify the residency requirements of this subdivision and submit a written claim for preference at the time the bid is submitted;

(4) The bid is submitted by a nonresident vendor that has an affiliate or subsidiary that employs at least twenty state residents and has maintained its headquarters or principal place of business in Missouri and, for the purposes of completing the bid project and continuously over the entire term of the project, an average of at least seventy-five percent of such vendor's employees are Missouri residents who have resided in the state continuously for at least two years immediately preceding the date on which the bid is submitted. Such vendor must certify the residency requirements of this section and submit a written claim for preference at the time the bid is submitted;

(5) The bid is submitted by any vendor that provides written certification that the end use of the tires collected during the project will be for fuel purposes or for the manufacture of a useable good or product. For the purposes of this section, the landfilling of [waste] scrap tires, [waste] scrap tire chips, or [waste] scrap tire shreds in any manner, including landfill cover, shall not permit the vendor a preference.

260.355. Exempted from the provisions of sections 260.350 to 260.480 are:

(1) Radioactive wastes regulated under section 2011, et seq., of title 42 of United States Code;

If such rules are not disapproved by the general assembly in the manner set out below, they shall take effect on January first of the [next odd-numbered] following calendar year and the fee structure set out in this section shall expire upon the effective date of the commission-adopted fee structure, contrary to subsection 4 of this section. Any regulation promulgated under this subsection shall be deemed to be beyond the scope and authority provided in this subsection, or detrimental to permit applicants, if the general assembly, within the first sixty calendar days of the regular session immediately following the [promulgation] filing of such regulation[, by concurrent resolution, shall disapprove the fee structure contained in such regulation] disapproves the regulation by concurrent resolution. If the general assembly so disapproves any regulation [promulgated] filed under this subsection, [the hazardous waste management commission shall continue to use the fee structure set forth in the most recent preceding regulation promulgated under this subsection.] the department and the commission shall not implement the proposed fee structure and shall continue to use the previous fee structure. The authority of the commission to further revise the fee structure as provided by this subsection shall expire on August 28, [2023] 2024.

2. Missouri treatment, storage, or disposal facilities shall pay annually, on or before January first of each year, a fee to the department equal to two dollars per ton or portion thereof for all hazardous waste received from outside the state. This fee shall be based on the hazardous waste received for the twelve-month period ending June thirtieth of the previous year.

3. Exempted from the requirements of this section are individual householders and farmers who generate only small quantities of hazardous waste and any person the commission determines generates only small quantities of hazardous waste on an infrequent basis, except that:

(1) Householders, farmers and exempted persons shall manage all hazardous wastes they may generate in a manner so as not to adversely affect the health of humans, or pose a threat to the environment, or create a public nuisance; and

(2) The department may determine that a specific quantity of a specific hazardous waste requires special management. Upon such determination and after public notice by press release or advertisement thereof, including instructions for handling and delivery, generators exempted pursuant to this subsection shall deliver, but without a manifest or the requirement to use a licensed hazardous waste transporter, such waste to:

(a) Any storage, treatment or disposal site authorized to operate pursuant to sections 260.350 to 260.430 or the federal Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, or a state hazardous waste management program authorized pursuant to the federal Resource Conservation and Recovery Act which the department designates for this purpose; or

(b) A collection station or vehicle which the department may arrange for and designate for this purpose.

4. Failure to pay the fee, or any portion thereof, prescribed in this section by the due date shall result in the imposition of a penalty equal to fifteen percent of the original fee. The fee prescribed in this section shall expire December 31, 2018, except that the department shall levy and collect this fee for any hazardous waste generated prior to such date and reported to the department.

260.392. 1. As used in sections 260.392 to 260.399, the following terms mean:

(1) “Cask”, all the components and systems associated with the container in which spent fuel, high-level radioactive waste, highway route controlled quantity, or transuranic radioactive waste are stored;

(2) “High-level radioactive waste”, the highly radioactive material resulting from the reprocessing of spent nuclear fuel including liquid waste produced directly in reprocessing and any solid material derived from such liquid waste that contains fission products in sufficient concentrations, and other highly radioactive material that the United States Nuclear Regulatory Commission has determined to be high-level radioactive waste requiring permanent isolation;

For the purposes of this section, transuranic waste shall not include:

(a) High-level radioactive wastes;

(b) Any waste determined by the Environmental Protection Agency with the concurrence of the Environmental Protection Agency administrator that does not need the degree of isolation required by this section; or

(c) Any waste that the United States Nuclear Regulatory Commission has approved for disposal on a case-by-case basis in accordance with 10 CFR Part 61, as amended.

2. Any shipper that ships high-level radioactive waste, transuranic radioactive waste, highway route controlled quantity shipments, spent nuclear fuel, or low-level radioactive waste through or within the state shall be subject to the fees established in this subsection, provided that no state-funded institution of higher education that ships nuclear waste shall pay any such fee. (6) Oversight of any environmental remediation necessary resulting from an incident involving a shipment of high-level radioactive waste, transuranic radioactive waste, highway route controlled quantity shipments, spent nuclear fuel, or low-level radioactive waste. Reimbursement for oversight of any such incident shall not reduce or eliminate the liability of any party responsible for the incident; such party may be liable for full reimbursement to the state or payment of any other costs associated with the cleanup of contamination related to a transportation incident;

(7) Administrative costs attributable to the state agencies which are incurred through their involvement as it relates to the shipment of high-level radioactive waste, transuranic radioactive waste, highway route controlled quantity shipments, spent nuclear fuel, or low-level radioactive waste through or within the state.

5. Any unencumbered balance in the environmental radiation monitoring fund that exceeds three hundred thousand dollars in any given fiscal year shall be returned to shippers on a pro rata basis, based on the shipper's contribution into the environmental radiation monitoring fund for that fiscal year.

Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable, section 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2009, shall be invalid and void.

7. All interest earned by the moneys in the fund shall accrue to the fund.

8. All fees shall be paid to the department of natural resources prior to shipment.

9. Notice of any shipment of high-level radioactive waste, transuranic radioactive waste, highway route controlled quantity shipments, or spent nuclear fuel through or within the state shall be provided by the shipper to the governor's designee for advanced notification, as described in 10 CFR Parts 71 and 73, as amended, prior to such shipment entering the state. 444.762. It is hereby declared to be the policy of this state to strike a balance between [surface] mining of minerals and reclamation of land subjected to surface disturbance by [surface] mining, as contemporaneously as possible, and for the conservation of land, and thereby to preserve natural resources, to encourage the planting of forests, to advance the seeding of grasses and legumes for grazing purposes and crops for harvest, to aid in the protection of wildlife and aquatic resources, to establish recreational, home and industrial sites, to protect and perpetuate the taxable value of property, and to protect and promote the health, safety and general welfare of the people of this state.

444.768. 1. Notwithstanding any statutory fee amounts or maximums to the contrary, the director of the department of natural resources may conduct a comprehensive review and propose changes to the fee, bond, or assessment structure as set forth in chapter 444. The comprehensive review shall include stakeholder meetings in order to solicit stakeholder input from regulated entities and any other interested parties. Upon completion of the comprehensive review, the department shall submit a proposed fee, bond, or assessment structure with stakeholder agreement to the Missouri mining commission. The commission shall review such recommendations at a forthcoming regular or special meeting, but shall not vote on the proposed structure until a subsequent meeting. If the commission approves, by vote of two-thirds majority, the fee, bond, or assessment structure recommendations, the commission shall authorize the department to file a notice of proposed rulemaking containing the recommended structure, and after considering public comments may authorize the department to file the final order of rulemaking for such rule with the joint committee on administrative rules pursuant to sections 536.021 and 536.024 no later than December first of the same year. Any regulation promulgated under this subsection shall be deemed to be beyond the scope and authority provided in this subsection, or detrimental to permit applicants, if the general assembly, within the first sixty days of the regular session immediately following the filing of such regulation disapproves the regulation by concurrent resolution. If the general assembly so disapproves any regulation filed under this subsection, the department and the commission shall not implement the proposed fee, bond, or assessment structure and shall continue to use the previous fee, bond, or assessment structure. The authority for the commission to further revise the fee, bond, or assessment structure as provided in this subsection shall expire on August 28, 2024.

2. Failure to pay any fee, bond, or assessment, or any portion thereof, referenced in this section by the due date may result in the imposition of a late fee equal to fifteen percent of the unpaid amount, plus ten percent interest per annum. Any order issued by the department under chapter 444 may require payment of such amounts. The department may bring an action in the appropriate circuit court to collect any unpaid fee, late fee, interest, or attorney's fees and costs incurred directly in fee collection. Such action may be brought in the circuit court of the county in which the facility is located, or in the circuit court of Cole County.

444.770. 1. It shall be unlawful for any operator to engage in surface mining without first obtaining from the commission a permit to do so, in such form as is hereinafter provided, including any operator involved in any gravel mining operation where the annual tonnage of gravel mined by such operator is less than five thousand tons, except as provided in subsection 2 of this section.

2. (1) A property owner or operator conducting gravel removal at the request of a property owner for the primary purpose of managing seasonal gravel accretion on property not used primarily for gravel mining, or a political subdivision who contracts with an operator for excavation to obtain sand and gravel material solely for the use of such political subdivision shall be exempt from obtaining a permit as required in subsection 1 of this section. Such gravel removal shall be conducted solely on the property owner's or political subdivision's property and shall be in accordance with department guidelines, rules, and regulations. The property owner shall notify the department before any person or operator conducts gravel removal from the property owner's property if the gravel is sold. Notification shall include the nature of the activity, name of the county and stream in which the site is located and the property owner's name. The property owner shall not be required to notify the department regarding any gravel removal at each site location for up to one year from the original notification regarding that site. The property owner shall renotify the department before any person or operator conducts gravel removal at any site after the expiration of one year from the previous notification regarding that site. At the time of each notification to the department, the department shall provide the property owner with a copy of the department's guidelines, rules, and regulations relevant to the activity reported. Said guidelines, rules and regulations may be transmitted either by mail or via the internet.

(2) The annual tonnage of gravel mined by such property owner or operator conducting gravel removal at the request of a property owner shall be less than two thousand tons, with a site limitation of one thousand tons annually. Any operator conducting gravel removal at the request of a property owner that has removed two thousand tons of sand and gravel material within one calendar year shall have a watershed management practice plan approved by the commission in order to remove any future sand or gravel material the remainder of the calendar year. The application for approval shall be accompanied by an application fee equivalent to the fee paid under section 444.772 and shall contain the name of the watershed from which the operator will be conducting sand and gravel removal, the location within the watershed district that the sand and gravel will be removed, and the description of the vehicles and equipment used for removal. Upon approval of the watershed management practice plan, the department shall provide a copy of the relevant commission regulations to the operator.

(3) No property owner or operator conducting gravel removal at the request of a property owner for the primary purpose of managing seasonal gravel accretion on property not used primarily for gravel mining shall conduct gravel removal from any site located within a distance, to be determined by the commission and included in the guidelines, rules, and regulations given to the property owner at the time of notification, of any building, structure, highway, road, bridge, viaduct, water or sewer line, and pipeline or utility line.

3. Sections 444.760 to 444.790 shall apply only to those areas which are opened on or after January 1, 1972, or to the extended portion of affected areas extended after that date. The effective date of this section for minerals not previously covered under the provisions of sections 444.760 to 444.790 shall be August 28, 1990.

4. All surface mining operations where land is affected after September 28, 1971, which are under the control of any government agency whose regulations are equal to or greater than those imposed by section 444.774, are not subject to the further provisions of sections 444.760 to 444.790, except that such operations shall be registered with the [land reclamation] Missouri mining commission.

5. Any portion of a surface mining operation which is subject to the provisions of sections 260.200 to 260.245 and the regulations promulgated thereunder, shall not be subject to the provisions of sections 444.760 to 444.790, and any bonds or portions thereof applicable to such operations shall be promptly released by the commission, and the associated permits cancelled by the commission upon presentation to it of satisfactory evidence that the operator has received a permit pursuant to section 260.205 and the regulations promulgated thereunder. Any land reclamation bond associated with such released permits shall be retained by the commission until presentation to the commission of satisfactory evidence that:

(1) The operator has complied with sections 260.226 and 260.227, and the regulations promulgated thereunder, pertaining to closure and postclosure plans and financial assurance instruments; and

(2) The operator has commenced operation of the solid waste disposal area or sanitary landfill as those terms are defined in chapter 260.

6. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 1 of this section, any political subdivision which uses its own personnel and equipment or any private individual for personal use may conduct in-stream gravel operations without obtaining from the commission a permit to conduct such an activity.

7. Any person filing a complaint of an alleged violation of this section with the department shall identify themselves by name and telephone number, provide the date and location of the violation, and provide adequate information, as determined by the department, that there has been a violation.

Any records, statements, or communications submitted by any person to the department relevant to the complaint shall remain confidential and used solely by the department to investigate such alleged violation.”; and

Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, that is promulgated to administer and enforce sections 640.100 to 640.140 shall become effective only if the agency has fully complied with all of the requirements of chapter 536, including but not limited to section 536.028, if applicable, after June 9, 1998. All rulemaking authority delegated prior to June 9, 1998, is of no force and effect and repealed as of June 9, 1998, however, nothing in this section shall be interpreted to repeal or affect the validity of any rule adopted or promulgated prior to June 9, 1998. If the provisions of section 536.028 apply, the provisions of this section are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to section 536.028 to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule or portion of a rule are held unconstitutional or invalid, the purported grant of rulemaking authority and any rule so proposed and contained in the order of rulemaking shall be invalid and void, except that nothing in this chapter or chapter 644 shall affect the validity of any rule adopted and promulgated prior to June 9, 1998.

3. The commission shall promulgate rules and regulations for the certification of public water system operators, backflow prevention assembly testers and laboratories conducting tests pursuant to sections 640.100 to 640.140. Any person seeking to be a certified backflow prevention assembly tester shall satisfactorily complete standard, nationally recognized written and performance examinations designed to ensure that the person is competent to determine if the assembly is functioning within its design specifications. Any such state certification shall satisfy any need for local certification as a backflow prevention assembly tester. However, political subdivisions may set additional testing standards for individuals who are seeking to be certified as backflow prevention assembly testers. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, agencies of the state or its political subdivisions shall only require carbonated beverage dispensers to conform to the backflow protection requirements established in the National Sanitation Foundation standard eighteen, and the dispensers shall be so listed by an independent testing laboratory. The commission shall promulgate rules and regulations for collection of samples and analysis of water furnished by municipalities, corporations, companies, state establishments, federal establishments or individuals to the public. The department of natural resources or the department of health and senior services shall, at the request of any supplier, make any analyses or tests required pursuant to the terms of section 192.320 and sections 640.100 to 640.140. The department shall collect fees to cover the reasonable cost of laboratory services, both within the department of natural resources and the department of health and senior services, laboratory certification and program administration as required by sections 640.100 to 640.140. The laboratory services and program administration fees pursuant to this subsection shall not exceed two hundred dollars for a supplier supplying less than four thousand one hundred service connections, three hundred dollars for supplying less than seven thousand six hundred service connections, five hundred dollars for supplying seven thousand six hundred or more service connections, and five hundred dollars for testing surface water. Such fees shall be deposited in the safe drinking water fund as specified in section 640.110. The analysis of all drinking water required by section 192.320 and sections 640.100 to 640.140 shall be made by the department of natural resources laboratories, department of health and senior services laboratories or laboratories certified by the department of natural resources.

4. The department of natural resources shall establish and maintain an inventory of public water supplies and conduct sanitary surveys of public water systems. Such records shall be available for public inspection during regular business hours.

5. (1) For the purpose of complying with federal requirements for maintaining the primacy of state enforcement of the federal Safe Drinking Water Act, the department is hereby directed to request appropriations from the general revenue fund and all other appropriate sources to fund the activities of the public drinking water program and in addition to the fees authorized pursuant to subsection 3 of this section, an annual fee for each customer service connection with a public water system is hereby authorized to be imposed upon all customers of public water systems in this state. [The fees collected shall not exceed the amounts specified in this subsection and the commission may set the fees, by rule, in a lower amount by proportionally reducing all fees charged pursuant to this subsection from the specified maximum amounts. Reductions shall be roughly proportional but in each case shall be divisible by twelve.] Each customer of a public water system shall pay an annual fee for each customer service connection.

(2) The annual fee per customer service connection for unmetered customers and customers with meters not greater than one inch in size shall be based upon the number of service connections in the water system serving that customer, and shall not exceed:

1 to 1,000 connections. . . . .	$ 3.24
1,001 to 4,000 connections. . . . .	3.00
4,001 to 7,000 connections. . . . .	2.76
7,001 to 10,000 connections. . . . .	2.40
10,001 to 20,000 connections. . . . .	2.16
20,001 to 35,000 connections. . . . .	1.92
35,001 to 50,000 connections. . . . .	1.56
50,001 to 100,000 connections. . . . .	1.32
More than 100,000 connections. . . . .	1.08.

(3) The annual user fee for customers having meters greater than one inch but less than or equal to two inches in size shall not exceed seven dollars and forty-four cents; for customers with meters greater than two inches but less than or equal to four inches in size shall not exceed forty-one dollars and sixteen cents; and for customers with meters greater than four inches in size shall not exceed eighty-two dollars and forty-four cents.

(4) Customers served by multiple connections shall pay an annual user fee based on the above rates for each connection, except that no single facility served by multiple connections shall pay a total of more than five hundred dollars per year.

6. Fees imposed pursuant to subsection 5 of this section shall become effective on August 28, 2006, and shall be collected by the public water system serving the customer beginning September 1, 2006, and continuing until such time that the safe drinking water commission, at its discretion, specifies a [lower] different amount under [subdivision (1) of] subsection [5] 8 of this section. The commission shall promulgate rules and regulations on the procedures for billing, collection and delinquent payment. Fees collected by a public water system pursuant to subsection 5 of this section and fees established by the commission pursuant to subsection 8 of this section are state fees. The annual fee shall be enumerated separately from all other charges, and shall be collected in monthly, quarterly or annual increments. Such fees shall be transferred to the director of the department of revenue at frequencies not less than quarterly. Two percent of the revenue arising from the fees shall be retained by the public water system for the purpose of reimbursing its expenses for billing and collection of such fees.

7. Imposition and collection of the fees authorized in subsection 5 and fees established by the commission pursuant to subsection 8 of this section shall be suspended on the first day of a calendar quarter if, during the preceding calendar quarter, the federally delegated authority granted to the safe drinking water program within the department of natural resources to administer the Safe Drinking Water Act, 42 U.S.C. 300g-2, is withdrawn. The fee shall not be reinstated until the first day of the calendar quarter following the quarter during which such delegated authority is reinstated.

8. [Fees imposed pursuant to subsection 5 of this section shall expire on September 1, 2017.] Notwithstanding any statutory fee amounts or maximums to the contrary, the department of natural resources may conduct a comprehensive review and propose changes to the fee structure set forth in this section. The comprehensive review shall include stakeholder meetings in order to solicit stakeholder input from public and private water suppliers, and any other interested parties. Upon completion of the comprehensive review, the department shall submit a proposed fee structure with stakeholder agreement to the safe drinking water commission. The commission shall review such recommendations at a forthcoming regular or special meeting, but shall not vote on the fee structure until a subsequent meeting. If the commission approves, by vote of two-thirds majority or six of nine commissioners, the fee structure recommendations, the commission shall authorize the department to file a notice of proposed rulemaking containing the recommended fee structure, and after considering public comments may authorize the department to file the final order of rulemaking for such rule with the joint committee on administrative rules pursuant to sections 536.021 and 536.024 no later than December first of the same year. If such rules are not disapproved by the general assembly in the manner set out below, they shall take effect on January first of the following calendar year, at which point the existing fee structure shall expire. Any regulation promulgated under this subsection shall be deemed to be beyond the scope and authority provided in this subsection, or detrimental to permit applicants, if the general assembly within the first sixty calendar days of the regular session immediately following the filing of such regulation, disapproves the regulation by concurrent resolution. If the general assembly so disapproves any regulation filed under this subsection, the department and the commission shall not implement the proposed fee structure and shall continue to use the previous fee structure. The authority of the commission to further revise the fee structure as provided by this subsection shall expire on August 28, 2024.

643.055. 1. Other provisions of law notwithstanding, the Missouri air conservation commission shall have the authority to promulgate rules and regulations, pursuant to chapter 536, to establish standards and guidelines to ensure that the state of Missouri is in compliance with the provisions of the federal Clean Air Act, as amended (42 U.S.C. Section 7401, et seq.). The standards and guidelines so established shall not be any stricter than those required under the provisions of the federal Clean Air Act, as amended; nor shall those standards and guidelines be enforced in any area of the state prior to the time required by the federal Clean Air Act, as amended. The restrictions of this section shall not apply to the parts of a state implementation plan developed by the commission to bring a nonattainment area into compliance and to maintain compliance when needed to have a United States Environmental Protection Agency approved state implementation plan. The determination of which parts of a state implementation plan are not subject to the restrictions of this section shall be based upon specific findings of fact by the air conservation commission as to the rules, regulations and criteria that are needed to have a United States Environmental Protection Agency approved plan.

2. The Missouri air conservation commission shall also have the authority to grant exceptions and variances from the rules set under subsection 1 of this section when the person applying for the exception or variance can show that compliance with such rules:

- (1) Would cause economic hardship; or
- (2) Is physically impossible; or
- (3) Is more detrimental to the environment than the variance would be; or
- (4) Is impractical or of insignificant value under the existing conditions.

3. The department shall not regulate the manufacture, performance, or use of residential wood burning heaters or appliances through a state implementation plan or otherwise, unless first specifically authorized to do so by the general assembly. No rule or regulation respecting the establishment or the enforcement of performance standards for residential wood burning heaters or appliances shall become effective unless and until first approved by the joint committee on administrative rules.

4. New rules or regulations shall not be applied to existing wood burning furnaces, stoves, fireplaces, or heaters that individuals are currently using as their source of heat for their homes or businesses. All wood burning furnaces, stoves, fireplaces, and heaters existing on August 28, 2014 shall be not subject to any rules or regulations enacted after such date. No employee of the state or state agency shall enforce any new rules or regulations against such existing wood burning furnaces, stoves, fireplaces, and heaters.

643.079. 1. Any air contaminant source required to obtain a permit issued under sections 643.010 to 643.355 shall pay annually beginning April 1, 1993, a fee as provided herein. For the first year the fee shall be twenty-five dollars per ton of each regulated air contaminant emitted. Thereafter, the fee shall be set every three years by the commission by rule and shall be at least twenty-five dollars per ton of regulated air contaminant emitted but not more than forty dollars per ton of regulated air contaminant emitted in the previous calendar year. If necessary, the commission may make annual adjustments to the fee by rule. The fee shall be set at an amount consistent with the need to fund the reasonable cost of administering sections 643.010 to 643.355, taking into account other moneys received pursuant to sections 643.010 to 643.355. For the purpose of determining the amount of air contaminant emissions on which the fees authorized under this section are assessed, a facility shall be considered one source under the definition of subsection 2 of section 643.078, except that a facility with multiple operating permits shall pay the emission fees authorized under this section separately for air contaminants emitted under each individual permit.

2. A source which produces charcoal from wood shall pay an annual emission fee under this subsection in lieu of the fee established in subsection 1 of this section. The fee shall be based upon a maximum fee of twenty-five dollars per ton and applied upon each ton of regulated air contaminant emitted for the first four thousand tons of each contaminant emitted in the amount established by the commission pursuant to subsection 1 of this section, reduced according to the following schedule:

(1) For fees payable under this subsection in the years 1993 and 1994, the fee shall be reduced by one hundred percent;

(2) For fees payable under this subsection in the years 1995, 1996 and 1997, the fee shall be reduced by eighty percent;

(3) For fees payable under this subsection in the years 1998, 1999 and 2000, the fee shall be reduced by sixty percent.

3. The fees imposed in subsection 2 of this section shall not be imposed or collected after the year 2000 unless the general assembly reimposes the fee.

4. Each air contaminant source with a permit issued under sections 643.010 to 643.355 shall pay the fee for the first four thousand tons of each regulated air contaminant emitted each year but no air contaminant source shall pay fees on total emissions of regulated air contaminants in excess of twelve thousand tons in any calendar year. A permitted air contaminant source which emitted less than one ton of all regulated pollutants shall pay a fee equal to the amount per ton set by the commission. An air contaminant source which pays emission fees to a holder of a certificate of authority issued pursuant to section 643.140 may deduct such fees from any amount due under this section. The fees imposed in this section shall not be applied to carbon oxide emissions. The fees imposed in subsection 1 and this subsection shall not be applied to sulfur dioxide emissions from any Phase I affected unit subject to the requirements of Title IV, Section 404, of the federal Clean Air Act, as amended, 42 U.S.C. 7651, et seq., any sooner than January 1, 2000. The fees imposed on emissions from Phase I affected units shall be consistent with and shall not exceed the provisions of the federal Clean Air Act, as amended, and the regulations promulgated thereunder. Any such fee on emissions from any Phase I affected unit shall be reduced by the amount of the service fee paid by that Phase I affected unit pursuant to subsection 8 of this section in that year. Any fees that may be imposed on Phase I sources shall follow the procedures set forth in subsection 1 and this subsection and shall not be applied retroactively.

5. Moneys collected under this section shall be transmitted to the director of revenue for deposit in appropriate subaccounts of the natural resources protection fund created in section 640.220. A subaccount shall be maintained for fees paid by air contaminant sources which are required to be permitted under Title V of the federal Clean Air Act, as amended, 42 U.S.C. Section 7661, et seq., and used, upon appropriation, to fund activities by the department to implement the operating permits program authorized by Title V of the federal Clean Air Act, as amended. Another subaccount shall be maintained for fees paid by air contaminant sources which are not required to be permitted under Title V of the federal Clean Air Act as amended, and used, upon appropriation, to fund other air pollution control program activities. Another subaccount shall be maintained for service fees paid under subsection 8 of this section by Phase I affected units which are subject to the requirements of Title IV, Section 404, of the federal Clean Air Act Amendments of 1990, as amended, 42 U.S.C. 7651, and used, upon appropriation, to fund air pollution control program activities. The provisions of section 33.080 to the contrary notwithstanding, moneys in the fund shall not revert to general revenue at the end of each biennium. Interest earned by moneys in the subaccounts shall be retained in the subaccounts. The per-ton fees established under subsection 1 of this section may be adjusted annually, consistent with the need to fund the reasonable costs of the program, but shall not be less than twenty-five dollars per ton of regulated air contaminant nor more than forty dollars per ton of regulated air contaminant. The first adjustment shall apply to moneys payable on April 1, 1994, and shall be based upon the general price level for the twelve-month period ending on August thirty-first of the previous calendar year.

6. The department may initiate a civil action in circuit court against any air contaminant source which has not remitted the appropriate fees within thirty days. In any judgment against the source, the department shall be awarded interest at a rate determined pursuant to section 408.030 and reasonable attorney's fees. In any judgment against the department, the source shall be awarded reasonable attorney's fees.

7. The department shall not suspend or revoke a permit for an air contaminant source solely because the source has not submitted the fees pursuant to this section.

8. Any Phase I affected unit which is subject to the requirements of Title IV, Section 404, of the federal Clean Air Act, as amended, 42 U.S.C. 7651, shall pay annually beginning April 1, 1993, and terminating December 31, 1999, a service fee for the previous calendar year as provided herein. For the first year, the service fee shall be twenty-five thousand dollars for each Phase I affected generating unit to help fund the administration of sections 643.010 to 643.355. Thereafter, the service fee shall be annually set by the commission by rule, following public hearing, based on an annual allocation prepared by the department showing the details of all costs and expenses upon which such fees are based consistent with the department's reasonable needs to administer and implement sections 643.010 to 643.355 and to fulfill its responsibilities with respect to Phase I affected units, but such service fee shall not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars per generating unit. Any such Phase I affected unit which is located on one or more contiguous tracts of land with any Phase II generating unit that pays fees under subsection 1 or subsection 2 of this section shall be exempt from paying service fees under this subsection. A "contiguous tract of land" shall be defined to mean adjacent land, excluding public roads, highways and railroads, which is under the control of or owned by the permit holder and operated as a single enterprise.

9. The department of natural resources shall determine the fees due pursuant to this section by the state of Missouri and its departments, agencies and institutions, including two- and four-year institutions of higher education. The director of the department of natural resources shall forward the various totals due to the joint committee on capital improvements and the directors of the individual departments, agencies and institutions. The departments, as part of the budget process, shall annually request by specific line item appropriation funds to pay said fees and capital funding for projects determined to significantly improve air quality. If the general assembly fails to appropriate funds for emissions fees as specifically requested, the departments, agencies and institutions shall pay said fees from other sources of revenue or funds available. The state of Missouri and its departments, agencies and institutions may receive assistance from the small business technical assistance program established pursuant to section 643.173.

10. Notwithstanding any statutory fee amounts or maximums to the contrary, the [director of the] department of natural resources may conduct a comprehensive review [of] and propose changes to the fee structure [set forth in this section. The comprehensive review shall include] authorized by sections 643.073, 643.075, 643.079, 643.225, 643.228, 643.232, 643.237, and 643.242 after holding stakeholder meetings in order to solicit stakeholder input from each of the following groups: the asbestos industry, electric utilities, mineral and metallic mining and processing facilities, cement kiln representatives, and any other interested industrial or business entities or interested parties. [Upon completion of the comprehensive review,] The department shall submit a proposed [changes to the] fee structure with stakeholder agreement to the air conservation commission. The commission shall[, upon receiving the department's recommendations,] review such recommendations at the forthcoming regular or special meeting, but shall not vote on the fee structure until a subsequent meeting. [The commission shall review fee structure recommendations from the department. The commission shall not take a vote on the fee structure recommendations until the following regular or special meeting.] If the commission approves, by vote of two-thirds majority or five of seven commissioners, the fee structure recommendations, the commission shall [promulgate by regulation and publish the recommended fee structure no later than October first of the same year. The commission shall] authorize the department to file a notice of proposed rulemaking containing the recommended fee structure, and after considering public comments, may authorize the department to file the order of rulemaking for such rule with the joint committee on administrative rules pursuant to sections 536.021 and 536.024 no later than December first of the same year. If such rules are not disapproved by the general assembly in the manner set out below, they shall take effect on January first of the [next odd-numbered] following calendar year and the previous fee structure [set out in this section] shall expire upon the effective date of the commission-adopted fee structure. Any regulation promulgated under this subsection shall be deemed to be beyond the scope and authority provided in this subsection, or detrimental to permit applicants, if the general assembly, within the first sixty calendar days of the regular session immediately following the [promulgation] filing of such regulation, by concurrent resolution[, shall disapprove the fee structure contained in such regulation] disapproves the regulation by concurrent resolution. If the general assembly so disapproves any regulation [promulgated] filed under this subsection, the [air conservation] commission shall continue to use the previous fee structure [set forth in the most recent preceding regulation promulgated under this subsection]. The authority of the commission to further revise the fee structure as provided by this subsection shall expire on August 28, [2023] 2024.

644.026. 1. The commission shall:

- (1) Exercise general supervision of the administration and enforcement of sections 644.006 to 644.141 and all rules and regulations and orders promulgated thereunder;
- (2) Develop comprehensive plans and programs for the prevention, control and abatement of new or existing pollution of the waters of the state;
- (3) Advise, consult, and cooperate with other agencies of the state, the federal government, other states and interstate agencies, and with affected groups, political subdivisions and industries in furtherance of the purposes of sections 644.006 to 644.141;
- (4) Accept gifts, contributions, donations, loans and grants from the federal government and from other sources, public or private, for carrying out any of its functions, which funds shall not be expended for other than the purposes for which provided;
- (5) Encourage, participate in, or conduct studies, investigations, and research and demonstrations relating to water pollution and causes, prevention, control and abatement thereof as it may deem advisable and necessary for the discharge of its duties pursuant to sections 644.006 to 644.141;
- (6) Collect and disseminate information relating to water pollution and the prevention, control and abatement thereof;
- (7) After holding public hearings, identify waters of the state and prescribe water quality standards for them, giving due recognition to variations, if any, and the characteristics of different waters of the state which may be deemed by the commission to be relevant insofar as possible pursuant to any federal water pollution control act. These shall be reevaluated and modified as required by any federal water pollution control act;

(8) Adopt, amend, promulgate, or repeal after due notice and hearing rules and regulations to enforce, implement, and effectuate the powers and duties of sections 644.006 to 644.141 and any required of this state by any federal water pollution control act, and as the commission may deem necessary to prevent, control and abate existing or potential pollution. In addition to opportunities to submit written statements or provide testimony at public hearings in support of or in opposition to proposed rulemakings as required by section 536.021, any person who submits written comments or oral testimony on a proposed rule shall, at any public meeting to vote on an order of rulemaking or other commission policy, have the opportunity to respond to the proposed order of rulemaking or department of natural resources' response to comments to the extent that such response is limited to issues raised in oral or written comments made during the public notice comment period or public hearing on the proposed rule;

(9) Issue, modify or revoke orders prohibiting or abating discharges of water contaminants into the waters of the state or adopting other remedial measures to prevent, control or abate pollution;

(10) Administer state and federal grants and loans to municipalities and political subdivisions for the planning and construction of sewage treatment works;

(11) Hold such hearings, issue such notices of hearings and subpoenas requiring the attendance of such witnesses and the production of such evidence, administer such oaths, and take such testimony as the commission deems necessary or as required by any federal water pollution control act. Any of these powers may be exercised on behalf of the commission by any members thereof or a hearing officer designated by it;

(12) Require the prior submission of plans and specifications, or other data including the quantity and types of water contaminants, and inspect the construction of treatment facilities and sewer systems or any part thereof in connection with the issuance of such permits or approval as are required by sections 644.006 to 644.141, except that manholes and polyvinyl chloride (PVC) pipe used for gravity sewers and with a diameter no greater than twenty-seven inches shall not be required to be tested for leakage;

(13) Issue, continue in effect, revoke, modify or deny, under such conditions as it may prescribe, to prevent, control or abate pollution or any violations of sections 644.006 to 644.141 or any federal water pollution control act, permits for the discharge of water contaminants into the waters of this state, and for the installation, modification or operation of treatment facilities, sewer systems or any parts thereof. Such permit conditions, in addition to all other requirements of this subdivision, shall ensure compliance with all effluent regulations or limitations, water quality related effluent limitations, national standards of performance and toxic and pretreatment effluent standards, and all requirements and time schedules thereunder as established by sections 644.006 to 644.141 and any federal water pollution control act; however, no permit shall be required of any person for any emission into publicly owned treatment facilities or into publicly owned sewer systems tributary to publicly owned treatment works;

(14) Establish permits by rule. Such permits shall only be available for those facilities or classes of facilities that control potential water contaminants that pose a reduced threat to public health or the environment and that are in compliance with commission water quality standards rules, effluent rules or rules establishing permits by rule. Such permits by rule shall have the same legal standing as other permits issued pursuant to this chapter. Nothing in this section shall prohibit the commission from requiring a site-specific permit or a general permit for individual facilities;

(15) Require proper maintenance and operation of treatment facilities and sewer systems and proper disposal of residual waste from all such facilities and systems;

(16) Exercise all incidental powers necessary to carry out the purposes of sections 644.006 to 644.141, assure that the state of Missouri complies with any federal water pollution control act, retains maximum control thereunder and receives all desired federal grants, aid and benefits;

(17) Establish effluent and pretreatment and toxic material control regulations to further the purposes of sections 644.006 to 644.141 and as required to ensure compliance with all effluent limitations, water quality-related effluent limitations, national standards of performance and toxic and pretreatment effluent standards, and all requirements and any time schedules thereunder, as established by any federal water pollution control act for point sources in this state, and where necessary to prevent violation of water quality standards of this state;

(18) Prohibit all discharges of radiological, chemical, or biological warfare agent or high-level radioactive waste into waters of this state;

(19) Require that all publicly owned treatment works or facilities which receive or have received grants or loans from the state or the federal government for construction or improvement make all charges required by sections 644.006 to 644.141 or any federal water pollution control act for use and recovery of capital costs, and the operating authority for such works or facility is hereby authorized to make any such charges;

(20) Represent the state of Missouri in all matters pertaining to interstate water pollution including the negotiation of interstate compacts or agreements;

(21) Develop such facts and make such investigations as are consistent with the purposes of sections 644.006 to 644.141, and, in connection therewith, to enter or authorize any representative of the commission to enter at all reasonable times and upon reasonable notice in or upon any private or public property for any purpose required by any federal water pollution control act or sections 644.006 to 644.141 for the purpose of developing rules, regulations, limitations, standards, or permit conditions, or inspecting or investigating any records required to be kept by sections 644.006 to 644.141 or any permit issued pursuant to sections 644.006 to 644.141, any condition which the commission or director has probable cause to believe to be a water contaminant source or the site of any suspected violation of sections 644.006 to 644.141, regulations, standards, or limitations, or permits issued pursuant to sections 644.006 to 644.141. The results of any such investigation shall be reduced to writing, and shall be furnished to the owner or operator of the property. No person shall refuse entry or access, requested for the purposes of inspection pursuant to this subdivision, to an authorized representative in carrying out the inspection. A suitably restricted search warrant, upon a showing of probable cause in writing and upon oath, shall be issued by any judge or associate circuit judge having jurisdiction to any representative for the purpose of enabling him or her to make such inspection. Information obtained pursuant to this section shall be available to the public unless it constitutes trade secrets or confidential information, other than effluent data, of the person from whom it is obtained, except when disclosure is required pursuant to any federal water pollution control act;

(22) Retain, employ, provide for, and compensate, within appropriations available therefor, such consultants, assistants, deputies, clerks and other employees on a full- or part-time basis as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of sections 644.006 to 644.141 and prescribe the times at which they shall be appointed and their powers and duties;

(23) Secure necessary scientific, technical, administrative and operation services, including laboratory facilities, by contract or otherwise, with any educational institution, experiment station, or any board, department, or other agency of any political subdivision of the state or the federal government;

(24) Require persons owning or engaged in operations which do or could discharge water contaminants, or introduce water contaminants or pollutants of a quality and quantity to be established by the commission, into any publicly owned treatment works or facility, to provide and maintain any facilities and conduct any tests and monitoring necessary to establish and maintain records and to file reports containing information relating to measures to prevent, lessen or render any discharge less harmful or relating to rate, period, composition, temperature, and quality and quantity of the effluent, and any other information required by any federal water pollution control act or the director, and to make them public, except as provided in subdivision (21) of this section. The commission shall develop and adopt such procedures for inspection, investigation, testing, sampling, monitoring and entry respecting water contaminant and point sources as may be required for approval of such a program pursuant to any federal water pollution control act;

(25) Take any action necessary to implement continuing planning processes and areawide waste treatment management as established pursuant to any federal water pollution control act or sections 644.006 to 644.141;

(26) Exercise general supervision of the department as the sole designated state agency with authority to administer the federal Clean Water Act in the state of Missouri, which shall include authority to approve any stream or wetland mitigation used in connection with any section 401 water quality certification.

2. No rule or portion of a rule promulgated pursuant to this chapter shall become effective unless it has been promulgated pursuant to chapter 536.

644.051. 1. It is unlawful for any person:

(1) To cause pollution of any waters of the state or to place or cause or permit to be placed any water contaminant in a location where it is reasonably certain to cause pollution of any waters of the state;

(2) To discharge any water contaminants into any waters of the state which reduce the quality of such waters below the water quality standards established by the commission;

(3) To violate any pretreatment and toxic material control regulations, or to discharge any water contaminants into any waters of the state which exceed effluent regulations or permit provisions as established by the commission or required by any federal water pollution control act;

(4) To discharge any radiological, chemical, or biological warfare agent or high-level radioactive waste into the waters of the state.

2. It shall be unlawful for any person to operate, use or maintain any water contaminant or point source in this state that is subject to standards, rules or regulations promulgated pursuant to the provisions of sections 644.006 to 644.141 unless such person holds an operating permit from the commission, subject to such exceptions as the commission may prescribe by rule or regulation. However, no operating permit shall be required of any person for any emission into publicly owned treatment facilities or into publicly owned sewer systems tributary to publicly owned treatment works.

3. It shall be unlawful for any person to construct, build, replace or make major modification to any point source or collection system that is principally designed to convey or discharge human sewage to waters of the state, unless such person obtains a construction permit from the commission, except as provided in this section. The following activities shall be excluded from construction permit requirements:

(1) Facilities greater than one million gallons per day that are authorized through a local supervised program, and are not receiving any department financial assistance;

(2) All sewer extensions or collection projects that are one thousand feet in length or less with fewer than two lift stations;

(3) All sewer collection projects that are authorized through a local supervised program; and

(4) Any other exclusions the commission may promulgate by rule.

[However, nothing shall prevent the department from taking action to assure protection of the environment and human health.] A construction permit may be required [where necessary as determined by the department, including] by the department in the following circumstances:

(a) Substantial deviation from the commission's design standards;

(b) To [correct] address noncompliance;

(c) When an unauthorized discharge has occurred or has the potential to occur; or

(d) To correct a violation of water quality standards.

In addition, any point source that proposes to construct an earthen storage structure to hold, convey, contain, store or treat domestic, agricultural, or industrial process wastewater also shall be subject to the construction permit provisions of this subsection. All other construction-related activities at point sources shall be exempt from the construction permit requirements. All activities that are exempted from the construction permit requirement are subject to the following conditions:

a. Any point source system designed to hold, convey, contain, store or treat domestic, agricultural or industrial process wastewater shall be designed by a professional engineer registered in Missouri in accordance with the commission's design rules;

b. Such point source system shall be constructed in accordance with the registered professional engineer's design and plans; and

c. Such point source system may receive a post-construction site inspection by the department prior to receiving operating permit approval. A site inspection may be performed by the department, upon receipt of a complete operating permit application or submission of an engineer's statement of work complete.

A governmental unit may apply to the department for authorization to operate a local supervised program, and the department may authorize such a program. A local supervised program would recognize the governmental unit's engineering capacity and ability to conduct engineering work, supervise construction and maintain compliance with relevant operating permit requirements.

4. Before issuing any permit required by this section, the director shall issue such notices, conduct such hearings, and consider such factors, comments and recommendations as required by sections 644.006 to 644.141 or any federal water pollution control act. The director shall determine if any state or any provisions of any federal water pollution control act the state is required to enforce, any state or federal effluent limitations or regulations, water quality-related effluent limitations, national standards of performance, toxic and pretreatment standards, or water quality standards which apply to the source, or any such standards in the vicinity of the source, are being exceeded, and shall determine the impact on such water quality standards from the source. The director, in order to effectuate the purposes of sections 644.006 to 644.141, shall deny a permit if the source will violate any such acts, regulations, limitations or standards or will appreciably affect the water quality standards or the water quality standards are being substantially exceeded, unless the permit is issued with such conditions as to make the source comply with such requirements within an acceptable time schedule.

5. The director shall grant or deny the permit within sixty days after all requirements of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act concerning issuance of permits have been satisfied unless the application does not require any permit pursuant to any federal water pollution control act. The director or the commission may require the applicant to provide and maintain such facilities or to conduct such tests and monitor effluents as necessary to determine the nature, extent, quantity or degree of water contaminant discharged or released from the source, establish and maintain records and make reports regarding such determination.

6. The director shall promptly notify the applicant in writing of his or her action and if the permit is denied state the reasons therefor. The applicant may appeal to the commission from the denial of a permit or from any condition in any permit by filing notice of appeal with the commission within thirty days of the notice of denial or issuance of the permit. After a final action is taken on a new or reissued general permit, a potential applicant for the general permit who can demonstrate that he or she is or may be adversely affected by any permit term or condition may appeal the terms and conditions of the general permit within thirty days of the department's issuance of the general permit. In no event shall a permit constitute permission to violate the law or any standard, rule or regulation promulgated pursuant thereto.

7. In any hearing held pursuant to this section that involves a permit, license, or registration, the burden of proof is on the party specified in section 640.012. Any decision of the commission made pursuant to a hearing held pursuant to this section is subject to judicial review as provided in section 644.071.

8. In any event, no permit issued pursuant to this section shall be issued if properly objected to by the federal government or any agency authorized to object pursuant to any federal water pollution control act unless the application does not require any permit pursuant to any federal water pollution control act.

9. Permits may be modified, reissued, or terminated at the request of the permittee. All requests shall be in writing and shall contain facts or reasons supporting the request.

10. No manufacturing or processing plant or operating location shall be required to pay more than one operating fee. Operating permits shall be issued for a period not to exceed five years after date of issuance, except that general permits shall be issued for a five-year period, and also except that neither a construction nor an annual permit shall be required for a single residence's waste treatment facilities. Applications for renewal of a site-specific operating permit shall be filed at least one hundred eighty days prior to the expiration of the existing permit. Applications seeking to renew coverage under a general permit shall be submitted at least thirty days prior to the expiration of the general permit, unless the permittee has been notified by the director that an earlier application must be made. General permits may be applied for and issued electronically once made available by the director.

11. Every permit issued to municipal or any publicly owned treatment works or facility shall require the permittee to provide the clean water commission with adequate notice of any substantial new introductions of water contaminants or pollutants into such works or facility from any source for which such notice is required by sections 644.006 to 644.141 or any federal water pollution control act. Such permit shall also require the permittee to notify the clean water commission of any substantial change in volume or character of water contaminants or pollutants being introduced into its treatment works or facility by a source which was introducing water contaminants or pollutants into its works at the time of issuance of the permit. Notice must describe the quality and quantity of effluent being introduced or to be introduced into such works or facility by a source which was introducing water contaminants or pollutants into its works at the time of issuance of the permit. Notice must describe the quality and quantity of effluent being introduced or to be introduced into such works or facility and the anticipated impact of such introduction on the quality or quantity of effluent to be released from such works or facility into waters of the state.

12. The director or the commission may require the filing or posting of a bond as a condition for the issuance of permits for construction of temporary or future water treatment facilities or facilities that utilize innovative technology for wastewater treatment in an amount determined by the commission to be sufficient to ensure compliance with all provisions of sections 644.006 to 644.141, and any rules or regulations of the commission and any condition as to such construction in the permit. For the purposes of this section, “innovative technology for wastewater treatment” shall mean a completely new and generally unproven technology in the type or method of its application that bench testing or theory suggest has environmental, efficiency, and cost benefits beyond the standard technologies. No bond shall be required for designs approved by any federal agency or environmental regulatory agency of another state. The bond shall be signed by the applicant as principal, and by a corporate surety licensed to do business in the state of Missouri and approved by the commission. The bond shall remain in effect until the terms and conditions of the permit are met and the provisions of sections 644.006 to 644.141 and rules and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto are complied with.

13. (1) The department shall issue or deny applications for construction and site-specific operating permits received after January 1, 2001, within one hundred eighty days of the department’s receipt of an application. For general construction and operating permit applications received after January 1, 2001, that do not require a public participation process, the department shall issue or deny the permits within sixty days of the department’s receipt of an application. For an application seeking coverage under a renewed general permit that does not require an individual public participation process, the director shall issue or deny the permit within sixty days of the director’s receipt of the application, or upon issuance of the general permit, whichever is later. In regard to an application seeking coverage under an initial general permit that does not require an individual public participation process, the director shall issue or deny the permit within sixty days of the department’s receipt of the application. For an application seeking coverage under a renewed general permit that requires an individual public participation process, the director shall issue or deny the permit within ninety days of the director’s receipt of the application, or upon issuance of the general permit, whichever is later. In regard to an application for an initial general permit that requires an individual public participation process, the director shall issue or deny the permit within ninety days of the director’s receipt of the application.

(2) If the department fails to issue or deny with good cause a construction or operating permit application within the time frames established in subdivision (1) of this subsection, the department shall refund the full amount of the initial application fee within forty-five days of failure to meet the established time frame. If the department fails to refund the application fee within forty-five days, the refund amount shall accrue interest at a rate established pursuant to section 32.065.

(3) Permit fee disputes may be appealed to the commission within thirty days of the date established in subdivision (2) of this subsection. If the applicant prevails in a permit fee dispute appealed to the commission, the commission may order the director to refund the applicant’s permit fee plus interest and reasonable attorney’s fees as provided in sections 536.085 and 536.087. A refund of the initial application or annual fee does not waive the applicant's responsibility to pay any annual fees due each year following issuance of a permit.

(4) No later than December 31, 2001, the commission shall promulgate regulations defining shorter review time periods than the time frames established in subdivision (1) of this subsection, when appropriate, for different classes of construction and operating permits. In no case shall commission regulations adopt permit review times that exceed the time frames established in subdivision (1) of this subsection. The department's failure to comply with the commission's permit review time periods shall result in a refund of said permit fees as set forth in subdivision (2) of this subsection. On a semiannual basis, the department shall submit to the commission a report which describes the different classes of permits and reports on the number of days it took the department to issue each permit from the date of receipt of the application and show averages for each different class of permits.

(5) During the department's technical review of the application, the department may request the applicant submit supplemental or additional information necessary for adequate permit review. The department's technical review letter shall contain a sufficient description of the type of additional information needed to comply with the application requirements.

(6) Nothing in this subsection shall be interpreted to mean that inaction on a permit application shall be grounds to violate any provisions of sections 644.006 to 644.141 or any rules promulgated pursuant to sections 644.006 to 644.141.

14. The department shall respond to all requests for individual certification under Section 401 of the Federal Clean Water Act within the lesser of sixty days or the allowed response period established pursuant to applicable federal regulations without request for an extension period unless such extension is determined by the commission to be necessary to evaluate significant impacts on water quality standards and the commission establishes a timetable for completion of such evaluation in a period of no more than one hundred eighty days.

15. All permit fees generated pursuant to this chapter shall not be used for the development or expansion of total maximum daily loads studies on either the Missouri or Mississippi rivers.

16. The department shall implement permit shield provisions equivalent to the permit shield provisions implemented by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to the Clean Water Act, Section 402(k), 33 U.S.C. 1342(k), and its implementing regulations, for permits issued pursuant to chapter 644.

17. Prior to the development of a new general permit or reissuance of a general permit for aquaculture, land disturbance requiring a storm water permit, or reissuance of a general permit under which fifty or more permits were issued under a general permit during the immediately preceding five-year period for a designated category of water contaminant sources, the director shall implement a public participation process complying with the following minimum requirements:

(1) For a new general permit or reissuance of a general permit, a general permit template shall be developed for which comments shall be sought from permittees and other interested persons prior to issuance of the general permit;

(2) The director shall publish notice of his intent to issue a new general permit or reissue a general permit by posting notice on the department's website at least one hundred eighty days before the proposed effective date of the general permit;

(3) The director shall hold a public informational meeting to provide information on anticipated permit conditions and requirements and to receive informal comments from permittees and other interested persons. The director shall include notice of the public informational meeting with the notice of intent to issue a new general permit or reissue a general permit under subdivision (2) of this subsection. The notice of the public informational meeting, including the date, time and location, shall be posted on the department's website at least thirty days in advance of the public meeting. If the meeting is being held for reissuance of a general permit, notice shall also be made by electronic mail to all permittees holding the current general permit which is expiring. Notice to current permittees shall be made at least twenty days prior to the public meeting;

(4) The director shall hold a thirty-day public comment period to receive comments on the general permit template with the thirty-day comment period expiring at least sixty days prior to the effective date of the general permit. Scanned copies of the comments received during the public comment period shall be posted on the department's website within five business days after close of the public comment period;

(5) A revised draft of a general permit template and the director's response to comments submitted during the public comment period shall be posted on the department's website at least forty-five days prior to issuance of the general permit. At least forty-five days prior to issuance of the general permit the department shall notify all persons who submitted comments to the department that these documents have been posted to the department's website;

(6) Upon issuance of a new or renewed general permit, the general permit shall be posted to the department's website.

18. Notices required to be made by the department pursuant to subsection 17 of this section may be made by electronic mail. The department shall not be required to make notice to any permittee or other person who has not provided a current electronic mail address to the department. In the event the department chooses to make material modifications to the general permit before its expiration, the department shall follow the public participation process described in subsection 17 of this section.

19. The provisions of subsection 17 of this section shall become effective beginning January 1, 2013.

644.057. Notwithstanding any statutory fee amounts or maximums to the contrary, the director of the department of natural resources may conduct a comprehensive review [of] and propose changes to the clean water fee structure set forth in sections 644.052 [and], 644.053, and 644.061. The comprehensive review shall include stakeholder meetings in order to solicit stakeholder input from each of the following groups: agriculture, industry, municipalities, public and private wastewater facilities, and the development community. Upon completion of the comprehensive review, the department shall submit a proposed [changes to the] fee structure with stakeholder agreement to the clean water commission. The commission shall[, upon receiving the department's recommendations,] review such recommendations at the forthcoming regular or special meeting [under subsection 3 of section 644.021], but shall not vote on the fee structure until a subsequent meeting. [The commission shall not take a vote on the clean water fee structure recommendations until the following regular or special meeting.] In no case shall the clean water commission adopt or recommend any clean water fee in excess of five thousand dollars. If the commission approves, by vote of two-thirds majority or five of seven commissioners, the [clean water] fee structure recommendations, the commission shall [promulgate by regulation and publish the recommended clean water fee structure no later than October first of the same year. The commission shall] authorize the department to file a notice of proposed rulemaking containing the recommended fee structure, and after considering public comments, may authorize the department to file the order of rulemaking for such rule with the joint committee on administrative rules pursuant to sections 536.021 and 536.024 no later than December first of the same year. If such rules are not disapproved by the general assembly in the manner set out below, they shall take effect on January first of the [next odd-numbered] following calendar year and the fee structures set forth in sections 644.052 [and], 644.053, and 644.061 shall expire upon the effective date of the commission-adopted fee structure, contrary to section 644.054. Any regulation promulgated under this subsection shall be deemed to be beyond the scope and authority provided in this subsection, or detrimental to permit applicants, if the general assembly, within the first sixty calendar days of the regular session immediately following the [promulgation] filing of such regulation[, by concurrent resolution, shall disapprove the fee structure contained in such regulation] disapproves the regulation by concurrent resolution. If the general assembly so disapproves any regulation [promulgated] filed under this subsection, the [clean water commission shall continue to use the fee structure set forth in the most recent preceding regulation promulgated under this subsection.] department and the commission shall not implement the proposed fee structure and shall continue to use the previous fee structure. The authority of the commission to further revise the fee structure provided by this section shall expire on August 28, [2023] 2024.

644.058. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 644.026 to the contrary, in promulgating water quality standards, the commission shall only revise water quality standards upon the completion of an assessment by the department finding that there is an environmental need for such revision. As part of the implementation of any revised water quality standards modifications of twenty-five percent or more, the department shall conduct an evaluation which shall include the environmental and economic impacts of the revised water quality standards on a subbasin basis. This evaluation shall be conducted at the eight-digit hydrologic unit code level. The department shall document these evaluations and use them in making individual site-specific permit decisions.

644.145. 1. When issuing permits under this chapter that incorporate a new requirement for discharges from publicly owned combined or separate sanitary or storm sewer systems or treatment works, or when enforcing provisions of this chapter or the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, 33 U.S.C. 1251, et seq., pertaining to any portion of a publicly owned combined or separate sanitary or storm sewer system or treatment works, the department of natural resources shall make a finding of affordability on the costs to be incurred and the impact of any rate changes on ratepayers upon which to base such permits and decisions, to the extent allowable under this chapter and the Federal Water Pollution Control Act.

2. (1) The department of natural resources shall not be required under this section to make a finding of affordability when:

(a) Issuing collection system extension permits;

(b) Issuing National Pollution Discharge Elimination System operating permit renewals which include no new environmental requirements; or

(c) The permit applicant certifies that the applicable requirements are affordable to implement or otherwise waives the requirement for an affordability finding; however, at no time shall the department require that any applicant certify, as a condition to approving any permit, administrative or civil action, that a requirement, condition, or penalty is affordable.

(2) The exceptions provided under paragraph (c) of subdivision (1) of this subsection do not apply when the community being served has less than three thousand three hundred residents.

3. When used in this chapter and in standards, rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to this chapter, the following words and phrases mean:

(1) “Affordability”, with respect to payment of a utility bill, a measure of whether an individual customer or household with an income equal to the lower of the median household income for their community or the state of Missouri can pay the bill without undue hardship or unreasonable sacrifice in the essential lifestyle or spending patterns of the individual or household, taking into consideration the criteria described in subsection 4 of this section;

(2) “Financial capability”, the financial capability of a community to make investments necessary to make water quality-related improvements;

(3) “Finding of affordability”, a department statement as to whether an individual or a household receiving as income an amount equal to the lower of the median household income for the applicant community or the state of Missouri would be required to make unreasonable sacrifices in their essential lifestyle or spending patterns or undergo hardships in order to make the projected monthly payments for sewer services. The department shall make a statement that the proposed changes meet the definition of affordable, or fail to meet the definition of affordable, or are implemented as a federal mandate regardless of affordability.

4. The department of natural resources shall adopt procedures by which it will make affordability findings that evaluate the affordability of permit requirements and enforcement actions described in subsection 1 of this section, and may begin implementing such procedures prior to promulgating implementing regulations. The commission shall have the authority to promulgate rules to implement this section pursuant to chapters 536 and 644, and shall promulgate such rules as soon as practicable. Affordability findings shall be based upon reasonably verifiable data and shall include an assessment of affordability with respect to persons or entities affected. The department shall offer the permittee an opportunity to review a draft affordability finding, and the permittee may suggest changes and provide additional supporting information, subject to subsection 6 of this section. The finding shall be based upon the following criteria:

(1) A community’s financial capability and ability to raise or secure necessary funding;

(2) Affordability of pollution control options for the individuals or households at or below the median household income level of the community;

(3) An evaluation of the overall costs and environmental benefits of the control technologies;

(4) Inclusion of ongoing costs of operating and maintaining the existing wastewater collection and treatment system, including payments on outstanding debts for wastewater collection and treatment systems when calculating projected rates;

(5) An inclusion of ways to reduce economic impacts on distressed populations in the community, including but not limited to low- and fixed-income populations. This requirement includes but is not limited to:

(a) Allowing adequate time in implementation schedules to mitigate potential adverse impacts on distressed populations resulting from the costs of the improvements and taking into consideration local community economic considerations; and

(b) Allowing for reasonable accommodations for regulated entities when inflexible standards and fines would impose a disproportionate financial hardship in light of the environmental benefits to be gained;

[(5)] (6) An assessment of other community investments and operating costs relating to environmental improvements and public health protection;

[(6)] (7) An assessment of factors set forth in the United States Environmental Protection Agency's guidance, including but not limited to the "Combined Sewer Overflow Guidance for Financial Capability Assessment and Schedule Development" that may ease the cost burdens of implementing wet weather control plans, including but not limited to small system considerations, the attainability of water quality standards, and the development of wet weather standards; and

[(7)] (8) An assessment of any other relevant local community economic condition.

5. Prescriptive formulas and measures used in determining financial capability, affordability, and thresholds for expenditure, such as median household income, should not be considered to be the only indicator of a community's ability to implement control technology and shall be viewed in the context of other economic conditions rather than as a threshold to be achieved.

6. Reasonable time spent preparing draft affordability findings, allowing permittees to review draft affordability findings or draft permits, or revising draft affordability findings, shall be allowed in addition to the department's deadlines for making permitting decisions pursuant to section 644.051.

7. If the department of natural resources fails to make a finding of affordability where required by this section, then the resulting permit or decision shall be null, void and unenforceable.

8. The department of natural resources' findings under this section may be appealed to the commission pursuant to subsection 6 of section 644.051.

9. The department shall file an annual report by the beginning of the fiscal year with the governor, the speaker of the house of representatives, the president pro tempore of the senate, and the chairs of the committees in both houses having primary jurisdiction over natural resource issues showing at least the following information on the findings of affordability completed in the previous calendar year:

(1) The total number of findings of affordability issued by the department, those categorized as affordable, those categorized as not meeting the definition of affordable, and those implemented as a federal mandate regardless of affordability;

(2) The average increase in sewer rates both in dollars and percentage for all findings found to be affordable;

(3) The average increase in sewer rates as a percentage of median house income in the communities for those findings determined to be affordable and a separate calculation of average increases in sewer rates for those found not to meet the definition of affordable;

(4) A list of all the permit holders receiving findings, and for each permittee the following data taken from the finding of affordability shall be listed:

(a) Current and projected monthly residential sewer rates in dollars;

(b) Projected monthly residential sewer rates as a percentage of median house income;

(c) Percentage of households at or below the state poverty rate.”; and

Such certificate may be granted within thirty days of the submission of a request.

3. [Upon receipt of a properly completed application for a junking certificate, the director of revenue shall issue to the applicant a junking certificate which shall authorize the holder to possess, transport, or, by assignment, transfer ownership in such parts, scrap or junk, and a certificate of title shall not again be issued for such vehicle; except that, the initial purchaser] Notwithstanding any other provision of law, for any vehicle with a junk or substantially equivalent designation, whether so designated in Missouri or any other state, regardless of whether such designation has been subsequently changed erroneously or by law in this or any other state, the department shall only issue a junking certificate, and a salvage or original certificate of title shall not thereafter be issued for such vehicle. If the vehicle has not previously been designated as junk or any other substantially equivalent designation from this state or any other state, the applicant making the original junking certification application shall, within ninety days, be allowed to rescind [his] the application for a junking certificate by surrendering the junking certificate and apply for a salvage certificate of title in [his] the applicant's name. The seller of a vehicle for which a junking certificate has been applied for or issued shall disclose such fact in writing to any prospective buyers before sale of such vehicle; otherwise the sale shall be voidable at the option of the buyer.

4. No scrap metal operator shall acquire or purchase a motor vehicle or parts thereof without, at the time of such acquisition, receiving the original certificate of title or salvage certificate of title or junking certificate from the seller of the vehicle or parts, unless the seller is a licensee under sections 301.219 to 301.221.

5. All titles and certificates required to be received by scrap metal operators from nonlicensees shall be forwarded by the operator to the director of revenue within ten days of the receipt of the vehicle or parts.

6. The scrap metal operator shall keep a record, for three years, of the seller's name and address, the salvage business license number of the licensee, date of purchase, and any vehicle or parts identification numbers open for inspection as provided in section 301.225.

7. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a motor vehicle dealer as defined in section 301.550 and licensed under the provisions of sections 301.550 to 301.572 may negotiate one reassignment of a salvage certificate of title on the back thereof.

8. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 1 of this section, an insurance company which settles a claim for a stolen vehicle may apply for and shall be issued a negotiable salvage certificate of title without the payment of any fee upon proper application within thirty days after settlement of the claim for such stolen vehicle. However, if the insurance company upon recovery of a stolen vehicle determines that the stolen vehicle has not sustained damage to the extent that the vehicle would have otherwise been declared a salvage vehicle pursuant to subdivision (51) of section 301.010, then the insurance company may have the vehicle inspected by the Missouri state highway patrol, or other law enforcement agency authorized by the director of revenue, in accordance with the inspection provisions of subsection 9 of section 301.190. Upon receipt of title application, applicable fee, the completed inspection, and the return of any previously issued negotiable salvage certificate, the director shall issue an original title with no salvage or prior salvage designation. Upon the issuance of an original title the director shall remove any indication of the negotiable salvage title previously issued to the insurance company from the department's electronic records.

9. Notwithstanding subsection 4 of this section or any other provision of the law to the contrary, if a motor vehicle is inoperable and is at least ten model years old, or the parts are from a motor vehicle that is inoperable and is at least ten model years old, a scrap metal operator may purchase or acquire such motor vehicle or parts without receiving the original certificate of title, salvage certificate of title, or junking certificate from the seller of the vehicle or parts, provided the scrap metal operator verifies with the department of revenue, via the department's online record access, that the motor vehicle is not subject to any recorded security interest or lien and the scrap metal operator complies with the requirements of this subsection. In lieu of forwarding certificates of titles for such motor vehicles as required by subsection 5 of this section, the scrap metal operator shall forward a copy of the seller's state identification along with a bill of sale to the department of revenue. The bill of sale form shall be designed by the director and such form shall include, but not be limited to, a certification that the motor vehicle is at least ten model years old, is inoperable, is not subject to any recorded security interest or lien, and a certification by the seller that the seller has the legal authority to sell or otherwise transfer the seller's interest in the motor vehicle or parts. Upon receipt of the information required by this subsection, the department of revenue shall cancel any certificate of title and registration for the motor vehicle. If the motor vehicle is inoperable and at least twenty model years old, then the scrap metal operator shall not be required to verify with the department of revenue whether the motor vehicle is subject to any recorded security interests or liens. As used in this subsection, the term “inoperable” means a motor vehicle that is in a rusted, wrecked, discarded, worn out, extensively damaged, dismantled, and mechanically inoperative condition and the vehicle’s highest and best use is for scrap purposes. The director of the department of revenue is directed to promulgate rules and regulations to implement and administer the provisions of this section, including but not limited to, the development of a uniform bill of sale. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable, section 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2012, shall be invalid and void.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

In which the concurrence of the Senate is respectfully requested.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following communications, regarding vetoed Senate Bills were received by the Secretary of State, reading of which was waived:

GOVERNOR OF MISSOURI

JEFFERSON CITY

65102

June 11, 2014

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI

Herewith I return to you Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 662 entitled:

AN ACT

To repeal sections 143.451, 144.021, and 144.080, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof four new sections relating to taxation, with existing penalty provisions.

I disapprove of Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 662. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 662 would continue a damaging trend by the General Assembly to enact special tax exemptions and credits that pick winners and losers through the tax code and shift a greater proportion of the tax burden to the majority of Missourians unable to utilize such loopholes. Not a penny of the special breaks in this bill or in the others that I am vetoing today<sup>1</sup> was taken into account in the Fiscal Year 2015 budget passed by the General Assembly, leaving it significantly out of balance and requiring swift action to protect the State's fiscal well-being. This is fiscally irresponsible and cannot receive my support.

In enacting Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 662 and its brethren in the final hours of the legislative session, the General Assembly disregarded the normal legislative process, slipping in costly provisions without public hearings and without fiscal notes reflecting the impact on the state budget. And just as legislators ignored the legislative process, so too did they disregard the budget process by passing a budget just a week earlier that failed to account for this final day spending spree. Unlike the fiscal impact of Senate Substitute No. 3 for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill Nos. 509 & 496, which today's lawmakers have conveniently foisted off on future budgets for education, public safety and other vital public services, the fiscal impact of the special breaks I am vetoing today would begin impacting budgets in the fiscal year starting in less than 30 days. There are no delays, triggers, or other gimmicks that could be touted as shielding education, public safety, and other vital public services, at both the state and local level,<sup>2</sup> from the projected $776 million in state and local revenue legislators voted to send to narrow special interests on the last day of session. While the General Assembly may have abdicated its fiscal responsibilities in failing to account for this budgetary impact, the resulting imbalance cannot be ignored and will have to be corrected through dramatic spending reductions.

Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 662 and the other measures I am vetoing today would add to the more than 260 sales tax exemptions and tax credits that litter Missouri's tax code without requiring the creation of a single new job. The continued erosion of the tax base through such individualized exemptions and credits violates well-established principles of sound tax policy calling for a broad tax base so that tax rates can remain low. The General Assembly has ignored repeated calls to reduce these costly and inefficient carve-outs and has instead rushed through many more, leaving Missouri families to pick up the tab for education and vital public services.

The unabated growth of such special carve-outs and the fiscal irresponsibility of failing to budget for them are all the more troubling when the General Assembly is simultaneously seeking to raise taxes on all Missourians with what could be the largest tax hike in Missouri history. While the benefits of the more than one billion dollars in annual tax breaks passed by the legislature over the past two months will go disproportionately to the wealthy, the burden of this multi-billion dollar tax increase for transportation would fall disproportionately on Missouri's working families and seniors.

The special breaks in Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 662 and the other bills that I am vetoing today are not the mere clarifications that their supporters claim. Instead, they seek to overrule no fewer than twenty Missouri Supreme Court decisions going back to 1977 that have been followed by the department of revenue over the course previous and current administrations. In nearly every one of the cases sought to be overturned, the court ruled that the law enacted by the General Assembly required a tax to be collected, notwithstanding that a particular businesses had hoped to be excused from the legal obligations we all share. While it is well within the rights of a losing litigant to petition their elected representatives, it is wholly disingenuous to call doing so here anything other than what it is—seeking a special exemption from the law, as currently written and as confirmed by the courts.

Throughout my time as Governor, I have worked with legislators on fiscally responsible ways to improve our tax code while protecting our state's fiscal health, including the four tax cuts that I have signed into law. Even during this legislative session, I worked directly with legislators to put forward a specific, concrete proposal that would have lowered taxes for Missourians and reined in costly and inefficient tax credits for special interests, broadened the overall tax base and reduced tax rates, while protecting our ability to invest in education and other vital public services. Unfortunately, the General Assembly refused to enact this broad tax relief in favor of narrow giveaways like those contained in Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 662 and the other bills I am vetoing today. For the reasons stated herein, this is an endeavor I cannot support.

Retroactive Immunity

Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 662 would mandate governmental notification before a business is under any legal obligation to collect and remit sales tax under an administrative or judicial decision that modifies the items subject to tax. As with the various other tax measures the General Assembly rushed through on the last day of session, the Fiscal Year 2015 budget they enacted fails to account for the reduction in revenue that would result from this provision.<sup>3</sup>

Mandatory governmental notification before a law applies would turn on its head the long-standing principle of our democracy that individuals are presumed to know the law. It is one thing to require the government to provide information about recent developments in the law so that those affected can adjust their prospective conduct accordingly, but it is quite another to condition whether that law even applies on whether someone has received a personal notification of the law's existence. This kind of governmental paternalism is unprecedented. This legislative

<sup>2</sup> In addition to impacting the general local sales tax imposed under Section 32.085, exemptions from local sales tax would reduce revenue collected through numerous voter-approved local sales taxes that are targeted to specific, community supported needs. Examples include the County Anti-Drug Sales Tax, Sections 67.391, 67.392, RSMo; County Construction Sales Tax, Sections 67.550, 67.590, RSMo; Museums and Festivals Sales Tax, Sections 67.571, 67.578, RSMo; Law Enforcement Services Sales Tax, Sections 67.582, 67.584, 92.500, RSMo; Capital Improvements Sales Tax, Sections 67.700, 67.730, 94.577, 94.578, 94.890, RSMo; Storm Water Control and Public Works Sales Tax, Sections 67.701, 67.729, 94.413, RSMo; Public Recreation Projects and Programs Sales Tax, Sections 67.745, 67.782, RSMo; Regional Recreation Districts Sales Tax, Section 67.799, RSMo; Perry County Senior Services and Youth Programs Sales Tax, Section 67.997, RSMo; Economic Development Sales Tax, Sections 67.1300, 67.1303, 67.1305, 94.1008, 94.1010, 94.1012, RSMo; Community Improvement Districts Sales Tax, Section 67.1545, RSMo; Metropolitan Parks and Recreation Districts Sales Tax, Section 67.1712, RSMo; Children's Services Sales Tax, Section 67.1775, RSMo; Water Quality, Tourism, and Infrastructure Sales Tax, Section 67.1922, RSMo; Tourism Community Enhancement Districts Sales Tax, Section 67.1959, RSMo; Exhibition Center and Recreational Facility Districts Sales Tax, Section 67.2000, RSMo; Tourism Promotion Sales Tax, Section 67.2030, RSMo; Construction of Women's and Children's Shelter Sales Tax, Section 67.2040, RSMo; Theater, Cultural Arts, and Entertainment Districts Sales Tax, Section 67.2530, RSMo; Parks, Trails, and Greenways Districts Sales Tax, Section 67.5012, RSMo; Mass Transit Sales Tax, Section 92.402, RSMo; Public Safety Sales Tax, Sections 94.579, 94.581, 94.900, 94.902, RSMo; Community Center Sales Tax, Section 94.585, RSMo; Transportation Sales Tax, Sections 94.605, 94.660, 94.705, RSMo; Historical Locations and Museums Sales Tax, Section 94.950, RSMo; Medical Care for the Medically Indigent Sales Tax, Section 94.1000, RSMo; Kansas City Zoological District Sales Tax, Sections 94.1000, 184.503, RSMo; Transportation Development District Sales Tax, Section 238.235, RSMo; County Transit Authority Sales Tax, Section 238.410, RSMo; and Storm Water Control and Parks Sales Tax, Section 644.032, RSMo.

<sup>3</sup> Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 612, which I am also vetoing today, contains a similar provision, but it does not prohibit a business that was properly collecting tax from claiming a refund for taxes paid prior to receiving the notice confirming their obligation to continue doing so. By expressly prohibiting refunds in such situations, Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 662 would have a significantly lower fiscal impact than the similar provision in Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 612.

session alone the General Assembly passed nearly 200 bills modifying thousands of pages of Missouri law that apply to all manner of conduct. The General Assembly should not have to send a letter to every Missourian no power before this legion of new laws takes effect. Similarly, every potential criminal should not have to receive a notice describing this year's revisions to the state's criminal code before they can be prosecuted under it.

This provision in Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 662 also misunderstands the tax law. Although a decision of the director of revenue is listed as an example of a "modification" triggering notification under the bill, the director has no power to finally determine whether an item is taxable or not; that authority lies solely with those who write the tax laws—the General Assembly—and those that finally interpret them—the Missouri Supreme Court. See Mo. Const. Art. V, Sec. 3 (giving the Missouri Supreme Court exclusive appellate jurisdiction over the construction of the revenue laws of this state). Similarly, a decision of the administrative hearing commission is listed as something that can trigger notification under the bill. However, while the administrative hearing commission has the power to hear individual disputes, a decision of that body is not binding beyond the parties, and therefore it cannot finally "modify" what is or is not taxable for other affected sellers.

Although a decision of the Missouri Supreme Court might "change[ ] which items of tangible personal property or services are taxable" within the meaning of the bill, the decisions that purportedly prompted this provision and many of the new exemptions passed on the final day of the legislative session did not. In each of those cases, the Missouri Supreme Court found that the current law, as enacted by the General Assembly, required a tax to be paid, notwithstanding that a particular business had tried to get out of this legal obligation.<sup>4</sup> The decisions did not newly subject some item to tax; instead, they simply confirmed that such items were and are taxable. However, there is nothing in the bill preventing a business from arguing that court decisions like these are "modifications" triggering notification to all affected sellers that the Missouri Supreme Court has confirmed that what was always taxable continues to be taxable.

The bill provides far-reaching consequences for such a notification. Under the bill, a failure to notify an affected seller "shall relieve such seller of liability for taxes that would be due under the modification." See Section 144.021.2. Accordingly, receiving a notification gives any business that was not collecting taxes prior to the notice retroactive immunity for taxes that the Missouri Supreme Court has confirmed should have been collected. Under this bill, even the specific business that sought to avoid paying taxes, hired a lawyer to litigate the issue, and lost in court, could argue that it has no tax liability for the taxes the court ordered it to pay prior to being notified about the decision in its own case.

The problems with this provision extend beyond retroactive immunity to the additional governmental intrusion and burden on taxpayers resulting from the requirement to provide a personal notification to each and every affected seller. Such individualized notification will require the department of revenue to more closely and more frequently scrutinize sales data and other business information it obtains and to potentially require additional information in order to determine precisely which businesses might be affected by a given decision. In addition, because addresses, ownership and personal contact information change over time, the department would need to gather updated information more frequently and perhaps maintain a database of such information to ensure cost-effective compliance with the personalized notification requirement of the bill. The need to continually maintain up-to-date information would result in additional burdens for taxpayers that could be avoided with a less onerous, and likely more effective, method of providing generalized notice of updates in the law than the personal notification mandated by Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 662.

If it were to become law, Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 662 would create no shortage of work for tax attorneys and consultants. It provides a clear incentive for businesses to engage in otherwise unnecessary litigation in the hopes of obtaining a "decision" arguably constituting a "modification" in order to trigger individual notification and then retroactive immunity if they were violating the law. Moreover, it will require all taxpayers to bear the cost of staffing and postage to comply with the personal notification mandate, while putting additional burdens on businesses through additional government intrusion into their affairs. While providing up-to-date information to taxpayers is a laudable policy, Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 662 fails to accomplish it and instead puts additional burden on taxpayers and significantly reduces state and local revenue. Accordingly, this measure does not receive my support.

Special Exemption for Personal Seat Licenses

Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 662 would exempt from tax a right of first refusal for tickets sold at the Sprint Center in Kansas City. As with the other new exemptions enacted in this and similar bills, the General Assembly failed to account for the fiscal impact of this exemption in the Fiscal Year 2015 budget they enacted. It is unclear why this activity should receive a new special tax exemption, and it is even more unclear why the General Assembly would pass a special law, potentially violating the Missouri Constitution, in order to effectuate it. Unfortunately, because this provision never received a public hearing, the answer remains as elusive as my support.

Corporate Income Allocation

<sup>4</sup> This is true whether it was the court reaffirming this year that the tax a laundry first sought to avoid had been in place since at least 1989, see AAA Laundry & Linen Supply Co. v. Director of Revenue, 425 S.W.3d 126, 127 (Mo. banc 2014) (discussing Unitog Rental Services, Inc. v. Director of Revenue, 779 S.W.2d 568 (Mo. banc 1989)), affirming that the General Assembly's laws did not exempt the purchases claimed as tax free by convenience stores, restaurants, or grocery stores, see Aquila Foreign Qualifications Corp. v. Director of Revenue, 362 S.W.3d 1, 2 (Mo. banc 2012); Brinker Missouri, Inc. v. Director of Revenue, 319 S.W.3d 433, 435 (Mo. banc 2010); Union Elec. Co. v. Director of Revenue, 425 S.W.3d 118, 120 (Mo. banc 2014), or clarifying in 2008 that "tax is due for 'fees paid to, or in any place of amusement, entertainment or recreation,'" see Michael Jaudes Fitness Edge, Inc. v. Director of Revenue, 248 S.W.3d 606 (Mo. banc 2008) (affirming denial of refund claim for taxes paid at fitness center based on Wilson's Total Fitness Center, Inc. v. Director of Revenue, 38 S.W.3d 424 (Mo. banc 2001)).

Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 662 would enable additional businesses to reduce their corporate income taxes by utilizing an alternative method of calculating the amount of their income that is derived in Missouri. Legislation enacted last year authorized this alternative allocation method for manufacturers and other businesses selling tangible personal property. This provision would expand this alternative method to sellers of intangible personal property and service providers such as law firms, accounting firms, stock brokers, bond traders, real estate holding companies, and consultants.

Like many of the tax measures enacted during the final hours of the legislative session, this provision was never the subject of a public hearing and was not accounted for in the Fiscal Year 2015 budget passed by the General Assembly. A change to Missouri's tax policy that would reduce state revenues by up to $15 million annually according to the legislature's own estimate should be the subject of open debate, and the foregone revenue must be accounted for in the budget in order to receive my support.

In accordance with the above-stated reasons, I am returning Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 662 without my approval.

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI

Herewith I return to you Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 829 entitled:

AN ACT

To repeal section 136.300, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to tax liability disputes.

I disapprove of Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 829. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 829 would continue a damaging trend by the General Assembly to enact special tax exemptions and credits that pick winners and losers through the tax code and shift a greater proportion of the tax burden to the majority of Missourians unable to utilize such loopholes. Not a penny of the special breaks that I am vetoing today<sup>1</sup> or the provisions of this bill making such special breaks far easier to exploit was taken into account in the Fiscal Year 2015 budget passed by the General Assembly, leaving it significantly out of balance and requiring swift action to protect the State's fiscal well-being. This is fiscally irresponsible and cannot receive my support.

In enacting Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 829 and its brethren in the final hours of the legislative session, the General Assembly disregarded the normal legislative process, slipping in costly provisions without public hearings and without fiscal notes reflecting the impact on the state budget. And just as legislators ignored the legislative process, so too did they disregard the budget process by passing a budget just a week earlier that failed to account for this final day spending spree. Unlike the fiscal impact of Senate Substitute No. 3 for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill Nos. 509 & 496, which today's lawmakers have conveniently foisted off on future budgets for education, public safety and vital public services, the fiscal impact of the special breaks I am vetoing today would begin impacting budgets in the fiscal year starting in less than 30 days. There are no delays, triggers, or other gimmicks that could be touted as shielding education, public safety, and other vital public services, at both the state and local level, from the projected $776 million in state and local revenue legislators voted to send to narrow special interests on the last day of session. While the General Assembly may have abdicated its fiscal responsibilities in failing to account for this budgetary impact, the resulting imbalance cannot be ignored and will have to be corrected through dramatic spending reductions.

Throughout my time as Governor, I have worked with legislators on fiscally responsible ways to improve our tax code while protecting our state's fiscal health, including the four tax cuts that I have signed into law. Even during this legislative session, I worked directly with legislators to put forward a specific, concrete proposal that would have lowered taxes for Missourians and reined in costly and inefficient tax credits for special interests, broadened the overall tax base and reduced tax rates, while protecting our ability to invest in education and other vital public services. Unfortunately, the General Assembly refused to enact this broad tax relief in favor of narrow giveaways like those contained in the bills that I am vetoing today and which would be facilitated by Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 829. For the reasons stated herein, this is an endeavor I cannot support.

Proving Eligibility for Tax Exemptions

While the other bills that I am vetoing today create broad new tax exemptions, Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 829 would make these new exemptions, as well as the more than 200 sales tax exemptions in current law, far easier to exploit by no longer requiring a business claiming a tax exemption to prove it is actually eligible for the claimed exemption.

While I support eliminating the arbitrary limitation in current law that puts the burden of proof on some businesses but not others in determining tax liability, when it comes to someone trying to claim a tax exemption, they should at a minimum be required to show that they are entitled to it. Claiming a special carve-out or loophole without evidence to support it is unfair to the vast majority of Missouri taxpayers who lack the influence to get special tax exemptions crafted for them by the General Assembly. With the help of the legislature and the best accounting and legal advice, those fortunate enough to take advantage of special exemptions would now be given every incentive to push the outer boundaries of any exemptions that could conceivably apply, further eroding the tax base and shifting an even greater tax burden to the majority of taxpayers. Not content with merely showering the fortunate with a cavalcade of new tax breaks, the General Assembly has gone further to stack the deck in their favor and to provide an added incentive to try on an exemption just to see if it fits. This is not a tax policy that I can support.

In accordance with the above-stated reasons for disapproval and for the reasons stated in the other veto messages issued this day, I am returning Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 829 without my approval.

To repeal sections 136.300, 142.815, 143.221, 143.451, 144.010, 144.018, 144.020, 144.030, 144.044, 144.080, 144.190, and 221.407, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof fifteen new sections relating to taxation, with an existing penalty provision.

balance and requiring swift action to protect the state's fiscal well-being. This is fiscally irresponsible and cannot receive my support.

In enacting Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 584 and its brethren in the final hours of the legislative session, the General Assembly disregarded the normal legislative process, slipping in costly provisions without public hearings and without fiscal notes reflecting the impact on the state budget. And just as legislators ignored the legislative process, so too did they disregard the budget process by passing a budget just a week earlier that failed to account for this final day spending spree. Unlike the fiscal impact of Senate Substitute No. 3 for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill Nos. 509 & 496, which today's lawmakers have conveniently foisted off on future budgets for education, public safety and other vital public services, the fiscal impact of the special breaks I am vetoing today would begin impacting budgets in the fiscal year starting in less than 30 days. There are no delays, triggers, or other gimmicks that could be touted as shielding education, public safety, and other vital public services, at both the state and local level,<sup>2</sup> from the projected $776 million in state and local revenue legislators voted to send to narrow special interests on the last day of session. While the General Assembly may have abdicated its fiscal responsibilities in failing to account for this budgetary impact, the resulting imbalance cannot be ignored and will have to be corrected through dramatic spending reductions.

Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 584 and the other measures I am vetoing today would add to the more than 260 sales tax exemptions and tax credits that litter Missouri's tax code without requiring the creation of a single new job. The continued erosion of the tax base through such individualized exemptions and credits violates well-established principles of sound tax policy calling for a broad tax base so that tax rates can remain low. The General Assembly has ignored repeated calls to reduce these costly and inefficient carve-outs and has instead rushed through many more, leaving Missouri families to pick up the tab for education and other vital public services.

The unabated growth of such special carve-outs and the fiscal irresponsibility of failing to budget for them are all the more troubling when the General Assembly is simultaneously seeking to raise taxes on all Missourians with what could be the largest tax hike in Missouri history. While the benefits of the more than one billion dollars in annual tax breaks passed by the legislature over the past two months will go disproportionately to the wealthy, the burden of this multi-billion dollar tax increase for transportation would fall disproportionately on Missouri's working families and seniors.

The special breaks in Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 584 and the other bills that I am vetoing today are not the mere clarifications that their supporters claim. Instead, they seek to overrule no fewer than twenty Missouri Supreme Court decisions going back to 1977 that have been followed by the department of revenue over the course of previous and current administrations. In nearly every one of the cases sought to be overturned, the court ruled that the law enacted by the General Assembly required a tax to be collected, notwithstanding that a particular business had hoped to be excused from the legal obligations we all share. While it is well within the rights of a losing litigant to petition their elected representatives, it is wholly disingenuous to call doing so here anything other than what it is—seeking a special exemption from the law, as currently written and as confirmed by the courts.

<sup>2</sup> In addition to impacting the general local sales tax imposed under Section 32.085, exemptions from local sales tax would reduce revenue collected through numerous voter-approved local sales taxes that are targeted to specific, community supported needs. Examples include the County Anti-Drug Sales Tax, Sections 67.391, 67.392, RSMo; County Construction Sales Tax, Sections 67.550, 67.590, RSMo; Museums and Festivals Sales Tax, Sections 67.571, 67.578, RSMo; Law Enforcement Services Sales Tax, Sections 67.582, 67.584, 92.500, RSMo; Capital Improvements Sales Tax, Sections 67.700, 67.730, 94.577, 94.578, 94.890, RSMo; Storm Water Control and Public Works Sales Tax, Sections 67.701, 67.729, 94.413, RSMo; Public Recreation Projects and Programs Sales Tax, Sections 67.745, 67.782, RSMo; Regional Recreation Districts Sales Tax, Section 67.799, RSMo; Perry County Senior Services and Youth Programs Sales Tax, Section 67.997, RSMo; Economic Development Sales Tax, Sections 67.1300, 67.1303, 67.1305, 94.1008, 94.1010, 94.1012, RSMo; Community Improvement Districts Sales Tax, Section 67.1545, RSMo; Metropolitan Parks and Recreation Districts Sales Tax, Section 67.1712, RSMo; Children's Services Sales Tax, Section 67.1775, RSMo; Water Quality, Tourism, and Infrastructure Sales Tax, Section 67.1922, RSMo; Tourism Community Enhancement Districts Sales Tax, Section 67.1959, RSMo; Exhibition Center and Recreational Facility Districts Sales Tax, Section 67.2000, RSMo; Tourism Promotion Sales Tax, Section 67.2030, RSMo; Construction of Women's and Children's Shelter Sales Tax, Section 67.2040, RSMo; Theater, Cultural Arts, and Entertainment Districts Sales Tax, Section 67.2530, RSMo; Parks, Trails, and Greenways Districts Sales Tax, Section 67.5012, RSMo; Mass Transit Sales Tax, Section 92.402, RSMo; Public Safety Sales Tax, Sections 94.579, 94.581, 94.900, 94.902, RSMo; Community Center Sales Tax, Section 94.585, RSMo; Transportation Sales Tax, Sections 94.605, 94.660, 94.705, RSMo; Historical Locations and Museums Sales Tax, Section 94.950, RSMo; Medical Care for the Medically Indigent Sales Tax, Section 94.1000, RSMo; Kansas City Zoological District Sales Tax, Sections 94.1000, 184.503, RSMo; Transportation Development District Sales Tax, Section 238.235, RSMo; County Transit Authority Sales Tax, Section 238.410, RSMo; and Storm Water Control and Parks Sales Tax, Section 644.032, RSMo.

Throughout my time as Governor, I have worked with legislators on fiscally responsible ways to improve our tax code while protecting our state's fiscal health, including the four tax cuts that I have signed into law. Even during this legislative session, I worked directly with legislators to put forward a specific, concrete proposal that would have lowered taxes for Missourians and reined in costly and inefficient tax credits for special interests, broadened the overall tax base and reduced tax rates, while protecting our ability to invest in education and other vital public services. Unfortunately, the General Assembly refused to enact this broad tax relief in favor of narrow giveaways like those contained in Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 584 and the other bills I am vetoing today. For the reasons stated herein, this is an endeavor I cannot support.

Special Exemptions for the Storage and Processing of Data in Any Form

Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 584 would exempt from state and local sales tax electrical energy, machinery, equipment, parts and materials used or consumed in connection with or to facilitate the storage or processing of data in any form in a facility or a part of a facility. These exceedingly broad and completely new state and local sales tax exemptions are not the thoroughly vetted, widely-supported, revenue-neutral incentive for new and expanding data centers that has been introduced in the General Assembly for the past several years.

Although this provision is projected to reduce state and local revenues by an estimated $300 million annually, because it was slipped into the bill in the final hours of the legislative session without a public hearing and without a fiscal note reflecting its cost, it is unlikely legislators were aware of this significant fiscal impact when they voted to enact it. And as with the other new exemptions enacted in Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 584 and the other bills I am vetoing today, the General Assembly failed to account for the resulting reduction in state revenue in the budget they enacted for the fiscal year starting July 1, necessitating spending cuts in order to maintain a balanced a budget.

These new exemptions in Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 584 have been characterized by some as applying only to "data centers." However, such is not the case. The legislation itself does not use the term "data center." Instead, the language is far broader, applying to "any facility or part of a facility that is used primarily for such data storage or processing," which means that any business with a computer could attempt to claim these broad new exemptions. The term "data storage" is undefined, and the term "processing" is broadly defined to encompass "any action or process performed upon or using data in any form." As this definition indicates, it is not merely electronic or other forms of "high tech" data that would be subject to these new exemptions, but rather data "in any form," whether stored in a computer or in a file cabinet.

This broad subsidy stands in stark contrast to legislation that I have supported in the past to provide a revenue-neutral incentive for new and expanding data centers that create new jobs and make new capital investments.<sup>3</sup> Such legislation has been introduced in the Missouri General Assembly for the past several years and has been thoroughly debated and vetted through the legislative process. See, e.g. Senate Bill No. 8 (1st Ex. Session 2011); Senate Bill No. 584 (2012); House Bill No. 1311 (2012); Senate Bill No. 46 (2013); Senate Bill No. 394 (2013); House Bill No. 222 (2013); Senate Bill No. 633 (2014); Senate Bill No. 1502 (2014). Indeed, during the past legislative session there was a public hearing on House Bill No. 1444 (2014), which would have enacted this fiscally responsible data center incentive.

Unfortunately, that is not what was inserted into Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 584 in the final hours of the legislative session. Inserted instead was a broad government subsidy without any of the taxpayer protections present in previous legislation and without any requirement to create even a single new job. Specifically, previous data center legislation contained the following protections, none of which is present here:

- Job creation – Required a minimum number of jobs paying at least the county average wage to be created in order for a new or expanding data center to obtain the exemption;
- Capital investment – Required a minimum amount of new capital investment in order for a new or expanding data center to obtain the exemption;
- Revenue neutral – Limited the amount of the sales tax exemption to the amount that would result in a positive general revenue return to the state, thereby ensuring that the exemption would be revenue neutral;

<sup>3</sup> Even without a specific data center incentive, Missouri has been successful in recruiting and growing such operations in the state. For example, in April I was pleased to announce the opening of a mission critical data center for a premier cloud computing company in the underground business complex in Northeast Kansas City owned and operated by Hunt Midwest, which will result in the creation of 21 new jobs and $58 million in new capital investment. With the continued growth of high-tech companies like these, it is no wonder that Missouri was the fastest-growing state for technology employment in 2013, even without a dedicated data center incentive.

- New and expanding data centers only – Limited the availability of the sales tax exemption to solely new or expanding data centers, as defined by NAICS classification, to provide an incentive for such facilities to locate or expand in Missouri, not merely a subsidy for all facilities, regardless of whether they are already operating in Missouri; and
- Rigorous oversight – Previous data center legislation required random audits of recipients to ensure that the recipient was actually eligible for the exemption.

In addition to failing to include any of the above taxpayer protections found in previous data center legislation, these broad new exemptions would play favorites with the tax code by providing more generous tax benefits for data storage and processing than is currently available to numerous other types of businesses. First, while the current sales tax exemptions for manufacturers in Section 144.054, RSMo, only apply to state sales taxes, this bill would exempt the same type of purchases for data storage and processing activities from local sales taxes as well. Second, while the current manufacturing sales tax exemptions require the tax-exempt items to be actually used in the manufacturing process, these new exemptions for data storage and processing would apply even if the items are used simply “in connection with” or “to facilitate” the storage and processing of data. This could result in purchases only very loosely connected, if at all, to the actual storage and processing of data being claimed as tax-exempt. Offering these broad new exemptions from state and local tax would treat those who manipulate data better than those who manufacture goods, without a clearly articulated economic justification for doing so, without requiring the creation of a single new job, and without accounting for the impact on state and local budgets. Accordingly, this provision does not receive my support.

Special Exemption for Power Companies

Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 584 would also provide a special carve-out from state and local taxes for purchases of a variety of items used in the generation, transmission, distribution, sale or furnishing of electricity by power companies. This provision is written so broadly that these entities could avoid paying any sales and use tax whatsoever, although there is nothing in the bill that would require them to create any new jobs or to pass the savings along to consumers in the form of reduced electricity rates. These new exemptions would abrogate a 2001 Missouri Supreme Court case, which held that the law enacted by the General Assembly did not authorize such tax exemptions for power companies. See Utilicorp United, Inc. v. Director of Revenue, 75 S.W.3d 725 (Mo. banc 2001) (machinery and equipment used in transmission of electricity not exempt under Section 144.030, RSMo).

Like other tailor-made exemptions in Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 584, these new tax exemptions for power companies were inserted during the final hours of the legislative session without a public hearing in any Senate committee. Although not included in any fiscal note for Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 584, this provision could reduce state revenue by more than $30 million annually, none of which was accounted for by the legislature in the budget they enacted just a week earlier.

Furthermore, there is nothing in this provision to prevent the power companies from claiming exemptions from local sales taxes on top of their exemptions from state taxes, which would result in an additional $30 million annual impact to local revenues. Following its passage, proponents have suggested a narrow interpretation<sup>4</sup> of the provision to apply only to state taxes because the language is silent as to whether local taxes are also exempted. However, in order to exempt state sales tax and not also exempt the local tax, the legislature must expressly make the exemption inapplicable to local sales tax, as it did in the only current exemption from the state sales taxes that does not also apply to the local sales tax. See Section 155.054.2, RSMo (“The exemptions granted in this subsection shall not apply to local sales taxes as defined in section 32.085 . . .”). It is necessary to expressly exclude the local sales tax because Section 32.087, RSMo, incorporates all state sales tax exemptions to the local sales tax.<sup>5</sup> The General Assembly acknowledged this in Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1865, which I am also vetoing today, and which sought to provide state-only tax exemptions for certain purchases by fast food restaurants, convenience stores, and grocery stores, by expressly stating that the exemptions do not apply to the local sales tax. See Section 144.055.3 (“The exemptions granted in this section shall not apply to the local sales tax law as defined in section 32.085”). Mere silence as to whether a state sales tax exemption applies to the local sales tax is insufficient to exempt local taxes, as indicated by other state and local sales tax exemptions that only expressly reference an exemption from the state tax. See, e.g., Section 144.030.1, RSMo; Section 144.062, RSMo. Accordingly, there is nothing in the bill to prevent the power companies from one day seeking a refund of local taxes paid after the effective date of the law, significantly impacting the budgets of local communities.

Special Exemptions for Certain Recreation Activities

Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 584 contains a provision that its proponents contend

<sup>4</sup> There is some irony in urging a narrow interpretation of the new exemptions provided by this bill when in the Missouri Supreme Court case sought to be abrogated the power company argued for an expansive interpretation of the tax exemptions at issue. See Utilicorp United, Inc., 75 S.W.3d at 725-30.

<sup>5</sup> Section 32.087.8, RSMo, provides:

“All exemptions granted to agencies of government, organizations, persons and to the sale of certain articles and items of tangible personal property and taxable services under the provisions of sections 144.010 to 144.525, as these sections now read and as they may hereafter be amended, it being the intent of this general assembly to ensure that the same sales tax exemptions granted from the state sales tax law also be granted under the local sales tax law, are hereby made applicable to the imposition and collection of all local sales taxes imposed under the local sales tax law.”

See also President Casino, Inc. v. Director of Revenue, 219 S.W.3d 235, 241–42 (mo.banc 2007)(highlighting Section 32.087.8 as an example of where, “[t]he legislature has specifically and directly incorporated sales tax exemptions into a number of other tax statutes. . .”). Notably the 97th General Assembly reenacted Section 32.087.8 last year in Senate Bill 99 (2013), Senate Bill 23 (2013), and House Bill 184 (2013), and each time continued the reference to all state sales tax exemptions applying equally to the local tax.

would simply clarify the current sales tax on fitness activities. Instead, this provision seeks to overturn more than a dozen Missouri Supreme Court cases going back to 1977 followed by the department of revenue over the course of previous and current administrations by fundamentally transforming the current sales tax on “amusement, entertainment, and recreation” into a tax solely on tickets and fees for admission.<sup>6</sup> Such a dramatic change in the law would make far more than just gym memberships and yoga classes tax free. It would also exempt fees paid at bowling alleys, golf courses, pool halls, country clubs, and arcades, as well as encouraging any business that currently charges an admission fee to convert it into a newly tax-exempt fee for a specific activity. Enacting this sweeping new exemption would further erode the tax base without requiring the creation of even a single new job, in addition to reducing state and local revenue for education, public safety and other vital public services by more than $70 million annually. The Fiscal Year 2015 budget passed by the General Assembly fails to account for the cost of these new carve-outs, putting the budget out of balance and necessitating spending reductions in order to balance it.

Tax Refunds to Delinquent Taxpayers

Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 584 would modify the established process for obtaining a sales tax refund by allowing a refund even if a taxpayer currently has overdue taxes. This provision is projected to reduce state and local revenue by up to $10 million annually, although the General Assembly failed to account for any of this fiscal impact in the Fiscal Year 2015 budget they passed. As with many of the tax measures passed by the legislature on the last day of session, this provision was not the subject of a public hearing in any Senate committee.

This provision would enable a business with significant tax delinquencies to get a tax refund for an unrelated overpayment of tax, where under current law the refund could be offset by the amount of tax delinquency. For example, under this provision even a business that owes $100,000 in back taxes would be able to get a refund check from the state for a $100,000 unintentional overpayment, so long as the $100,000 tax delinquency is subject to appeal. Under current law, the $100,000 refund would be offset by the entire $100,000 tax delinquency, thereby eliminating the need to later engage in costly and inefficient collection efforts to recover the $100,000 in overdue taxes. Such a change to the established refund process would unfairly reward those who fail to pay their taxes and would result in costly inefficiencies borne by all law-abiding taxpayers. Accordingly, this provision does not receive my support.

Corporate Income Allocation

Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 584 would enable additional businesses to reduce their corporate income taxes by utilizing an alternative method of calculating the amount of their income that is derived in Missouri. Legislation enacted last year authorized this alternative allocation method for manufacturers and other businesses selling tangible personal property. This provision would expand this alternative method to sellers of intangible personal property and service providers such as law firms, accounting firms, stock brokers, bond traders, real estate holding companies, and consultants.

Like many of the tax measures enacted during the final hours of the legislative session, this provision was never the subject of a public hearing and was not accounted for in the Fiscal Year 2015 budget passed by the General Assembly. A change to Missouri’s tax policy that would reduce state revenues by up to $15 million annually according to the legislature’s own estimate should be the subject of open debate, and the foregone revenue must be accounted for in the budget in order to receive my support.

Proving Eligibility for Tax Exemptions

<sup>6</sup> The cases abrogated or called into question by this provision include: Michael Jaudes Fitness Edge, Inc. v. Director of Revenue, 248 S.W.3d 606 (Mo. banc 2008) (fees paid for personal training subject to tax as fees paid in or to a place of amusement); Surrey's on the Plaza, Inc. v. Spradling, 551 S.W.2d 596 (Mo. banc 1977) (commercial bowling establishment is a place of amusement for sales tax purposes).

Not only would Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 584 create broad new tax exemptions, it would also excuse a business trying to claim these or any of the other 200 sales tax exemptions in current law from having to prove that it is actually eligible for the claimed exemption.

While I support eliminating the arbitrary limitation in current law that puts the burden of proof on some businesses but not others in determining tax liability, when it comes to someone trying to claim a tax exemption, they should at a minimum be required to show that they are entitled to it. Claiming a special carve-out or loophole without evidence to support it is unfair to the vast majority of Missouri taxpayers who lack the influence to get special tax exemptions crafted for them by the General Assembly. With the help of the legislature and the best accounting and legal advice, those fortunate enough to take advantage of special exemptions would now be given every incentive to push the outer boundaries of any exemptions that could conceivably apply, further eroding the tax base and shifting an even greater tax burden to the majority of taxpayers. Not content with merely showering the fortunate with a cavalcade of new tax breaks, the General Assembly has gone further to stack the deck in their favor by providing an added incentive to try on an exemption just to see if it fits. This is not a tax policy that I can support.

In accordance with the above-stated reasons for disapproval, I am returning Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 584 without my approval.

Jeremiah W. (Jay) Nixon

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI

Herewith I return to you Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 673 entitled:

AN ACT

To repeal sections 288.060, 288.122, and 288.330, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof three new sections relating to employment security.

I disapprove of Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 673. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 673 would reduce the benefits that an eligible claimant may receive under our state's unemployment benefits system. It would do so by replacing the maximum number of weeks of unemployment benefits that an eligible claimant can receive, which is currently 20 weeks, through a calculation indexed to the average statewide unemployment rate. Under this new calculation, claimants eligible for unemployment benefits would be limited to no more than 13 weeks of benefits if the average statewide unemployment rate were below 6%. Claimants could only receive the current maximum of 20 weeks of benefits if the statewide average unemployment rate were 9% or higher. This reduction in benefits would unfairly impact eligible claimants, have a disparate impact on regions of the state experiencing slower economic growth and impede economic recovery. This legislation is particularly unnecessary given that the state retired its unemployment trust fund obligations to the federal government last month.

The reduction to 13 weeks mandated under Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 673 would occur in a system that is hardly lucrative when measured against the rest of the country. Missouri's average weekly unemployment benefit amount is currently the 46th lowest in the nation. Missouri, at 20 weeks, is one of only eight states that pay less than the national norm of 26 weeks of benefits. If this legislation became law, Missouri, at 13 weeks, would have the third lowest benefit duration in the country, behind only Florida and North Carolina. Missouri's current unemployment benefits system is already among the most restrictive in the country. Measured against the status quo, therefore, the additional limitations mandated by Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 673 are clearly unnecessary.

Supporters of Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 673 claim the legislation is an attempt to address the solvency of the unemployment trust fund, and cite the state's debt to the federal government incurred to provide benefits during the most recent recession. The need underpinning their purported solution, however, no longer exists. As noted above, last month, the state repaid its obligations to the federal government, and this legislation would do little to curtail the need to borrow during future economic downturns.

Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 673 also fails to take into account regional disparities in unemployment rates with a one size fits all approach that would reduce the duration of benefits based on a statewide average rate, while ignoring unique local economic conditions. For example, in February 2014, the unemployment rate for the state was 6.4%, while at the same time ten Missouri counties had an unemployment rate of 10% or higher. Indexing the duration of unemployment benefits to a statewide rate would result in significant reductions in benefits for unemployed individuals in areas of the state with much higher unemployment rates, and would dramatically slow the recovery in those regions. If a large local employer had massive layoffs or ceased operations, the impact to the county or region's unemployment rate could be profound without materially increasing the statewide rate. In such a situation, the number of unemployed in the affected county or region could far exceed the number of jobs available in the area. Those unemployed individuals would be faced with less time for benefits to assist them while searching for gainful employment in an extremely competitive market saturated with more unemployed individuals than available jobs.

Lastly, Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 673 would render Missouri's unemployment benefits system unable to respond to sudden spikes in unemployment often accompanying economic downturns. The bill would base current benefits on previous economic conditions. The duration of benefits reduced under Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 673 would apply to all unemployed individuals in the state for an entire year based upon a snapshot of the statewide average unemployment rate taken during the third quarter of the previous calendar year. This would minimize the ability of the unemployment system to help stabilize the economy in instances where dramatic increases in unemployment occur in the first or second quarter of the calendar year. Under such circumstances, the duration of benefits, pegged at the previous year's calculated rate, would remain unchanged and artificially low despite the increase in unemployment.

In accordance with the above stated reasons for disapproval, I am returning Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 673 without my approval.

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI

Herewith I return to you Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 841 entitled:

AN ACT

To repeal sections 407.925, 407.926, 407.927, 407.929, 407.931, 407.933, and 407.934, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof seven new sections relating to alternative nicotine or vapor products, with penalty provisions.

I disapprove of Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 841. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 841 would exclude "alternative nicotine products" and "vapor products" – including "electronic cigarettes" – from the definition of "tobacco products" and prohibit them from being regulated or taxed as "tobacco products" under Missouri law. This bill, which is supported by sellers of such products and at least one major tobacco manufacturer but is opposed by leading health organizations, creates a façade of regulation and is actually harmful to Missourians because of the special exemptions it provides for these dangerous products. As a result, it does not meet with my approval.

"Electronic cigarettes" are nicotine delivery devices that resemble traditional tobacco cigarettes in appearance, use and function, and share a signature ingredient – the highly addictive chemical nicotine, which is derived from tobacco. Electronic cigarettes typically consist of a cartridge and battery that deliver nicotine to users by heating a liquid solution containing propylene glycol (which can cause eye and respiratory irritation), glycerine, flavoring agents, and nicotine. This process creates a nicotine-infused aerosol that, similar to tobacco smoke from traditional tobacco cigarettes, the smoker inhales and exhales. Studies have also noted the presence of formaldehyde (a known carcinogen) and acetaldehyde (a possible carcinogen) in the aerosol. Electronic cigarettes are frequently marketed and branded with names reflecting flavors added to the nicotine aerosol. Though electronic cigarettes are relatively new, having been patented in 2003 by a Chinese pharmacist and sold in the United States only since 2007, they are growing in popularity with sales projected to top $1.5 billion in the United States this year. These electronic cigarettes are increasingly manufactured by big tobacco companies.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> The bill also encompasses other relatively new "alternative nicotine products" such as flavored dissolvable pellets or flat strips containing ground tobacco.

Because Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 841 would limit any additional state regulation of these products and would contravene pending federal regulations, it does not receive my approval.

First, Missouri law should not limit the regulation of products derived from tobacco that contain a highly addictive chemical and carcinogenic, noxious chemicals. Not unlike traditional tobacco cigarettes, these products may carry significant health risks to users and others through direct and secondhand inhalation in a manner not unlike traditional tobacco cigarettes. Leading health organizations oppose Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 841, including the American Cancer Society; the American Lung Association; the American Heart Association; the Missouri State Medical Association; the Missouri Association of Osteopathic Physicians; the Missouri Academy of Family Physicians; the Campaign for Tobacco-Free Kids; and Tobacco Free Missouri, and for good reasons. Through direct and secondhand exposure, e-cigarette smokers inhale an aerosol containing nicotine, which is addictive and derived from tobacco; propylene glycol, which can cause eye and respiratory irritation; and also likely formaldehyde, a known carcinogen, and acetaldehyde, a possible carcinogen. Studies have also found the presence of heavy metal particles such as tin, nickel, copper, lead and chromium in the aerosol, which can deposit in smokers' lungs and cause respiratory problems. A 2009 FDA study also detected the presence of diethylene glycol, a toxic chemical commonly used in antifreeze, in e-cigarette samples. These products are barely a decade old, and their sales are skyrocketing. We should not enact an outright ban on regulating and taxing as "tobacco products" these tobacco-derived products that contain harmful substances, including carcinogens, particularly when the short and long-term health risks of these products are still being evaluated. The special treatment for these tobacco-derived products provided in Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 841 would validate the as yet unproven claim that they are safer than traditional tobacco products.

Second, Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 841 would harm the health of Missourians because it would contravene and undermine more comprehensive proposed federal regulation. Unlike Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill 841, federal FDA regulations proposed earlier this year would classify electronic cigarettes and similar nicotine products as "tobacco products." The proposed FDA rules would prohibit sales to minors (as would this bill), but, unlike Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 841, would also require electronic cigarette manufacturers to provide health warnings; register with the FDA and report product and ingredient listings; market new products only after FDA review; make claims of reduced risk only if the FDA concludes that there is supporting scientific evidence and that marketing the product will benefit public health; not distribute free samples; and not sell in vending machines, unless in locations off limits to youths. Considering that these products contain the tobacco derivative and highly addictive chemical compound nicotine, mimic traditional tobacco cigarettes in use, appearance, and function, pose significant health risks that are still being evaluated, and are increasingly manufactured by big tobacco companies, regulating them as traditional tobacco products, as the FDA is proposing, does not seem unreasonable.

Proponents of Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 841 tout its ban on sales to minors, but the proposed FDA regulations also ban sales to minors. In light of this ban in the FDA regulations, the primary and more significant consequence of Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 841 is its limitation on additional regulations. I would support legislation banning sales to minors and classifying these products as "tobacco products" as appropriate first steps in state regulation without impeding additional federal regulation, but I will not support the false pretense of reform and circumvention of more stringent federal regulation that would result from Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 841.

As noted above, leading health organizations uniformly oppose this bill. By contrast, manufacturers of alternative nicotine products, sellers of such products, and at least one major tobacco manufacturer are supporters of the bill. At a minimum, prohibiting the regulation and taxation as "tobacco products" of products that are derived from tobacco is premature and would create uncertainty around the proposed FDA regulations. At worst, this prohibition may be part of a larger strategy by the tobacco industry to stop the implementation of the FDA regulations or ensnare them in protracted litigation. Whether Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 841 is merely premature or instead motivated by more insidious reasons, the bill is harmful to the health of Missourians.

In accordance with the above stated reasons for disapproval, I am returning Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 841 without my approval.

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI

Herewith I return to you Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 860 entitled:

AN ACT

To repeal sections 143.221, 144.044, 144.049, 144.080, and 144.190, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof six new sections relating to taxation, with an existing penalty provision.

I disapprove of Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 860. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 860 would continue a damaging trend by the General Assembly to enact special tax exemptions and credits that pick winners and losers through the tax code and shift a greater proportion of the tax burden to the majority of Missourians unable to utilize such loopholes. Not a penny of the special breaks in this bill or in the others that I am vetoing today<sup>1</sup> was taken into account in the Fiscal Year 2015 budget passed by the General Assembly, leaving it significantly out of balance and requiring swift action to protect the State's fiscal well-being. This is fiscally irresponsible and cannot receive my support.

In enacting Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 860 and its brethren in the final hours of the legislative session, the General Assembly disregarded the normal legislative process, slipping in costly provisions without public hearings and without fiscal notes reflecting the impact on the state budget. And just as legislators ignored the legislative process, so too did they disregard the budget process by passing a budget just a week earlier that failed to account for this final day spending spree. Unlike the fiscal impact of Senate Substitute No. 3 for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill Nos. 509 & 496, which today's lawmakers have conveniently foisted off on future budgets for education, public safety and other vital public services, the fiscal impact of the special breaks I am vetoing today would begin impacting budgets in the fiscal year starting in less than 30 days. There are no delays, triggers, or other gimmicks that could be touted as shielding education, public safety, and other vital public services, at both the state and local level, from the projected $776 million in state and local revenue legislators voted to send to narrow special interests on the last day of session. While the General Assembly may have abdicated its fiscal responsibilities in failing to account for this budgetary impact, the resulting imbalance cannot be ignored and will have to be corrected through dramatic spending reductions.

Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 860 and the other measures I am vetoing today would add to the more than 260 sales tax exemptions and tax credits that litter Missouri's tax code without requiring the creation of a single new job. The continued erosion of the tax base through such individualized exemptions and credits violates well-established principles of sound tax policy calling for a broad tax base so that tax rates can remain low. The General Assembly has ignored repeated calls to reduce these costly and inefficient carve-outs and has instead rushed through many more, leaving Missouri families to pick up the tab for education and other vital public services.

The unabated growth of such special carve-outs and the fiscal irresponsibility of failing to budget for them are all the more troubling when the General Assembly is simultaneously seeking to raise taxes on all Missourians with what could be the largest tax hike in Missouri history. While the benefits of the more than one billion dollars in annual tax breaks passed by the legislature over the past two months will go disproportionately to the wealthy, the burden of this multi-billion dollar tax increase for transportation would fall disproportionately on Missouri's working families and seniors.

Throughout my time as Governor, I have worked with legislators on fiscally responsible ways to improve our tax code while protecting our state's fiscal health, including the four tax cuts that I have signed into law. Even during this legislative session, I worked directly with legislators to put forward a specific, concrete proposal that would have lowered taxes for Missourians and reined in costly and inefficient tax credits for special interests, broadening the overall tax base and reducing tax rates, while protecting our ability to invest in education and other vital public services. Unfortunately, the General Assembly refused to enact this broad tax relief in favor of narrow giveaways like those contained in Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 860 and the other bills I am vetoing today. For the reasons stated herein, this is an endeavor I cannot support.

Tax Refunds to Delinquent Taxpayers

Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 860 would modify the established process for obtaining a sales tax refund by allowing a refund even when a taxpayer currently has overdue taxes. This provision is projected to reduce state and local revenue by up to $10 million annually, although the General Assembly failed to account for any of this fiscal impact in the Fiscal Year 2015 budget they passed. As with many of the tax measures passed by the legislature on the last day of session, this provision was not the subject of a public hearing in any Senate committee.

This provision would enable a business with significant tax delinquencies to get a tax refund for an unrelated overpayment of tax, where under current law the refund could be offset by the amount of tax delinquency. For example, under this provision even a business that owes $100,000 in back taxes would be able to get a refund check from the state for a $100,000 unintentional overpayment, so long as the $100,000 tax delinquency is subject to appeal. Under current law, the $100,000 refund would be offset by the entire $100,000 tax delinquency, thereby eliminating the need to later engage in costly and inefficient collection efforts to recover the $100,000 in overdue taxes. Such a change to the established refund process would unfairly reward those who fail to pay their taxes and would result in costly inefficiencies borne by all law-abiding taxpayers. Accordingly, this provision does not receive my support.

Sales Tax Holiday Expansion

Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 860 expands the back-to-school sales tax holiday by adding graphing calculators to the list of items that can be purchased tax-free. This expansion is projected to reduce state revenue by as much as $200,000 annually, which the General Assembly failed to account for in the Fiscal Year 2015 budget they passed. Like many of the tax provisions passed during the final day of session, this provision was not the subject of a public hearing in any Senate committee. Because Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 860 expands the current sales tax holiday without the General Assembly accounting for the accompanying revenue reduction in the budget they enacted, this expansion does not receive my approval.

In accordance with the above-stated reasons for disapproval, I am returning Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 860 without my approval.

Sincerely,
Jeremiah W. (Jay) Nixon
Governor

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI

Herewith I return to you Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 866 entitled:

AN ACT

To amend chapter 408, RSMo, by adding thereto one new section relating to installment loan lenders.

I disapprove of Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 866. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 866 would create a new term to describe a short-term lender not licensed as a bank or credit union—a “traditional installment lender”—and would restrict the authority of local governments with respect to such entities. Because this change would unduly interfere with local control, the bill does not receive my approval.

The new classification “traditional installment lenders” sought to be established in Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 866 would cover two types of consumer lenders licensed by the state—consumer installment lenders and small loan companies. Small loan companies can make loans of $500 and over, while consumer installment lenders can make loans of any amount, but the loans must be repaid in at least four installments over at least 120 days. There are no restrictions on the interest consumer installment lenders or small loan companies can impose and just last year the General Assembly increased the maximum amount of origination fees consumer installment lenders and small loan companies can charge. See Senate Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 329 (2013).

A number of Missouri municipalities have enacted ordinances that impose zoning, permitting, and other restrictions on short-term, small loan lenders.<sup>1</sup> For example, the City of Kansas City enacted an ordinance in 2007 regulating “short-term loan establishments” and broadened its ordinance in 2011 to specifically regulate consumer installment lenders. Kansas City was able to successfully defend this ordinance against court challenge brought by one of the regulated lenders. Perhaps recognizing this legislation as an assault on their authority to maintain this ordinance, the City of Kansas City was able to obtain a carve-out from the restrictions of this bill.

Unfortunately, the rest of Missouri’s political subdivisions were not so fortunate, since Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 866 would preempt any existing charter provision or ordinance that does not “expressly apply” to “traditional installment lenders” as of August 28, 2014. Because this bill would also be creating the new label of “traditional installment lenders,” it is highly unlikely that any current ordinances or charter provisions “expressly apply” to such newly-christened lenders. Moreover, Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 866 would also prevent communities from modifying current ordinances or charter provisions to address this type of lender in the future because such ordinances or charter provisions would not have been in effect prior to the effective date of the bill.

Because it would erode local control in areas such as zoning that fall squarely fall within the traditional police powers of local communities, Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 866 does not receive my approval.

In accordance with the above stated reasons for disapproval, I am returning Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 866 without my approval.

Respectfully submitted,
Jeremiah W. (Jay) Nixon
Governor

<sup>1</sup> Communities such as Arnold, Bellefontaine Neighbors, Berkeley, Blue Springs, Independence, Kansas City, St. Ann, St. Louis, and Valley Park have enacted such ordinances that could be preempted under this bill.

Herewith I return to you Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 593 entitled:

AN ACT

To repeal section 115.124, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof two new sections relating to nonpartisan elections.

I disapprove of Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 593. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 593 would authorize municipalities with 1,000 or fewer residents to cancel an election if the number of candidates that initially filed for office is equal to the number of vacancies to be filled for the office. To take advantage of this authority, the municipality’s voters must approve a ballot measure and then renew the authority by a public vote every six years.

Like legislation I have vetoed in the past, Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 593 would limit the rights of Missouri citizens to support write-in candidates and therefore does not receive my approval. The previously-vetoed Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 282 (2011) contained a provision cancelling elections in municipalities with populations of less than 35,000, which would have affected more than 900 Missouri municipalities. My veto message pointed out that cancelling an election when the number of candidates is equal to the number of available positions would preclude citizens from electing a candidate through the write-in process, which is particularly important when voters learn something negative about the declared candidate after the deadline for filing but before the election.

Although somewhat improved by virtue of the public vote to authorize and reauthorize the option to cancel elections, Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 593 contains the same infirmity presented by Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 282 (2011) with respect to write-in candidates. Write-in candidates do not have to file until the Wednesday before the election, but they would no longer be able to do so in the more than 650 Missouri municipalities affected by this bill, even if negative information about the unopposed candidate came to light prior to the election but after regular candidate filing had closed. Moreover, the small municipalities covered by this provision are precisely the communities in which write-in candidates are the most likely to succeed. Because I support the rights of citizens to elect write-in candidates I do not support this bill.

In accordance with the above stated reasons for disapproval, I am returning Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 593 without my approval.

Herewith I return to you Senate Bill No. 523 entitled:

AN ACT

To amend chapter 167, RSMo, by adding thereto one new section relating to the use of radio frequency identification technology in school districts.

I disapprove of Senate Bill No. 523. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

Senate Bill No. 523 is the latest effort by the General Assembly to erode the ability of local school officials to determine what is best for their school districts, students and staff. This legislation would ban a school district from requiring a student to use an identification device that employs radio frequency identification technology “or similar technology” unless there is “physical contact between a card, badge, or tag and another device.”

Local school officials are in the best position to determine the appropriate use of this technology within their school districts. Indeed, the technology sought to be banned could be a significant public safety tool during emergency situations. Quickly identifying the location of students during a critical incident unfolding at a school or during a natural disaster is vitally important to law enforcement and first responders. Prohibiting the use of this technology would eliminate an important option for school districts to consider when analyzing measures to protect the safety and security of their students.

In addition, the vague language used in Senate Bill No. 523 fails to distinguish between active radio frequency identification technology, which continuously transmits information, and passive radio frequency identification technology, which does not, or to indicate whether such technology must be directly assigned to an individual student. As a result, the ban contained in Senate Bill No. 523 could prohibit tags placed in laptops, iPads, or other devices assigned to a student that would be tracked when brought through a fixed portal or a hand-scanning device. It is inappropriate for the state to impose restrictions such as those contained in Senate Bill No. 523 upon local education leaders. On issues such as this, local officials should be permitted to have open and robust discussions with school staff, parents and other interested stakeholders and implement programs determined to be the most appropriate for their districts. Local school officials are in the best position to make such decisions, and I will stand with them by not approving Senate Bill No. 523.

In accordance with the above stated reasons for disapproval, I am returning Senate Bill No. 523 without my approval.

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI

Herewith I return to you Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 656 entitled:

AN ACT

To repeal sections 21.750, 84.340, 571.030, 571.101, 571.107, 571.111, 571.117, 575.153, 590.010, and 590.205, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof sixteen new sections relating to firearms, with penalty provisions.

I disapprove of Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 656. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 656 would allow Missouri school districts to designate teachers or administrators as “school protection officers,” who would be authorized to carry concealed firearms within those districts. I have consistently opposed the arming of teachers as a means to keep schools safe. It is simply the wrong approach, and one that I do not support.

The safety of Missourians – especially children – has long been a top priority of mine, both as Governor and as the former chief law enforcement officer of our state. I have supported, and will continue to support, the use of duly authorized law enforcement officers employed as school resource officers in schools. This bill, which would create a new mechanism for the arming of teachers, would not make schools safer. Consequently, I am returning it without my approval.

In accordance with the above stated reasons for disapproval, I am returning Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 656 without my approval.

Respectfully submitted,
Jeremiah W. (Jay) Nixon

Herewith I return to you House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill 506 entitled:

AN ACT

To repeal sections 144.010, 262.900, 265.300, 267.565, 275.352, 277.020, 277.040, 281.065, 304.180, 340.381, 340.396, 442.571, and 537.325, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof seventeen new sections relating to agriculture.

I disapprove of House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 506. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 506 would redefine the term “livestock” to include “captive cervids,” which are members of the deer family, including white-tailed deer. These changes would eliminate the role of the Missouri Department of Conservation in regulating white-tailed deer. Because doing so would be at odds with longstanding successful conservation practices and would violate the Missouri Constitution, this legislation does not receive my approval.

For more than 75 years, the Missouri Department of Conservation has restored and protected Missouri’s forest, fish, and wildlife resources. The Department has created countless opportunities for Missourians to enjoy the outdoors, while also making Missouri a national leader in conservation. In 1934, before Missourians voted by more than a two-thirds majority to establish the Conservation Commission in the Missouri Constitution, Missouri had less than 2,000 white-tailed deer. Today, Missouri has an estimated 1.3 million white-tailed deer. Each fall, half-a-million hunters go afield to harvest deer in Missouri, contributing $1 billion to our economy. Growing and managing our deer herd and fostering the hunting opportunities that we enjoy takes hard work and sound science, and the Department of Conservation should be commended for employing both to preserve this important part of our heritage, not stripped of its authority to do so in order to protect narrow interests. House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 506 also does not receive my support because it very clearly violates the Missouri Constitution. Article IV, Section 40(a) of the Missouri Constitution vests the Missouri Conservation Commission with the exclusive authority for:

The control, management, restoration, conservation, and regulation of the bird fish, game, forestry and all wildlife resources of the state, including hatcheries, sanctuaries, refuges, reservations and all other property owned, acquired, or used for such purposes and the acquisition and establishment thereof.

White-tailed deer are wildlife, and they are also a game animal. Putting them behind a fence does not change that fact. The Constitution makes clear that the Conservation Commission has the sole authority to control, manage, restore, conserve, and regulate “game ... and all wildlife” (emphasis added). The citizen-supported, citizen-led effort to conserve our forests, fish, and wildlife through this constitutional provision has in its more than 75 years made Missouri a national leader in conservation. And in granting the Commission this broad constitutional authority, the 71% of Missouri citizens who voted to do so certainly did not countenance that a statutory enactment to simply redefine the term “livestock” could suffice to undermine that authority.

I note that it is unfortunate that the legislature insisted on amending this unconstitutional provision to two pieces of legislation that otherwise contain worthy provisions advancing Missouri agriculture.

In accordance with the above stated reasons for disapproval, I am returning House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 506 without my approval.

Respectfully submitted,

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI

Herewith I return to you Conference Committee Substitute No. 2 for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 693 entitled:

AN ACT

To repeal sections 99.845, 135.700, 143.041, 143.071, 143.191, 143.451, 144.030, 144.044, 144.610, 285.230, 285.232, 285.233, and 285.234, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof twenty-two new sections relating to taxation, with existing penalty provisions.

I disapprove of Conference Committee Substitute No. 2 for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 693. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

Conference Committee Substitute No. 2 for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 693 would continue a damaging trend by the General Assembly to enact special tax exemptions and credits that pick winners and losers through the tax code and shift a greater proportion of the tax burden to the majority of Missourians unable to utilize such loopholes. Not a penny of the special breaks in this bill or in the others that I am vetoing today<sup>1</sup> was taken into account in the Fiscal Year 2015 budget passed by the General Assembly, leaving it significantly out of balance and requiring swift action to protect the State's fiscal well-being. This is fiscally irresponsible and cannot receive my support.

In enacting Conference Committee Substitute No. 2 for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 693 and its brethren in the final hours of the legislative session, the General Assembly disregarded the normal legislative process, slipping in costly provisions without public hearings and without fiscal notes reflecting the impact on the state budget. And just as legislators ignored the legislative process, so too did they disregard the budget process by passing a budget just a week earlier that failed to account for this final day spending spree. Unlike the fiscal impact of Senate Substitute No. 3 for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill Nos. 509 & 496, which today's lawmakers have conveniently foisted off on future budgets for education, public safety and other vital public services, the fiscal impact of the special breaks I am vetoing today would begin impacting budgets in the fiscal year starting in less than 30 days. There are no delays, triggers, or other gimmicks that could be touted as shielding education, public safety, and other vital public services, at both the state and local level,<sup>2</sup> from the projected $776 million in state and local revenue legislators voted to send to narrow special interests on the last day of session. While the General Assembly may have abdicated its fiscal responsibilities in failing to account for this budgetary impact, the resulting imbalance cannot be ignored and will have to be corrected through dramatic spending reductions.

Conference Committee Substitute No. 2 for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 693 and the other measures I am vetoing today would add to the more than 260 sales tax exemptions and tax credits that litter Missouri's tax code without requiring the creation of a single new job. The continued erosion of the tax base through such individualized exemptions and credits violates well-established principles of sound tax policy calling for a broad tax base so that tax rates can remain low. The General Assembly has ignored repeated calls to reduce these costly and inefficient carve-outs and has instead rushed through many more, leaving Missouri families to pick up the tab for education and vital public <sup>2</sup> In addition to impacting the general local sales tax imposed under Section 32.085, exemptions from local sales tax would reduce revenue collected through numerous voter-approved local sales taxes that are targeted to specific, community supported needs. Examples include the County Anti-Drug Sales Tax, Sections 67.391, 67.392, RSMo; County Construction Sales Tax, Sections 67.550, 67.590, RSMo; Museums and Festivals Sales Tax, Sections 67.571, 67.578, RSMo; Law Enforcement Services Sales Tax, Sections 67.582, 67.584, 92.500, RSMo; Capital Improvements Sales Tax, Sections 67.700, 67.730, 94.577, 94.578, 94.890, RSMo; Storm Water Control and Public Works Sales Tax, Sections 67.701, 67.729, 94.413, RSMo; Public Recreation Projects and Programs Sales Tax, Sections 67.745, 67.782, RSMo; Regional Recreation Districts Sales Tax, Section 67.799, RSMo; Perry County Senior Services and Youth Programs Sales Tax, Section 67.997, RSMo; Economic Development Sales Tax, Sections 67.1300, 67.1303, 67.1305, 94.1008, 94.1010, 94.1012, RSMo; Community Improvement Districts Sales Tax, Section 67.1545, RSMo; Metropolitan Parks and Recreation Districts Sales Tax, Section 67.1712, RSMo; Children's Services Sales Tax, Section 67.1775, RSMo; Water Quality, Tourism, and Infrastructure Sales Tax, Section 67.1922, RSMo; Tourism Community Enhancement Districts Sales Tax, Section 67.1959, RSMo; Exhibition Center and Recreational Facility Districts Sales Tax, Section 67.2000, RSMo; Tourism Promotion Sales Tax, Section 67.2030, RSMo; Construction of Women's and Children's Shelter Sales Tax, Section 67.2040, RSMo; Theater, Cultural Arts, and Entertainment Districts Sales Tax, Section 67.2530, RSMo; Parks, Trails, and Greenways Districts Sales Tax, Section 67.5012, RSMo; Mass Transit Sales Tax, Section 92.402, RSMo; Public Safety Sales Tax, Sections 94.579, 94.581, 94.900, 94.902, RSMo; Community Center Sales Tax, Section 94.585, RSMo; Transportation Sales Tax, Sections 94.605, 94.660, 94.705, RSMo; Historical Locations and Museums Sales Tax, Section 94.950, RSMo; Medical Care for the Medically Indigent Sales Tax, Section 94.1000, RSMo; Kansas City Zoological District Sales Tax, Sections 94.1000, 184.503, RSMo; Transportation Development District Sales Tax, Section 238.235, RSMo; County Transit Authority Sales Tax, Section 238.410, RSMo; and Storm Water Control and Parks Sales Tax, Section 644.032, RSMo.

The unabated growth of such special carve-outs and the fiscal irresponsibility of failing to budget for them are all the more troubling when the General Assembly is simultaneously seeking to raise taxes on all Missourians with what could be the largest tax hike in Missouri history. While the benefits of the more than one billion dollars in annual tax breaks passed by the legislature over the past two months will go disproportionately to the wealthy, the burden of this multi-billion dollar tax increase for transportation would fall disproportionately on Missouri's working families and seniors.

The special breaks in Conference Committee Substitute No. 2 for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 693 and the other bills that I am vetoing today are not the mere clarifications that their supporters claim. Instead, they seek to overrule no fewer than twenty Missouri Supreme Court cases going back to 1977 that have been followed by the department of revenue over the course of previous and current administrations. In nearly every one of the cases sought to be overturned, the court ruled that the law enacted by the General Assembly required a tax to be collected, notwithstanding that a particular businesses had hoped to be excused from the legal obligations we all share. While it is well within the rights of a losing litigant to petition their elected representatives, it is wholly disingenuous to call doing so here anything other than what it is—seeking a special exemption from the law, as currently written and as confirmed by the courts.

Throughout my time as Governor, I have worked with legislators on fiscally responsible ways to improve our tax code while protecting our state's fiscal health, including the four tax cuts that I have signed into law. Even during this legislative session, I worked directly with legislators to put forward a specific, concrete proposal that would have lowered taxes for Missourians and reined in costly and inefficient tax credits for special interests, broadening the overall tax base and reducing tax rates, while protecting our ability to invest in education and other vital public services. Unfortunately, the General Assembly refused to enact this broad tax relief in favor of narrow giveaways like those contained in Conference Committee Substitute No. 2 for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 693 and the other bills I am vetoing today. For the reasons stated herein, this is an endeavor I cannot support.

Special Exemption for Used Cars

Conference Committee Substitute No. 2 for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 693 exempts used cars that are 10-years or older from sales tax when the sale price is less than $15,000. According to the legislature's own estimate, this provision would reduce state and local revenues by as much as $60 million annually, with more than $30 million annually in reduced revenue for highways and $26 million annually in reduced revenue for local jurisdictions.<sup>3</sup> Not only would this revenue reduction impact the amount of state and local highway maintenance and construction that can be undertaken, it could also jeopardize matching federal highway funds and make it more difficult to cover debt service on previously issued bonds to finance state and local road and bridge projects. With the average age of vehicles on America's roads increasing to 11.4 years, the number of vehicles subject to this exemption and the corresponding impact to state and local revenue is likely to increase over time.<sup>4</sup>

I cannot support a new sales tax exemption that would drain funding for transportation at the very same time the General Assembly is asking Missourians to foot the bill on a $6 billion sales tax increase to fund transportation needs. By passing this legislation and voting to put a sales tax increase for transportation on the ballot, the General Assembly is with one hand doling out special breaks that would directly and permanently reduce funding for roads, while with the other hand reaching into the pockets of every Missourian for more road funding. This is poor fiscal policy and poor tax policy, and therefore does not receive my approval.

Conference Committee Substitute No. 2 for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 693 has a number of additional problems that prevent it from receiving my signature. First, it fails to treat similarly-situated taxpayers similarly, instead picking as winners the purchasers of certain used cars based on the age of the vehicle and its sale price, while leaving all remaining purchasers in the dust. In addition, the limitation to vehicles 10-years or older and with a sale price of $15,000 or less is an arbitrary cut-off that will lead to absurd results. For example, there is no sound economic or policy reason for why a nine year-old vehicle that costs $14,999 or an 11-year old vehicle that costs $15,001 is any more or less deserving of a tax exemption than the vehicles covered by this bill. These are precisely the kind of problems created with special carve-outs that pick winners and losers based on arbitrary distinctions rather than sound tax or economic policy.

In addition, as drafted this exemption is ripe for abuse and can easily be manipulated to avoid or reduce taxes on purchases not intended for the exemption. For example, current law allows the seller of a vehicle to use the vehicle's sales price as a credit toward the purchase price of a subsequent vehicle in determining the tax due on the purchase.<sup>5</sup> With the new exemption in Conference Committee Substitute No. 2 for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 693, used car dealers could set up straw transactions to sell used cars older than 10 years to their customers and then take those same cars as trade-ins toward newer cars, which would allow their customers to reduce or avoid paying altogether the tax on the newer car purchase. That this may be an unintended consequence of the legislation does not make its impact on state and local budgets any less real or immediate.

<sup>3</sup> The $26 million annual reduction in local revenue from this provision is not dissimilar to the local revenue loss that was anticipated as a result of local jurisdictions no longer being able to collect tax on out-of-state vehicle purchases following the decision in Street v. Director of Revenue, 361 S.W.3d 355, 356 (Mo. banc 2012). It is puzzling that after passing legislation to prevent this anticipated loss of local tax revenue last year, the General Assembly would turn around the very next year and pass legislation to drain a similar amount of revenue from those same local jurisdictions.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of law to the contrary, in any retail sale . . . where any article on which sales or use tax has been paid, credited, or otherwise satisfied or which was exempted or excluded from sales or use tax is taken in trade as a credit or part payment on the purchase price of the article being sold, the tax imposed by sections 144.020 and 144.440 shall be computed only on that portion of the purchase price which exceeds the actual allowance made for the article traded in or exchanged . . . This section shall also apply to motor vehicles . . . sold by the owner or holder of the properly assigned certificate of ownership if the seller purchases or contracts to purchase a subsequent motor vehicle . . . within one hundred eighty days before or after the date of the sale of the original article and a bill of sale showing the paid sale price is presented to the department of revenue at the time of licensing. . . .

Special Exemption for Personal Seat Licenses

Conference Committee Substitute No. 2 for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 693 would exempt from tax a right of first refusal for tickets sold at the Sprint Center in Kansas City. As with the other new exemptions enacted in this and similar bills, the General Assembly failed to account for the fiscal impact of this exemption in the Fiscal Year 2015 budget they enacted. It is unclear why this activity should receive a new special tax exemption, and it is even more unclear why the General Assembly would pass a special law, potentially violating the Missouri Constitution, in order to effectuate it. Unfortunately, because this provision never received a public hearing, the answer remains as elusive as my support.

Expansion of the Wine & Grape Tax Credit

Conference Committee Substitute No. 2 for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 693 would expand the Wine and Grape Production Tax Credit by making purchases of used equipment eligible for the credit. The General Assembly failed to account for the estimated $125,000 reduction in state revenue from this expansion in the Fiscal Year 2015 budget they passed.

Beginning more than 160 years ago, Missouri's wine industry has grown to more than 120 wineries generating $1.6 billion annually in economic impact. It is difficult to believe that the continued success of this thriving industry depends on the expansion of this relatively modest government subsidy. While the wine industry has a tremendous positive economic impact for the state, the Wine and Grape Production Tax Credit fails to generate a positive return, with the most recent cost benefit analysis indicating that for every dollar in tax credits issued, the state could expect to receive just 3 cents in general revenue return. The lack of a positive return on investment is what prompted the bipartisan Tax Credit Review Commission to call for the outright elimination of the credit.

Unlike other tax credits enacted or reauthorized this legislative session, this expansion of the Wine and Grape Production Tax Credit would not make it subject to appropriation or restructure it in a way that would make it revenue-neutral. Instead, Conference Committee Substitute No. 2 for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 693 would simply broaden the activities eligible for the credit, thereby increasing the credit's cost and diverting additional funding from education and other vital public services, none of which was taken into account in the budget passed by the General Assembly. This is fiscally irresponsible and does not receive my support.

In accordance with the above-stated reasons for disapproval, I am returning Conference Committee Substitute No. 2 for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 693 without my approval.

Sincerely,
Jeremiah W. (Jay) Nixon
Governor

Herewith I return to you Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bills Nos. 493, 485, 495, 516, 534, 545, 595, 616 & 624 entitled:

AN ACT

To repeal 160.011, 160.041, 160.400, 160.405, 160.415, 160.417, 162.081, 162.1250, 163.021, 163.036, 163.073, 163.410, 167.121, 167.131, 171.029, 171.031, 171.033, 177.011, 177.088, and 210.861, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof forty-seven new sections relating to elementary and secondary education, with an emergency clause.

I disapprove of Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bills Nos. 493, 485, 495, 516, 534, 545, 595, 616 & 624. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bills Nos. 493, 485, 495, 516, 534, 545, 595, 616 & 624 is the legislature's attempt to create transfer solutions for students attending schools in unaccredited districts. Unfortunately, not only would Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bills Nos. 493, 485, 495, 516, 534, 545, 595, 616 & 624 not solve the school transfer problems it was intended to address, it would create new problems that exacerbate the hardships faced by the children who attend unaccredited schools.

Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bills Nos. 493, 485, 495, 516, 534, 545, 595, 616 & 624 would authorize the expenditure of public funds for the tuition of students who transfer from an unaccredited school in an unaccredited district in St. Louis, St. Louis County and Jackson County to private, nonsectarian schools located in the students' district of residence. Although proponents of this provision claim that only local tax dollars would be expended and that they would be expended only if approved by the district's voters, no such vote would be required after a district has been unaccredited for three years. Either with or without a vote, the result would be the same—public money would be diverted to private schools, in clear violation of the Missouri Constitution.<sup>1</sup> In addition, through its enactment of Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bills Nos. 493, 485, 495, 516, 534, 545, 595, 616 & 624, the General Assembly would extend this private school option without holding private schools responsible for how well they educate students. Unlike the accountability to taxpayers that locally elected school boards provide, this scheme for directing public funds to private schools would come with no such protection. Private schools do not have to answer to voters, their leadership does not have to stand for election or re-election, and their budgets are not transparent to allow public scrutiny. Accordingly, public funds should not be diverted to private schools.

In a particularly cruel reversal of existing law, Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bills Nos. 493, 485, 495, 516, 534, 545, 595, 616 & 624 would also eliminate the current requirement that unaccredited districts pay for the transportation costs of transfers. This policy would be grossly unfair to the hundreds of families whose children transferred to accredited districts during the most recent school year with the understanding that their future transportation costs would be paid by the unaccredited, sending district. In this way, Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bills Nos. 493, 485, 495, 516, 534, 545, 595, 616 & 624 would pull the rug out from under these families by eliminating the current obligation to pay for their school transportation costs.

Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bills Nos. 493, 485, 495, 516, 534, 545, 595, 616 & 624 would also allow receiving districts to discount the tuition paid for transfers in exchange for not having to consider those students' performance data for accountability purposes for up to five years. Enshrining this cynical bargain in law shortchanges the very transfer students whose educational struggles this legislation was purported to help. This discount would allow districts to discard the transfer students they accept and not be held accountable for how they educate these students. As an example, consider transfers by high school students—a receiving district that accepted these students and extended a 30% tuition discount would never need to account for their academic performance on the district's Annual Performance Report.

Unrelated to the school transfer problem it purports to address, Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bills Nos. 493, 485, 495, 516, 534, 545, 595, 616 & 624 also includes a provision very similar to the one I vetoed in Senate Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1789 (2012). This provision would deviate from the well-established procedure for assigning a student to another school district if the student's residence is located so as to create an unusual or unreasonable transportation hardship. A similar provision did not meet my approval in 2012 and neither does this one.

In accordance with the above-stated reasons for disapproval, I am returning Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bills Nos. 493, 485, 495, 516, 534, 545, 595, 616 & 624 without my approval.

Respectfully submitted,

GOVERNOR OF MISSOURI

JEFFERSON CITY

June 11, 2014

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI

Herewith I return to you House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 727 entitled:

AN ACT

To amend chapters 144 and 208, RSMo, by adding thereto three new sections relating to farmers' markets.

I disapprove of House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 727. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 727 would continue a damaging trend by the General Assembly to enact special tax exemptions and credits that pick winners and losers through the tax code and shift a greater proportion of the tax burden to the majority of Missourians unable to utilize such loopholes. Not a penny of the special breaks in this bill or in the others that I am vetoing today<sup>1</sup> was taken into account in the Fiscal Year 2015 budget passed by the General Assembly, leaving it significantly out of balance and requiring swift action to protect the State's fiscal well-being. This is fiscally irresponsible and cannot receive my support.

House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 727 contains a number of provisions that could become law with my action on other legislation. However, I cannot support adding to the more than 200 sales tax exemptions in current law that divert funding from education, public safety, and other vital public services, particularly when the General Assembly has failed to account for it in the budget they passed.

House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 727 would provide a new exemption from state and local taxes for sales of farm products at a farmers' market by entities who estimate that their annual farmers' market sales will be less than $25,000. This means that entities who estimate that their annual farmers' market sales will be $25,000 or more would be subject to state and local tax. The sale of agricultural products grown in Missouri as well as those grown in other states would be subject to the exemption.

This provision, as drafted, would create confusion among both sellers and customers at farmers' markets and lead to significant governmental intrusion into their affairs. First, the bill contains an arbitrary limitation as to who is eligible for the exemption and who would have to collect tax based solely on whether they estimate they will have more or less than $25,000 in farmers' markets sales. Thus, an individual who estimates sales of $24,999 would not have to collect tax, but an individual estimating a dollar more in sales would. This could result in a consumer paying sales tax on the corn they purchase at one booth, while buying the corn tax free at the booth right next door. In addition, whether the tax applies is based on estimated, rather than actual sales. This would mean that a seller with actual sales far in excess of the $25,000 limitation could continue to sell products tax-free, so long as they had previously "estimated" that their sales would be below the $25,000 threshold. For example, under the bill a seller who estimates $20,000 in sales but who actually has $30,000 would not have to collect taxes on any of their sales, while a seller who estimates their sales at $30,000 but has actual sales of just $20,000 would have to collect taxes.

The provision would also increase governmental intrusion in order to police the limitation for $25,000 in estimated annual sales. There is nothing in the bill directing how the estimated annual sales are to be derived, or to whom or how the required estimate is to be reported. Presumably, it will require all farmers' market sellers to complete paperwork and be subject to an audit of their sales information from at least the three previous years to determine the validity of the annual sales estimate. This would result in significant government access into otherwise private business information, which would appear inconsistent with the overall intent of this new exemption.

In accordance with the above-stated reasons for disapproval, I am returning House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 727 without my approval.

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI

Herewith I return to you Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 731 entitled:

AN ACT

To repeal sections 82.1025, 82.1027, 82.1028, 82.1029, and 82.1030, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof six new sections relating to property regulations in certain cities and counties.

I disapprove of Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 731. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 731 began as a well-meaning measure to provide additional tools for neighborhood organizations and property owners to hold negligent property owners accountable for diminished property values and unsafe conditions. However, an amendment added on the Senate floor would infringe upon private property rights by giving a broad new immunity for polluters creating environmental hazards and contamination that reduce nearby property values. For this reason, Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 731 does not receive my approval.

The Senate floor amendment to Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 731, added as section 1 to the bill, would provide:

No action shall be brought under section 82.1025 or sections 82.1027 to 82.1030 if the owner of the property that is the subject of the action is in good faith compliance with any order issued by the department of natural resources, the United States Environmental Protection Agency, or the office of attorney general.

(emphasis added). This broad immunity would bar statutory nuisance actions by private property owners and neighborhood organizations in the counties of Jefferson, Platte, Franklin, Cass, Clay, Cole, and Cape Girardeau, and the cities of Springfield, St. Louis and Kansas City in the circumstances outlined. This would diminish the rights of property owners under current law to hold someone accountable for actions that reduce property values and create hazards to health, safety and the environment. For example, assume private property owners in St. Louis County are attempting to bring a statutory nuisance action seeking damages from the owner of a landfill that is contaminating nearby properties, creating noxious fumes, and decreasing area property values. Although such an action might proceed under current law, this bill would prohibit it if the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), the Department of Natural Resources (DNR), or the Attorney General has ordered the landfill operator to clean up the contamination and the company is attempting to comply with that order.

Not only would this new immunity deprive private property owners of rights they enjoy under current law, its ambiguous wording would confer immunity even when the referenced government order does not apply to the property creating the nuisance. For example, assume DNR issues an order requiring a utility company to clean up contamination at a former facility in Randolph County. If the utility is complying with that clean-up order, this bill would also give the company immunity for operations creating a nuisance at its facilities in Franklin, St. Louis, Jefferson, Cape Girardeau, and Cole counties.

In addition, the ambiguous language of this immunity provision does not even require the party creating the nuisance to actually be in compliance with any of the referenced government orders. Instead, the immunity would be triggered upon “good faith,” as opposed to actual, compliance. This could prevent private property owners from bringing a statutory nuisance action even when the party creating the nuisance is currently violating a government order. For example, a quarry in Cape Girardeau could be violating a DNR order to control dust emissions contaminating nearby property, but under this bill adjoining property owners would be barred from bringing a statutory nuisance action to protect their property so long as the quarry is attempting, even if unsuccessfully, to comply with the DNR order. Similarly, a chemical company in Cass County attempting to comply with a DNR order to clean up hazardous waste on its property may be immune from suit even if contamination from the buried chemicals has migrated into the drinking water used by neighboring property owners.

Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 731 began with a noble purpose of strengthening the rights of property owners and neighborhood organizations, but the changes during the legislative process, particularly the Senate floor amendment providing a broad new immunity for those damaging the property of others, would move the state in the opposite direction. This I cannot support.

In accordance with the above stated reasons for disapproval, I am returning Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 731 without my approval.

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI

Herewith I return to you House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 508 entitled:

AN ACT

To repeal sections 43.530, 105.711, 208.631, 208.636, 208.640, 208.643, 208.646, and 376.2004, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof nine new sections relating to health insurance, with a penalty provision.

I disapprove of House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 508. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 508 contains a number of worthwhile provisions that can become law with my action on other legislation. However, this legislation does not receive my approval due to a significant drafting error.

House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 508 would impose additional restrictions on the licensure of an individual as a “navigator,” one who provides information or services in connection with eligibility, enrollment, or the program specifications of any health benefit exchange operating pursuant to the Affordable Care Act. Section 376.2004.6 of the bill would require an applicant for a navigator license to submit two full sets of fingerprints to the Missouri State Highway Patrol “for the purpose of obtaining a state and federal criminal records check under section 43.540 and Public Law 92-554 [sic].”

The bill’s reference to Public Law 92-554 should be to Public Law 92-544. This mistaken reference to Public Law 92-554, which deals with alcohol abuse and prevention, instead of to Public Law 92-544, which deals with federal criminal records, was included in model legislation developed by the American Legislative Exchange Council (ALEC) entitled the “Navigator Background Check Act,” which provides, in relevant part:

(4) The {insert state department of insurance} shall submit a full set of fingerprints to the {insert state department of public safety} for the purpose of obtaining a state and federal criminal records check pursuant to {insert relevant state criminal history records statute} and Public Law 92-554 [sic]. The {insert state department of insurance} shall not issue the registration if the person has been convicted of a felony offense or a misdemeanor offense involving fraud or dishonesty.<sup>1</sup>

It appears that in copying and pasting from this ALEC model act, the General Assembly failed to correct this incorrect reference to Public Law 92-554.<sup>2</sup> While some may believe that such an error is “close enough” for a model act, it cannot be allowed to become the law of this State. Particularly in an area of the law that is the subject of ongoing litigation, a glaring defect such as this cannot simply be ignored. Accordingly, this measure does not receive my approval.

In accordance with the above-stated reasons for disapproval, I am returning House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 508 without my approval.

Respectfully submitted,

<sup>2</sup> Some state legislatures that have considered similar navigator-related legislation derived from the ALEC model legislation have taken the opportunity to fix the incorrect reference from the ALEC model before enacting it. AN ACT

To repeal sections 8.597, 21.440, 21.445, 21.450, 21.455, 21.460, 21.465, 21.530, 21.535, 21.537, 21.795, 21.800, 21.801, 21.820, 21.835, 21.850, 21.910, 21.920, 30.953, 30.954, 30.956, 30.959, 30.962, 30.965, 30.968, 30.971, 33.150, 33.850, 37.250, 135.210, 135.230, 167.042, 167.195, 191.115, 191.934, 197.291, 208.952, 208.955, 210.153, 215.261, 215.262, 217.025, 217.550, 217.567, 262.950, 301.129, 313.001, 320.092, 338.321, 348.439, 361.120, 376.1190, 383.250, 386.145, 476.681, 620.050, 620.602, 620.1300, 630.010, 630.461, and 650.120, RSMo, section 105.955 as truly agreed to and finally passed by conference committee substitute no. 3 for house committee substitute no. 2 for senate bill no. 844, ninety-fifth general assembly, second regular session, section 208.275 as enacted by senate substitute for senate committee substitute for house committee substitute for house bill no. 555 merged with senate substitute no. 2 for house bill no. 648, ninety-sixth general assembly, first regular session, section 208.275 as enacted by senate committee substitute for house committee substitute for house bill no. 464, ninety-sixth general assembly, first regular session, and section 476.055 as enacted by conference committee substitute for house committee substitute for senate bill no. 636, ninety-sixth general assembly, second regular session, and to enact in lieu thereof twenty-one new sections relating to the existence of certain committees.

I disapprove of House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 575. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 575 contains a number of worthwhile provisions that can become law with my action on other legislation. However, this legislation does not receive my approval due to the inclusion of provisions limiting the requirement for actuarial analysis of health insurance benefit mandates and repealing the MO HealthNet Oversight Committee.

House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 575 would repeal the current requirement that an actuarial analysis be conducted on any proposed legislation imposing a new health insurance benefit mandate and replace it with a more modest requirement to perform an actuarial analysis only on health insurance mandates actually enacted by the General Assembly. In so limiting the requirement for an actuarial analysis, House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 575 thwarts the original intent of the law, which was to ensure that the General Assembly fully understood the fiscal impact of such mandates prior to their enactment. A measure such as this that would limit the information available to policymakers before they vote to impose a new mandate does not receive my support.

In addition, the MO HealthNet Oversight Committee consists of a bipartisan group of legislators and experienced Medicaid providers.

House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 575 would repeal the MO HealthNet Oversight Committee, while making permanent the Joint Committee on MO HealthNet, which is composed exclusively of legislators. The elimination of the MO HealthNet Oversight Committee would leave future responsibility for oversight of Missouri's Medicaid system without the benefit of formal representation by individuals with specialized expertise in the committee's subject matter. Oversight of a program of this significance should draw from the full spectrum of available resources and perspectives, rather than being limited to a select group of public officials.

In accordance with the above-stated reasons for disapproval, I am returning House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 575 without my approval.

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI

Herewith I return to you Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 612 entitled:

AN ACT

To repeal sections 143.183, 143.451, 144.021, and 144.054, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof four new sections relating to taxation.

I disapprove of Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 612. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 612 would continue a damaging trend by the General Assembly to enact special tax exemptions and credits that pick winners and losers through the tax code and shift a greater proportion of the tax burden to the majority of Missourians unable to utilize such loopholes. Not a penny of the special breaks in this bill or in the others that I am vetoing today<sup>1</sup> was taken into account in the Fiscal Year 2015 budget passed by the General Assembly, leaving it significantly out of balance and requiring swift action to protect the State's fiscal well-being. This is fiscally irresponsible and cannot receive my support.

In enacting and its brethren in the final hours of the legislative session, the General Assembly disregarded the normal legislative process, slipping in costly provisions without public hearings and without fiscal notes reflecting the impact on the state budget. And just as legislators ignored the legislative process, so too did they disregard the budget process by passing a budget just a week earlier that failed to account for this final day spending spree. Unlike the fiscal impact of Senate Substitute No. 3 for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill Nos. 509 & 496, which today's lawmakers have conveniently foisted off on future budgets for education, public safety and other vital public services, the fiscal impact of the special breaks I am vetoing today would begin impacting budgets in the fiscal year starting in less than 30 days. There are no delays, triggers, or other gimmicks that could be touted as shielding education, public safety, and other vital public services, at both the state and local level,<sup>2</sup> from the projected nearly $776 million in state and local revenue legislators voted to send to narrow special interests on the last day of session. While the General Assembly may have abdicated its fiscal responsibilities in failing to account for this budgetary impact, the resulting imbalance cannot be ignored and will have to be corrected through dramatic spending reductions.

<sup>2</sup> In addition to impacting the general local sales tax imposed under Section 32.085, exemptions from local sales tax would reduce revenue collected through numerous voter-approved local sales taxes that are targeted to specific, community supported needs. Examples include the County Anti-Drug Sales Tax, Sections 67.391, 67.392, RSMo; County Construction Sales Tax, Sections 67.550, 67.590, RSMo; Museums and Festivals Sales Tax, Sections 67.571, 67.578, RSMo; Law Enforcement Services Sales Tax, Sections 67.582, 67.584, 92.500, RSMo; Capital Improvements Sales Tax, Sections 67.700, 67.730, 94.577, 94.578, 94.890, RSMo; Storm Water Control and Public Works Sales Tax, Sections 67.701, 67.729, 94.413, RSMo; Public Recreation Projects and Programs Sales Tax, Sections 67.745, 67.782, RSMo; Regional Recreation Districts Sales Tax, Section 67.799, RSMo; Perry County Senior Services and Youth Programs Sales Tax, Section 67.997, RSMo; Economic Development Sales Tax, Sections 67.1300, 67.1303, 67.1305, 94.1008, 94.1010, 94.1012, RSMo; Community Improvement Districts Sales Tax, Section 67.1545, RSMo; Metropolitan Parks and Recreation Districts Sales Tax, Section 67.1712, RSMo; Children's Services Sales Tax, Section 67.1775, RSMo; Water Quality, Tourism, and Infrastructure Sales Tax, Section 67.1922, RSMo; Tourism Community Enhancement Districts Sales Tax, Section 67.1959, RSMo; Exhibition Center and Recreational Facility Districts Sales Tax, Section 67.2000, RSMo; Tourism Promotion Sales Tax, Section 67.2030, RSMo; Construction of Women's and Children's Shelter Sales Tax, Section 67.2040, RSMo; Theater, Cultural Arts, and Entertainment Districts Sales Tax, Section 67.2530, RSMo; Parks, Trails, and Greenways Districts Sales Tax, Section 67.5012, RSMo; Mass Transit Sales Tax, Section 92.402, RSMo; Public Safety Sales Tax, Sections 94.579, 94.581, 94.900, 94.902, RSMo; Community Center Sales Tax, Section 94.585, RSMo; Transportation Sales Tax, Sections 94.605, 94.660, 94.705, RSMo; Historical Locations and Museums Sales Tax, Section 94.950, RSMo; Medical Care for the Medically Indigent Sales Tax, Section 94.1000, RSMo; Kansas City Zoological District Sales Tax, Sections 94.1000, 184.503, RSMo; Transportation Development District Sales Tax, Section 238.235, RSMo; County Transit Authority Sales Tax, Section 238.410, RSMo; and Storm Water Control and Parks Sales Tax, Section 644.032, RSMo.

Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 612 and the other measures I am vetoing today would add to the more than 260 sales tax exemptions and tax credits that litter Missouri's tax code without requiring the creation of a single new job. The continued erosion of the tax base through such individualized exemptions and credits violates well-established principles of sound tax policy calling for a broad tax base so that tax rates can remain low. The General Assembly has ignored repeated calls to reduce these costly and inefficient carve-outs and has instead rushed through many more, leaving Missouri families to pick up the tab for education and vital public services.

The unabated growth of such special carve-outs and the fiscal irresponsibility of failing to budget for them are all the more troubling when the General Assembly is simultaneously seeking to raise taxes on all Missourians with what could be the largest tax hike in Missouri history. While the benefits of the more than one billion dollars in annual tax breaks passed by the legislature over the past two months will go disproportionately to the wealthy, the burden of this multi-billion dollar tax increase for transportation would fall disproportionately on Missouri's working families and seniors.

The special breaks in Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 612 and the other bills that I am vetoing today are not the mere clarifications that their supporters claim. Instead, they seek to overrule no fewer than twenty Missouri Supreme Court cases going back to 1977 that have been followed by the department of revenue over the course of previous and current administrations. In nearly every one of the cases sought to be overturned, the court ruled that the law enacted by the General Assembly required a tax to be collected, notwithstanding that a particular businesses had hoped to be excused from the legal obligations we all share. While it is well within the rights of a losing litigant to petition their elected representatives, it is wholly disingenuous to call doing so here anything other than what it is—seeking a special exemption from the law, as currently written and as confirmed by the courts.

Throughout my time as Governor, I have worked with legislators on fiscally responsible ways to improve our tax code while protecting our state's fiscal health, including the four tax cuts that I have signed into law. Even during this legislative session, I worked directly with legislators to put forward a specific, concrete proposal that would have lowered taxes for Missourians and reined in costly and inefficient tax credits for special interests, broadened the overall tax base and reduced tax rates, while protecting our ability to invest in education and other vital public services. Unfortunately, the General Assembly refused to enact this broad tax relief in favor of narrow giveaways like those contained in Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 612 and the other bills I am vetoing today. For the reasons stated herein, this is an endeavor I cannot support.

Windfall Refunds and Retroactive Immunity

Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 612 would mandate governmental notification before a business is under any legal obligation to collect and remit sales tax under an administrative or judicial decision that modifies the items subject to tax. See Section 144.021.2. This ambiguously-worded provision is projected to reduce state and local revenues by up to $200 million annually.<sup>3</sup> As with the various other tax measures the General Assembly rushed through on the last day of session, the Fiscal Year 2015 budget they enacted fails to account for any of the revenue reductions that would result from this provision.

Mandatory governmental notification before a law applies would turn on its head the long-standing principle of our democracy that individuals are presumed to know the law. It is one thing to require the government to provide information about recent developments in the law so that those affected can adjust their prospective conduct accordingly, but it is quite another to condition whether that law even applies based upon whether a person has received personal notification of the law's existence. This kind of governmental paternalism is unprecedented. This year alone the General Assembly passed nearly 200 bills modifying thousands of pages of Missouri law that apply to all manner of conduct. The General Assembly should not have to send a letter to every Missourian before this legion of new laws takes effect. Similarly, every potential criminal should not have to receive a notice describing this year's revisions to the state's criminal code before they can be prosecuted under it.

This provision in Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 612 also misunderstands tax law. Although a decision of the director of revenue is listed as an example of a "modification" triggering the duty to notify established by the bill, the director has no power to finally determine whether an item is taxable or not; that authority lies solely with those who write the tax laws—the General Assembly—and those that finally interpret them—the Missouri Supreme Court. See Mo. Const. Art. V, Sec. 3 (giving the Missouri Supreme Court exclusive appellate jurisdiction over the construction of the revenue laws of this state). Similarly, a decision of the administrative hearing commission is listed as something that can trigger notification. However, while the administrative hearing commission has the power to hear individual disputes, a decision of that body is not binding beyond the parties, and therefore it cannot finally "modify" what is taxable or not for other affected sellers.

Although a decision of the Missouri Supreme Court might "change[ ] which items of tangible personal property or services are taxable" within the meaning of the bill, the court decisions that purportedly prompted this provision and many of the new exemptions passed on the final day of the legislative session did not. In each of those cases, the Missouri Supreme Court found that the current law, as enacted by the General

<sup>3</sup> A significant portion of the fiscal impact from this provision is due to its failure to prohibit a business that was properly collecting tax from claiming a refund for the taxes it paid prior to receiving the notification called for under the bill. Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 662, which I am also vetoing today, contains a similar provision but includes language that expressly prohibits refunds for businesses that had been correctly collecting the tax, thereby reducing its projected fiscal impact.

Assembly, required a tax to be paid, notwithstanding that a particular business had tried to get out of this legal obligation.<sup>4</sup> The decisions did not newly subject an item to tax; instead, they simply confirmed that such items were and are taxable. However, there is nothing in this bill to prevent a business from arguing that court decisions like these are “modifications” triggering a notification to all affected sellers that what was always taxable continues to be taxable as confirmed by the Missouri Supreme Court.

The bill provides far-reaching consequences for such a notification. Under the bill, a failure to notify an affected seller “shall relieve such seller of liability for taxes that would be due under the modification.” See Section 144.021.2. Accordingly, receiving a notification gives any business that was not collecting taxes prior to the notice retroactive immunity for taxes that the Missouri Supreme Court has confirmed should have been collected. Under this bill, even the specific business that had sought to avoid paying taxes, hired a lawyer to litigate the issue, and lost in court, could argue that it had no tax liability for any of the taxes the court ordered it to pay prior to being notified of the decision in its own case.

Even more problematic than retroactive immunity for businesses that had not been collecting and remitting the taxes required by the law would be the windfall for businesses that had been correctly collecting the taxes required prior to the court decision confirming their obligation to do so. Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 612 would waive any tax liability prior to receiving the required notification and, unlike a similar provision in Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 662, it does not expressly preclude a business that had been properly collecting the tax from this waiver of tax liability. Accordingly, there is nothing in this bill preventing a business that was properly collecting the tax from claiming a refund for the taxes it correctly collected prior to being notified of a Missouri Supreme Court decision confirming that the tax it had been correctly collecting was required under the law. Under this provision, the vast majority of businesses properly collecting tax could seek a windfall refund simply because a particular business had sought to avoid its legal obligation, litigated, and lost.

The problems with this provision extend beyond windfall refunds and retroactive immunity, to the additional governmental intrusion and burden on taxpayers that could result from the requirement to provide a personal notification to each and every affected seller. Such individualized notification would require the department of revenue to more closely and more frequently scrutinize sales data and other business information it obtains and to potentially require additional information in order to determine precisely which businesses might be affected by a given decision. In addition, because addresses, ownership and personal contact information change over time, the department would need to gather updated information more frequently and perhaps maintain a comprehensive database of such information to ensure cost-effective compliance with the personalized notification requirement of the bill. The need to continually maintain up-to-date sales and other business information would result in additional burdens for taxpayers that could be avoided with a less onerous, and likely more effective, method of providing generalized notice of updates in the law than the personal notification mandated by Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 612.

If it were to become law, Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 612 would create no shortage of work for tax attorneys and consultants. It provides a clear incentive for businesses to engage in otherwise unnecessary litigation in the hopes of obtaining a “decision” arguably constituting a “modification” in order to trigger individual notification and then either a windfall refund if they were complying with the law or retroactive immunity if they were violating it. Moreover, it will require all taxpayers to bear the cost of staffing and postage to comply with the personal notification mandate, while putting additional burdens on businesses through additional government intrusion into their affairs. While providing up-to-date information to taxpayers is a laudable policy, Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 612 fails to accomplish it and instead puts additional burden on taxpayers and significantly reduces state and local revenue. Accordingly, this measure does not receive my support.

Special Exemptions for Commercial Laundries and Dry Cleaners

Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 612 would exempt commercial laundries and dry cleaners from paying state and local sales and use taxes on their purchases of materials, goods, machinery, electrical energy and gas, chemicals, soaps, detergents, cleaning and sanitizing agents, and other ingredients used to treat, clean and sanitize textiles. These new tax exemptions would only be available for large commercial and industrial laundries and dry cleaners—facilities that process at least 500 pounds per hour and 60,000 pounds per week. There is no requirement that a benefitting business create any new jobs to take advantage of these broad new exemptions. Moreover, the General Assembly failed to account for the projected $2 million annual reduction in state revenue in the budget they enacted for the fiscal year starting July 1, as well as an additional $2 million reduction projected for local jurisdictions.

Like many of the exemptions and carve-outs rushed through on the last day of the legislative session, these new exemptions for laundries and dry cleaners are not mere clarifications of existing sales and use tax law. Instead, this provision would seek to overrule 25 years of legal precedent holding that cleaning dirty clothes is not the same as manufacturing. In 1989, the Missouri Supreme Court first “plumbed the sudsy depths of various sales and use tax exemptions and found no application to commercial laundry operations.” AAA Laundry & Linen Supply Co. v. Director of Revenue, 425 S.W.3d 126, 127 (Mo. banc 2014) (discussing Unitog Rental Services, Inc. v. Director of Revenue, 779 S.W.2d <sup>4</sup> This is true whether it was the court reaffirming this year the tax a laundry first sought to avoid in 1989, see AAA Laundry & Linen Supply Co. v. Director of Revenue, 425 S.W.3d 126, 127 (Mo. banc 2014) (discussing Unitog Rental Services, Inc. v. Director of Revenue, 779 S.W.2d 568 (Mo. banc 1989)), affirming that the General Assembly’s laws did not exempt the purchases claimed as tax free by convenience stores, restaurants, or grocery stores, see Aquila Foreign Qualifications Corp. v. Director of Revenue, 362 S.W.3d 1, 2 (Mo. banc 2012); Brinker Missouri, Inc. v. Director of Revenue, 319 S.W.3d 433, 435 (Mo. banc 2010); *Union Elec. Co. v. 568 (Mo. banc 1989)). Earlier this year, the court similarly rejected a commercial laundry's attempt to avoid paying its taxes, reiterating that, as in 1989, the laws enacted by the General Assembly did not provide a tax exemption. Id. at 127-29. Following this decision, the laundry league lobbied lawmakers for tailor-made exemptions that would treat ironing out the wrinkles as "processing" a shirt and getting out the grass stains as "manufacturing" a pair of pants, thereby abrogating a quarter century of law and relieving the laundries of their previous legal obligations.

Because these new exemptions were enacted without regard for the normal legislative process—slipped into the bill without ever being in an introduced bill, without ever being the subject of a public hearing, and without ever being included in a fiscal note that reflected their cost—it is not surprising that they promote poor tax policy. First, these exemptions draw a seemingly arbitrary distinction between the laundries and dry cleaners fortunate enough to gain this generous new benefit and the rest who are left out to dry. Under this provision, a laundry that processes 59,999 pounds per week would have to continue paying their taxes, but a laundry processing a single pound more would be entitled to broad new exemptions from state and local taxes. This distorts the free market and puts smaller laundries and dry cleaners (not to mention the Missouri families who are doing their own laundry) in the position of subsidizing the operations of the larger ones. The large commercial laundries might be getting their detergent tax-free, but the rest of Missouri taxpayers would be getting taken to the cleaners.

Moreover, this provision does not simply give commercial laundries and dry cleaners the same tax exemptions enjoyed by other businesses. It gives them more lucrative ones. Although some of the tax exemptions available to manufacturers are limited solely to state taxes, these new exemptions for laundries would apply to local taxes as well. With this provision, the General Assembly would be privileging washing dirty clothes over manufacturing new products, giving commercial dry cleaners and laundries a better deal than Missouri manufacturers without any clearly-articulated economic justification for doing so and without requiring the creation of a even a single new job. Particularly when coupled with the fiscal irresponsibility of failing to account for the fiscal impact in the budget, these exemptions represent poor tax policy and poor fiscal policy, and cannot receive my approval.

Corporate Income Allocation

Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 612 would enable additional businesses to reduce their corporate income taxes by utilizing an alternative method of calculating the amount of their income that is derived in Missouri. Legislation enacted last year authorized this alternative allocation method for manufacturers and other businesses selling tangible personal property. This provision would expand this alternative method to sellers of intangible personal property and service providers such as law firms, accounting firms, stock brokers, bond traders, real estate holding companies, and consultants.

Like many of the tax measures enacted during the final hours of the legislative session, this provision was never the subject of a public hearing and was not accounted for in the Fiscal Year 2015 budget passed by the General Assembly. A change to Missouri's tax policy that would reduce state revenues by up to $15 million annually according to the legislature's own estimate should be the subject of open debate, and the foregone revenue must be accounted for in the budget in order to receive my support.

In accordance with the above-stated reasons for disapproval, I am returning Conference Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 612 without my approval.

Sincerely,
Jeremiah W. (Jay) Nixon
Governor

Herewith I return to you Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 615 entitled:

AN ACT

To repeal sections 49.272, 452.556, 476.056, 478.320, 478.437, 478.464, 478.513, 478.600, 483.140, 488.012, 488.014, 488.426, 488.607, 550.040, 550.060, 575.153, and 610.021, RSMo, section 476.385 as enacted by conference committee substitute for house committee substitute for senate bill no. 23, ninety-seventh general assembly, first regular session, and section 476.385 as enacted by conference committee substitute for senate substitute for senate committee substitute for house bill no. 683, ninety-fifth general assembly, first regular session, and to enact in lieu thereof twenty-one new sections relating to the administration of justice, with an existing penalty provision, and an emergency clause for certain sections.

I disapprove of Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 615. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 615 contains a number of worthwhile provisions that can become law with my action on other legislation. However, because this bill would reduce government transparency by exempting certain records of the Lieutenant Governor from disclosure under Chapter 610, RSMo, commonly known as the Missouri Sunshine Law, it does not receive my approval.

Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 615 would amend Chapter 610, RSMo, to authorize the closure of “[i]ndividually identifiable records submitted to the office of the Lieutenant Governor concerning or relating to reports of waste, fraud, and abuse of public resources.” However, as noted by the State Auditor in his most recent audit of the Lieutenant Governor’s Office, “the Lieutenant Governor lacks the statutory authority to investigate public concerns regarding the suspected misuse of taxpayer monies or to create a website or telephone hotline for that purpose.”<sup>1</sup> Moreover, the State Auditor recognized that “because state law already provides other elected officials and agencies, such as the State Auditor, the Attorney General, the Department of Social Services, and the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations, Division of Workers’ Compensation, with authority to investigate fraud and misuse of public funds, the Lieutenant Governor’s Missouri Waste Report may be a duplication of effort and a waste of state resources.”

Missouri law already provides confidentiality protections for individuals making reports or allegations of improper governmental activity to agencies that actually have the statutory authority to investigate such allegations. For example, just last year I signed legislation authorizing the State Auditor to receive reports or allegations of improper governmental activities and allowing reporting individuals to choose to remain anonymous. See Section 29.221, RSMo. Although maintaining confidentiality may be warranted where information is being provided to an agency with the legal authority to investigate the allegations, there is no sound reason for shielding from public scrutiny an office that lacks such authority. Accordingly, this bill does not receive my approval.

In accordance with the above stated reasons for disapproval, I am returning Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 615 without my approval.

Respectfully submitted,
Jeremiah W. (Jay) Nixon
Governor

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI

Herewith I return to you Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 675 entitled:

AN ACT

To amend chapter 70, RSMo, by adding thereto one new section relating to the Missouri local government employees' retirement system.

I disapprove of Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 675. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 675 would allow a political subdivision to request that the Local Government Employees’ Retirement System (LAGERS) assume all duties and responsibilities related to the operation of the political subdivision’s prior, closed retirement plan. While there may be benefits for a political subdivision to have this option, it should not be provided without regard to the rights of plan participants and to local laws governing the administration of police and firefighter retirement plans. Because this is precisely what Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 675 would do, it does not receive my approval.

Proponents of this legislation have stressed that the bill merely provides the option to transfer the administration of a prior, closed police or firefighter retirement plan to LAGERS. However, the bill would place the authority to exercise this option solely in the hands of the political subdivision employer, even if the transfer was opposed by the plan trustees, who, unlike the political subdivision employer, have a fiduciary obligation to plan participants. Moreover, Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 675 would authorize the political subdivision to transfer plan administration to LAGERS even if the political subdivision’s own charter or ordinances would prohibit it, by authorizing the transfer “[n]otwithstanding any language to the contrary in any other statute, city ordinance or city charter. . .” Thus, in a charter city with a charter provision requiring a vote of the plan membership in order for there to be a change to the retirement plan for police officers and firefighters, this bill would nonetheless allow the political subdivision to transfer the retirement plan to LAGERS without the vote called for by the city charter.

Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 675 would also enable political subdivisions to ignore the wishes of local voters. Voters in a number of Missouri communities have approved dedicated sales taxes to fund public safety, including police and fire retirement plan obligations. Local voters did so with the understanding that such plan obligations would be managed by local trustees. By enabling a political subdivision to nonetheless transfer plan administration away from local trustees, Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 675 would undermine the will of local voters and should not become the law of the state.

In accordance with the above stated reasons for disapproval, I am returning Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 675 without my approval.

Jeremiah W. (Jay) Nixon

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI

Herewith I return to you House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 694 entitled:

AN ACT

To repeal sections 408.500, 408.505, and 408.506, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof three new sections relating to unsecured loans of five hundred dollars or less, with penalty provisions.

I disapprove of House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 694. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 694 provides false hope of true payday lending reform while in reality falling far short of the mark. This bill cannot be called meaningful reform and does not receive my approval.

Supporters point to the lower cap on interest this bill would impose, but allowing payday lenders to charge 912.5% for a 14-day loan is not true reform. Supporters point to the requirement that payday lenders offer extended payment plans, but in states where payday lenders are required to offer such plans they are seldom used by borrowers. Supporters point to the legislation's requirement for payday lenders to comply with "restrictions and prohibitions applicable to creditors contained in the federal Fair Debt Collection Practices Act," but the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act does not apply to creditors, which renders this requirement hollow. Supporters point to the prohibition on loan rollovers, but missing from the legislation is anything to address the unfortunately all-too-common situation where someone living paycheck-to-paycheck is offered multiple loans by multiple lenders at the same time or is encouraged to take out back-to-back loans from the same lender.

Although some may contend that House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 694 is an improvement over the status quo, it fails to protect consumers and fails to prevent the cycle of debt that payday lending perpetuates. Instead, House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 694 appears to be part of a coordinated effort by the payday loan industry to avoid more meaningful reform. This I cannot support.

In accordance with the above stated reasons for disapproval, I am returning House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 694 without my approval.

Respectfully submitted,
Jeremiah W. (Jay) Nixon

RESOLUTIONS

Senator Dempsey offered Senate Resolution No. 3, regarding Carla Incerta, St. Charles, which was adopted.

Senator Schmitt offered Senate Resolution No. 4, regarding Jeffery Daniel Burke, which was adopted.

Senator Kehoe, joined by the entire membership, offered the following resolution, which was read and adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 5

Whereas, the members of the Missouri Senate occasionally pause in their diverse daily activities in order to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of Show-Me State residents who have proven down through the years to be exemplary citizens in local communities;

and

Whereas, Bob Priddy of Jefferson City, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as the former news director of KLIK radio and has been the news director of the statewide commercial radio network MissouriNet since its founding in November 1974; and

Whereas, in November 2014, Bob Priddy is drawing his leadership of MissouriNet to a close in well-deserved retirement after forty years of service; and

Whereas, Bob Priddy prepared for his diverse responsibilities in life by earning a degree in journalism from the University of Missouri and continuing his higher education through graduate studies in journalism and education; and

Whereas, no stranger to honors and accolades, Bob Priddy is the recipient of a Faculty-Alumni Award from the University Alumni Association, an Honor Medal from the School of Journalism, and a Gregory Stockard Distinguished Service Award from the Radio Television News Directors Association and the Radio and Television News Directors Foundation; and

Whereas, Bob Priddy is the author of five books, three of which are based on his popular daily radio program, “Across Our Wide Missouri”; one of which is a biography of Thomas Hart Benton, “Only the Rivers Are Peaceful: The Missouri Mural of Thomas Hart Benton”; and one of which is “The Art of the Missouri Capitol: History in Canvas, Bronze, and Stone”; and

Whereas, Bob Priddy is justifiably proud to be known as the beloved husband of Nancy, a loving father of Liz and Rob, a wonderful grandfather to Addison and Elena Priddy, and a devout member of First Christian Church/Disciples of Christ in Jefferson City:

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved that we, the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-seventh General Assembly, join to applaud the personal and professional accomplishments garnered thus far in the life and work of Bob Priddy and to convey to him this legislative body’s most heartfelt best wishes as he partakes in the special opportunities and pleasures traditionally associated with the golden years of retirement; and

Be It Further Resolved that the Secretary of the Senate be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Bob Priddy of Jefferson City, Missouri.
